

USI's MPA program cosponsoring networking event

10/19/2016 | Almira Havic

The University of Southern Indiana's Master of Public Administration (MPA) Program will cosponsor the Indiana Chapter of the American Society for Public Administration's (INASPA) Fall Networking Event at 5:30 p.m. Thursday, October 27 in Traditions Lounge, located in University Center East. This event is free and open to the public. Government and nonprofit professionals, as well as civic leaders are encouraged to attend.

USI President Dr. Linda L. M. Bennett will provide remarks on the relationships between state government and public higher education. Attendees will also have the opportunity to meet the INASPA board and other members. Refreshments will be served during the reception.

The ASPA is the largest and most prominent professional association for public administration. It is dedicated to advancing the art, science, teaching and practice of public and non-profit administration.

For more information, contact Dr. Matt Hanka, associate professor of political science and director of the MPA Program, at 812-461-5204 or mjhanka@usi.edu. For more information about the ASPA, visit aspanet.org.
