HUMAN RESOURCES ANNOUNCES FLEXIBLE BENEFITS PLAN

We are pleased to announce that, subject to approval by the University Board of Trustees, the University plans to extend the current Section 125 Premium Only Plan to include Flexible Spending Accounts for unreimbursed health care, dependent care, and alternative insurance expenses, beginning January 1.

The Flexible Benefits Plan is a benefit program that allows you, as a participating employee, to reduce your income tax liability. In fact, the new plan potentially can save you hundreds of dollars.

In the next few weeks, the Human Resources Department will schedule small group meetings to introduce and explain the flexible benefits plan. You will receive notification on meeting dates and times.

We are very pleased to be able to offer this exciting new benefit! Watch your mail for additional information.
