VARSITY CLUB SUMMER STAG A GREAT SUCCESS!

Over 130 persons attended the Screaming Eagles Varsity Club Summer Stag held on July 22, 1976. This was the greatest turnout ever for the Varsity Club event. Sixty-nine attendance prizes were given away through the generosity of the following individuals and firms: Coca Cola, Evansville Triplets, Hamilton's Pro Shop, Barney Hubbard, ISUE Bookstore, Lamasco Bank, Northwestern Mutual Life, Nunn Milling Company, Peerless Pottery, Pepsi Cola, and Smith & Butterfield. ISUE professors, Jack Marr and Mike Denner, won the top prizes with Dr. Marr getting a digital clock radio and Dr. Denner winning a jogging suit.

SHIELD TO PUBLISH SUMMER EDITION. ISUE student newspaper editor, Art Osgatharp, is planning a Shield issue for August 16, 1976. This issue will cover general information items important to new students. Individuals wanting news articles in this "welcome back to campus" issue, can send their copy to Art Osgatharp, c/o the Shield, or Sherri Standley, Publications Office, Technology Center, on or before August 9, 1976.

PREVIEW OF COMING ATTRACTION. All University employees are invited to attend an "All Faculty/Staff Picnic" on Saturday, September 25 from 2:00-7:00 p.m. Co-chairmen for the event are Jean Engelke, Director, Day Care Center; Bill Muller, Purchasing Agent; and Charles Petranek, Assistant Professor of Sociology. Anyone wishing to volunteer time and/or ideas to the event can contact one of the above persons. Be sure to mark your calendar for that day and look for further details in a future issue of University Notes!

FALL ORIENTATION 1976. "Explore and Discover ISUE," the 1976 fall orientation program, is scheduled for August 19, 20, 21, 23 and 24. The program will be implemented by fourteen group leaders selected from the ISUE student body. The students who applied and were chosen to be group leaders include Bill Muehlenbein, Rose Zigenfus, Lana Goffinet, Gina Zehngut, Jackie Bridges, Terry Lenn, Nora Kittridge, Joanne Wildt, Gail Downen, Lauralee Jost, Terry Stumpf, Jim Brame, Mike Wrye, and Connie Simpson.

The group leaders will be easily recognizable to new students, as they will be clad in special garb which has just recently arrived on campus. In addition to jeans or slacks, each group leader will sport a navy blue T-shirt inscribed "Amigo" (ask me I give orientation), white jackets with an ISUE seal, and red, white and blue ISUE tams. The group leaders designed the orientation program themselves, under the direction of William Straeffer, Director of Admissions; Tim Buecher, University Counselor; and Barry Schonberger, Director of Student Activities, and have prepared a very unique program for the 700 new students expected to attend ISUE in the fall.
