MASTERS DEGREE PROGRAM ANNOUNCED

On Wednesday, June 5, 1974, the Indiana State University Dean of the School of Education was in Evansville to announce a Masters degree program at Indiana State University Evansville. Dean David Turney explained that starting Fall, 1974 the Masters degree in elementary education will be offerered at ISUE.

In the past, courses in the Masters degree were offered in Evansville through the Division of Extended Services of Indiana State University, but students had to complete degree requirements at the Terre Haute campus. With this announcement, students can complete all course work for the Masters degree in elementary education at the Evansville campus.

HONOR STUDENTS

The Honors List for the Spring Semester has been released by the Dean of Academic Affairs and Student Services. Students with a 3.5 grade average or above for the Spring Semester are included in the Honors List. Two hundred and forty-two students were named to the Honors listing. The listing will be published in the Evansville Courier and the West Side Story.

ATHLETICS DEPT. OFFERS SUMMER CLASSES
