NICOLE CABLE WINS CHEMISTRY HONOR

For Immediate Release
April 6, 1994

Nicole L. Cable of Crown Point, Indiana, was awarded the Chemical Rubber Company Freshman Chemistry Achievement Award at the recent Honors Week programs at the University of Southern Indiana.

The CRC award, which includes a chemistry/physics handbook, is presented to students nationwide to recognize those who excel in chemistry.

Ms. Cable, a chemistry major who is achieving a perfect 4.0 grade point average, received the chemistry recognition during the School of Science and Engineering Technology portion of the ceremonies.

She attends USI as a Presidential Scholar, a scholarship program providing full tuition and fees for Indiana high school valedictorians and salutatorians who elect to attend USI. A 1993 graduate of Crown Point High School, Ms. Cable is the daughter of Rod and Paulette Cable, 912 Mohawk, in Crown Point.
