

MID-AMERICA SINGERS AND BAND PRESENT 1993 MADRIGAL FEASTES

The Mid-America Singers and Band are in full rehearsal for the 24th annual Christmas Madrigal Feastes to be presented Thursday-Sunday, December 2-5, in the UC Dining Room.

Guests for the 1993 festivities will dine on a traditional roast beef dinner, with each course presented in a procession led by the Mid-America Singers. Dinner will start at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, and at 6 p.m. Sunday.

Guests will be entertained by strolling singers and instrumentalists, juggling jesters, sneaky beggars, and serving wenches who enjoy flirting with the lords of the manor. Knights of the realm will compete to see who is noblest and strongest.

Mr. Daniel Craig, Singers director, said the evening is a scripted event inviting audience participation in "salt violations," carol singing, dancing, and interplay with the cast. The Singers will present a program of traditional Madrigal pieces from the Renaissance, stirring music from ancient to modern composers, and traditional carols from throughout the world, he said, noting composers will include Giovanni Gastoldi, Hans Leo Hassler, Thomas Morley, John Dowland, and Franz Biebl.

TRAVEL TIP... When traveling on University business, be sure you have a valid USI identification card to present at a hotel desk when you check in, to qualify for a government or state rate. If you do not have a card, call the Human Resources Department, extension 1770, for information.

PAYROLL REMINDERS

Please assist the Payroll Office in making sure you receive your W-2 in a timely fashion. Check the accuracy of your name, address, and Social Security number on your next paycheck and call extension 1661 if any information is incorrect.

Also, anyone who has moved between states or Indiana counties during 1993 will need to complete a new state/county tax withholding form before January 1. Or, if your filing status or exemption allowances have changed, you must file an amended W-4 federal withholding form by December 15.

The auditions are open to the public with auditioners asked to prepare a one- to three-minute monologue from a modern text. Roles in the play range from age 13 to 50, and include two juvenile and some late-teen parts. Walk-in auditions will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis. Those interested should sign up at the USI Theatre office, 8076A Bigger Building in Mid-America Student Housing, adjacent to the campus, or call the theatre office, extension 1668.

CERAMIC ART SALE. The USI Art Club is sponsoring a Ceramic Art Sale from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday-Wednesday, November 29-December 1, on the UC Mall. Bad weather will move the sale to the Eagle's Nest. Call Mr. Matt Gehring, 423-0117, for information.

TEACHING FELLOWSHIPS. The James Madison Memorial Fellowship Foundation, a federally-endowed program designed to strengthen instruction about the Constitution, will award $24,000 fellowships in 1994 for up to two years of full-time master's-level graduate study in the framing and history of the U.S. Constitution. College seniors and graduates who intend to become secondary teachers of American history, government, or social studies are eligible. At least one fellowship is awarded in each state, with a recipient required to teach a minimum of one year for each year of graduate assistance received and attend a summer institute. Details on the program may be obtained from Dr. Darrel E. Bigham, professor of history.

AREA CODE CHANGE. Beginning December 1, Indiana callers will need to dial "0" or "1" plus the area code plus the seven-digit number on any long-distance call, even those within their own area code. Customers with long-distance programmed services such as speed dialing or call forwarding, or who have numbers programmed to a fax machine, computer, programmable telephone, automatic dialer, PBX system, or alarm equipment will need to reprogram equipment to include the area code, starting December 1. This change will affect the entire campus and student housing.
