The Indiana State University Evansville Student Government Association is sponsoring a panel discussion "Student Involvement in State and Local Government," on September 22 in conjunction with National Student Government Day recently proclaimed by President Nixon for September 26. The President proclaimed the day in honor of the thousands of students involved in institutional governance across the nation.

Members of the ISUE panel will be the Honorable Russell G. Lloyd, Mayor of Evansville; the Honorable Phillip H. Hayes, Indiana State Senator; and Col. Wallace Wardner, Assistant Professor of Political Science at ISUE.

ISUE sophomore David Baumgart, a communications major and President of the Student Government Association, explained that the panel discussion will begin at 1:15 p.m. on September 22 in the Blue Room and student government officials from local high schools will be special guests of the ISUE Student Government Association.

A reception with the panel members will immediately follow the discussion. William G. Austin, Jr. an ISUE sophomore business major is chairman of the event.
