New Harmony Gallery

The work of Mr. John Nelson of John Wood Community College, Quincy, Illinois, and Ms. Dornith Doherty, associate professor of photography at the University of North Texas, will be featured May 24 through June 26 at the New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art. Both will attend an opening reception from 1 to 4 p.m. Saturday, May 24, at the Gallery.

Mr. Nelson combines heavily textured surfaces and symbolic imagery to create large monochromatic paintings. Ms. Doherty infuses figurative and wildlife photographs to create mysterious, dream-like images. He received an M.F.A. from Northern Illinois University in 1982 and has since exhibited throughout the U.S. His work was featured in 1995 in the New York City Soho Biennial and the Texas National at Stephen Austin State University, Nacogdoches. Ms. Dornith received an M.F.A. from Yale in 1988 and has exhibited throughout the U.S., participating in exhibitions at the A.R.C. Gallery, Chicago; Houston Center for Photography; and Indiana State Museum. She received a Fulbright lecture/research grant in 1995 and an IAC Fellowship in 1993.

"New Harmony Nights"

Two veteran New York actors, Ms. Christianne Tisdale and Mr. Alan Souza, will perform music from The New Harmony Theatre's (NHT) summer season in a special preview cabaret, "New Harmony Nights," at 8 p.m. Saturday, June 7, in Carter Hall. Popular tunes from the '30s, '40s, and '50s that conjure night and pre-dawn images, like "Moon Glow" and "Moonlight Serenade" will be some of the featured melodies. The actors will be joined by other cast members from the opening NHT musical, She Loves Me. Tickets will be sold as tables of eight for $200 or individual seats for $25. Light food and a cash bar will be available. Seating is limited; reservations can be made by calling the New Harmony Theatre, extension 1668 or 682-3115.

O'Daniel Leadership Academy:
Summer and fall classes planned by the new O'Daniel Leadership Academy will include:

Blazing Trails - for any student who would like to explore and develop leadership skills, the 2 1/2-hour class will be divided between group discussion and experiential activities. Students will read Mr. Stephen Covey's "7 Habits of Highly Effective people" (book provided), spend time on reflective writing in their leadership log (provided), and work on a leadership project as a group; class time is set aside for the project. Blazing Trails Session I started May 13 and runs through June 13. Session II will run from July 21 through August 22, meeting daily for the first 10 days; students and the facilitator will determine additional meeting times while the group is working on their project for the rest of the session. Fall Blazing Trails will meet from 7 to 9:30 p.m. Mondays and 9 to 11:30 a.m. Fridays.

Pathfinders - learn to be a student leadership consultant; Pathfinders will be able to help student leaders plan retreats, set agendas, set organizational (and personal) goals, plan programs, and do team building with group members; assist in coordinating fall and spring leadership workshop series and conferences; after initial training semester, bi-weekly classes will meet from 3 to 5:30 p.m. Fridays, and have a two-day fall retreat. O'Daniel Leadership Academy will provide materials and resources.

For information, call Ms. Lisa M. McGuire, Student Development activities program advisor, extension 1031.

Names in the news:

Ms. Carolyn L. Roth, special part-time instructor in art, served as a juror for the Regional Arts Exposition '97, sponsored by the Rural Arts Council in Fairfield, Illinois. She gave a brief talk on May 9, at the opening reception in Peoples National Bank of Fairfield.

Ms. Susan M. Welch, assistant athletic trainer, will be a volunteer trainer at the 1997 NCAA Division II Track and Field National Championship May 21-24 at Southern Illinois University-Edwardsville.

Welcome:

The University community welcomes four new employees — Mrs. Kristi Kempf, director of Printing Services; Mrs. Cindy Lee Reese, senior secretary in Student Life; Mr. Steven S. Renner, managing director for Southern Indiana Theatres; and Ms. Jennifer Schmitz, art director in News and Information Services.

Mrs. Kempf received a bachelor of business administration cum laude from St. Bonaventure University, New York. She came to USI from Oswald and Associates, Evansville. She previously was assistant production manager for Century Publishing Company in Evanston, Illinois, where she managed all activity between the production, advertising, and editorial departments for Inside Sports and eight other national consumer publications.

Mrs. Reese is a North Posey High School graduate who previously was an administrative assistant with American Red Cross Blood Services.

Mr. Renner has a B.F.A. from Ohio University and was marketing director for University of Evansville Theatre for six years before coming to USI. He previously was director of marketing and public relations at the Hangar Theatre, an Equity summer theatre in Ithaca, New York, where he also was on the administrative staff at the Cornell University Center for Theatre Arts. He has been a development consultant to many non-profit organizations since obtaining a B.F.A. in theatre management.

Ms. Schmitz received a B.F.A. in graphic communications from the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh and was a graphic designer for three years at Lawrence University in Wisconsin. She designed Lawrence's award-winning web site and in July 1996, became an Internet consultant.

Sympathy:

The University community extends sympathy to Mr. Jim R. Prior, Computer Center programmer analyst, in the death May 8 of his father, Mr. Raymond H. Prior, 71, of Huntingburg, Indiana.

Congratulations...

to Ms. Karen J. Weber, Computer Center programmer manager, who will be married May 17 in Niagara Falls, New York, to Mr. Thomas W. Gates, owner of Sawood Recycling of Evansville.

to Mr. Richard D. Stein, women's assistant basketball coach, and his wife Kari on the birth May 2 of a son, Alexander David.

Process Education Workshop

USI and Ivy Tech State College will sponsor a workshop June 16-18 at USI on process education, an educational philosophy which focuses on empowerment and development of "self-growers" who are lifelong learners with the ability to assess and improve their own performance.

Dr. Daniel Apple, president of Pacific Crest Software, will head the team leading the workshop. He has a B.A. in information science, mathematics, and chemistry from the University of California at Santa Cruz, an M.S. in industrial engineering and operations research from Syracuse University, and a Ph.D. in public policy and systems analysis from the State University of New York at Syracuse.

The three-day workshop will provide an experiential setting to learn the concepts and techniques associated with process education, centering on these topics: classroom facilitation, assessment activities, process education, and curriculum design. Workshop material provided for participants will include software, "Foundations of Learning," "Learning Assessment Journal," "The Primer for Process Education," teaching resource books, "A Handbook on Cooperative Education," and assessment instruments.

The workshop fee of $250 covers all materials, lunch, and snacks. For more information, please contact Miss Terri L. Watson, University Division advisor, extension 1606 or 1657, or by e-mail.

Thank yous...

Career Services would like to thank various departments and individuals for their help with the four job fairs sponsored throughout the year. Among departments instrumental in the success of these events were the Physical Plant, Central Scheduling, Physical Education, News and Information Services, Media Services, and Marriott Food Services. Special appreciation is extended to Sherry Thomas, Michelle Herrmann, Mabel Hawkins, Jane Davis-Brezette, Debbie Bookout, Eric Faith, Bob Brauser, Roberta Edgerson, Ellen Cathey, and faculty mem-

Kindergarten Camp:

The Children's Center is offering a Kindergarten Camp this summer, open to children who need full-time care for the summer and are either entering or have just completed kindergarten. This program will be similar to the Enrichment Camp but age appropriate for the children served. There also will be a half-day program for 4 and 5 year olds, operating from 8 a.m. to noon.

The Children's Center will be in the Science Center for the summer, and has more space for the special programs. There probably will be space for non-USI children as well. This is a one-summer opportunity. Direct any questions to Mrs. Pam Buschkill, center coordinator, extension 1869.

Transfer forms:

Employees requesting transfer to clerical or support positions may do so by completing a "Request for Consideration for Transfer to Clerical/Support Position" form. This document has been developed to help ensure all current and relevant information is submitted by employees wishing to transfer to other positions on campus. Forms are available from the Human Resources Department or on the "O" drive on the network (under TRANSFER in WordPerfect). For questions or comments, contact Mrs. Sylvia A. Wettmarshausen, employment and employee relations coordinator, extension 1790.

Group term insurance:

The University has a group term voluntary life insurance benefit available to all benefit-eligible employees through TransAmerica Assurance Company. This benefit is for those who wish to purchase additional group term life insurance on a payroll deduction basis for themselves and their spouses and/or dependent children. Open enrollment is being held through May 16; the insurance will be effective July 1. Interested employees should contact the Human Resources Department, extension 1815, for an application and information. Questions may be directed to Ms. Debra S. Jochim, manager of employee services, extension 1988.

Volunteer nominees sought:

The Volunteer USI Advisory Board seeks recommendations of volunteers to be considered for the USI Volunteer of the Year awards. Faculty, staff, and volunteers may submit nominations until June 30. The Volunteer Recognition Committee will select recipients based on the following criteria: volunteer service hours from July 1, 1996, through June 30, 1997; exceptional dedication, leadership, or extraordinary service. The recipient will be announced during the Volunteer USI Recognition Luncheon July 25. Nomination forms are available in the Office of Alumni and Volunteer Services, WA104, or call extension 1924.

some countries but most lecturing assignments are in English.

Information on both the Columbia fellowships and Fulbright awards may be obtained from Dr. Peggy F. Harrel, coordinator of Grants and Sponsored Research, WA104H, extension 7016.

bers who encouraged students to participate. As a result of your cooperation, approximately 900 students were able to meet with some 220 recruiters from 150 companies/school districts.

The Business Office would like to thank everyone who attended or assisted with the recent FRS training sessions. A special note of appreciation goes to the Computer Center, Extended Services, and the School of Business for their support.

Historic Preservation Week:

Mr. Roy Underhill, host of the PBS program The Woodwright's Shop, will be featured in programs Friday and Saturday, May 16-17, at Historic New Harmony, helping to celebrate Historic Preservation Week.

His topic will be "Confessions of a Colonial Carpenter" for a lecture at 7 p.m. Friday in Thrall's Opera House. A reception will follow, hosted by The Antique Showrooms in the Mews. On Saturday, Mr. Underhill will join Mr. Mike Alley, an Evansville contractor, to help reconstruct a log cabin in New Harmony, using traditional methods to hew, fit, and replace rotting logs. Mr. Underhill will be available throughout the day to talk with visitors and sign copies of his new book, The Woodwright's Apprentice: Twenty Favorite Projects from the Woodwright's Shop.

A lecture/reception ticket is $10. Tickets are $6 each for Historic New Harmony tours Saturday that will visit the site of the cabin reconstruction. An advance ticket package covering both events is available for $13. Call 682-4488 for information.

Postdoctoral fellowships:

The Columbia Society of Fellows in the Humanities will appoint several postdoctoral fellows in 1998-99, working with grants from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation, William R. Kenan Trust, and the Arthur Vining Davis Foundation. Fellows must have received a Ph.D. between January 1, 1992, and July 1, 1998. The stipend will be $30,000, half for independent research, half for teaching in the undergraduate program in general education; an additional $1,000 is available to support research.

1998-99 Fulbright scholar awards:

August 1 is the deadline to apply for 1998-99 Fulbright senior scholar awards. Opportunities for lecturing or advanced research in nearly 130 countries are available to faculty and to professionals outside of academe. Awards range from two months to a full academic year, and many assignments are flexible to the needs of the grantee. Virtually all disciplines participate. Basic requirements are U.S. citizenship and the Ph.D. or comparable professional qualifications (such as a terminal degree in fine arts). Foreign language skills are needed for
