Champions for United Way — Continue the tradition!

The 1995 United Way campaign began Wednesday, October 18, with meetings involving the 37 campaign coordinators and continues through Friday, November 3. A coordinator will personally solicit each employee to support the United Way effort — an effort which provides emergency aid, health care, family counseling, and youth resources to many individuals in the community. This year, please consider your “fair share” of responsibility to those in need.

USI has a history of strong support for United Way. Your gift will help us reach this year's goal of $33,000 and also will make you eligible for great prizes! Look for descriptions of the prizes in the information your coordinator will share with you.

The chairs for this year's campaign are Mrs. Janel S. Allen, administrative assistant in Business Affairs; Mrs. Linda L. Cleek, associate director of Extended Services; Ms. Debra L. Foster, director of Student Activities; Mrs. Ginny L. Hall, Graduate Studies secretary; Dr. Jeffery W. Seyler, assistant professor of chemistry; Dr. Peggy O. Shields, associate professor of marketing. Working with them are Ms. Angela J. Catt, analyst, Mrs. Ingrid E. Lindy, manager of information systems, and Mrs. Marsha G. Salee, secretary in Human Resources.

Please give to the United Way and continue the tradition!

Oksoberfest

The USI family and the public are invited to enjoy Oksoberfest, which will be held from 12 noon to 4 p.m. Sunday, October 22, in the Outdoor Education Area, sponsored by the Student Government Association, Activities Programming Board, Welborn Hospital and Mulberry Center, and a variety of merchant neighbors.

This year's event will kick off a fund campaign for a “Safe Ride” program for USI students and be a potential entry in a national alcohol awareness contest which has a top prize of a $20,000 scholarship for the winning school.

Oksoberfest is an official activity of National Red Ribbon Week and will lead off a week of programs sponsored by various student groups as part of Drug/Alcohol Awareness Week. Tuesday, October 24, is Red Ribbon Day and faculty and staff members are urged to join students in wearing the ribbons. Wendi Fox, comedienne and lecturer, will speak at 9 p.m. Wednesday, October 25, in the Dining Room.

The Sunday Oksoberfest will feature free games and events:

For children — fun with pumpkins, face painting, a puppet show, Warrick County clowns, a balloon toss, sack race, and more
For adults — country line dancing, bingo, tug-of-war, volleyball, horse shoes, and more.

Student organizations will staff a Candyland General Store, the dunking booth — which will open at noon with Coach Bruce Pearl and Coach Chancellor Dugan taking the first turns on the bar — and other student-fundraiser booths. Proceeds will go to the “Safe Ride” campaign, which SGA wants to make available for the spring semester. “Safe Ride” will pay cab fare for USI students caught in a variety of emergency situations — assault, vehicle breakdown, drinking incidents, for example — where a student needs a cab ride but has no money to pay for it. The University reimburses the cab company, then bills the student later for the fare.

Dr. John W. Byrd, vice president for Student Affairs, and Mr. James W. Browning, counseling director, will cook the hamburgers and hot dogs supplied by local businesses. Guests are asked to park in the campus parking lots and take the hayride shuttle to the Outdoor Education Area. For information or to volunteer for Oksoberfest, call Ms. Duren at extension 1873.

50th Jubilee advisory:

The Evansville Catholic Diocese 50th jubilee will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday, October 22, at the Physical Activities Center, with up to 3,000 expected to attend.

Names in the news:

Dr. Hilary A. Braysmith, assistant professor of art history, presented a lecture on “Origins and Characteristics of Romanticism” on September 27 at the University of Evansville.

Dr. Susanna Hoeness-Krupsaw, assistant professor of English, represented USI at the Indiana College English Association meeting at Anderson University. She presented a paper on “The Great Bennett: Fitzgerald,

The University supports the campaign for Interstate 69 connecting Evansville to Indianapolis and the southwest!

Join in the support via a bumper sticker for your vehicle. The bumper stickers are available in the Development Office, AD104, or the information desks in the Orr Center Lobby and the University Center.

Alumni-in-Residence/Career Week

Friday, October 27 - Friday, November 3

The 1995 Alumni-in-Residence/Career Week program will open Friday, October 27, with Mr. Eric Adams, senior business development manager with Abbott Laboratories, Chicago, who will be a School of Science and Engineering Technology Alumni-in-Residence. Mr. Adams will discuss "Expanding the Horizons" at 2 p.m. in Forum III.

A 1986 USI chemistry graduate, Mr. Adams has a Master of International Business Studies from the University of South Carolina and is fluent in German. Prior to joining Abbott in 1992, he spent 3 1/2 years with Fresenius AG of Oberursel, Germany, in positions of commercial operations manager, joint venture/acquisition team leader, and commercial manager for Italy. For information, contact Mrs. Nancy B. Johnson, director of Alumni Affairs.

The fourth annual Health Professions Job Fair will be held at 11:30 a.m. Monday, October 30, in the Physical Activities Center. Students and graduates of all area nursing and health-related programs are invited to get information from 70 recruiters representing 50 health-care organizations in Tennessee, Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois, and Missouri. Employer sign-in begins at 10:30 a.m.; student visitations run from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. For information, call Mrs. Tracy J. Powers, assistant director of USI Career Services and Placement, extension 7002, job fair coordinator.

Other programs will include:

Monday, October 30 - GRE/NTE Workshop, 12 noon, UC351; International Employment Panel, 1 p.m., UC350

Tuesday, October 31 - Internet Job Search Workshop, 1:30 p.m., Career Services and Placement Office

Sympathy:

The University community extends its sympathy to Dr. Charles F. Harrington, director of institutional research, and his wife Kelly in the death October 14 of their infant daughter Amelia Mary, after undergoing open heart surgery in a St. Louis Hospital. Contributions may be made to the Ronald McDonald House in St. Louis. (The Harringtons are not yet listed in the University directory; for those interested in sending cards or other condolences, their address is 4601 Jackson Avenue, Evansville IN 47714.)

Thank you ...

from Dr. Helen R. Sands, professor of communications: "Thank you, dear friends at USI, for your many kind words and thoughtful acts after my return from my father's funeral. Your cards, messages -- whether in person or on e-mail -- and flowers helped ease the pain. Returning to USI seemed as though I was returning to a second family. To every member of my wonderful second family, I send my sincere thanks."

APB thank you:

The Activities Programming Board would like to thank all those who participated in or helped with Family Weekend. Special thanks to Coach Bruce Pearl for his energizing speech to the families and to the Mid-

America Singers for their excellent performance! Thank you, as always, to Mr. Mike Akermawi and the food service staff for a delicious lunch; the ribs and slaw were terrific! Thanks to all who made the weekend a success, including USI President H. Ray Hoops, Dr. John W. Byrd, vice president for Student Affairs, and Ms. Annie Krug, Special Events director.

Congratulations ...

to Dr. David W. Kinsey, chair of the Mathematics Department, on the birth October 16 of a granddaughter, Madalyn Helen, daughter of Eric and Mary Kinsey Singleton of Broomfield, Colorado.

Southern Hospitality Day:

The second fall Southern Hospitality Day is slated Friday, October 27, in Mitchell Auditorium, to allow Tri-State high school students to become acquainted with USI. The program begins at 9 a.m. in Mitchell Auditorium. Students and their parents and friends are invited to join the USI Enrollment Services staff for informational sessions on academic programs, financial assistance, campus activities and tours, free lunch, and more. Reservations are required this year. For information, call Enrollment Services, extension 1765.

Alumni Enhancement Workshop:

USI graduates will conduct workshops on financial planning, retirement, real estate investment, and insurance on Saturday, October 28, in a new program sponsored by the USI Alumni Association. The program will start with registration at 8:15 a.m. in the University Conference Center. It is free to USI alumni and their guests. Registration is requested. For information, call the Alumni Affairs Office, extension 1924.

Ghoul/casual day:

The Activities Programming Board is sponsoring Ghoul and Casual Day on Tuesday, October 31. Faculty, staff, and students may purchase a sticker for $3 that entitles them to come to work dressed in a Halloween costume or simply dressed in casual attire that day. All proceeds will go to the Muscular Dystrophy Association. This concept has been approved by USI President H. Ray Hoops and Human Resources. For information, please contact Ms. Julie Dunn Crawford in Student Life, extension 1949.

Rockefeller Fellowships:

The Rockefeller Foundation Humanities Fellowships support scholars and writers engaged in research on transnational social and cultural issues, non-Western cultures, and the diverse cultural heritage of the United States. For 1996-97, individuals can apply for resident fellowships at 29 host institutions. The fellowships are meant to serve scholars who are testing disciplinary boundaries or moving into newer fields of inquiry within the humanities. Although the majority of a fellow's time will be spent pursuing his or her own research toward

USI Theatre

USI Theatre is presenting Beth Henley's Pulitzer Prize-winning Crimes of the Heart, a play portraying comedic lunacy at the old homestead of three Southern sisters, one of whom has shot her husband. The curtain goes up at 8 p.m. Thursday-Saturday, October 19-20-21, and 2 p.m. Sunday, October 22. Tickets are $7 for general admission and $5 for the USI community (faculty, staff, and students) and for senior citizens (60-up). For reservations call extension 1668.

Get your Halloween costume now!

The USI Theatre will hold a Halloween costume and clothing sale at 10 a.m. Saturday, October 21, in the rehearsal studio at 96 S. Barker Avenue, with proceeds to be used for the USI Theatre.

Ms. Shan Jensen, costume designer and theatre instructor, said they are running out of storage space and have to sell some costumes to make room for new items. "The timing is perfect for Halloween," she noted, adding, "Many of the fashions being sold are coming back in style." The sale will include 1960s and '70s style clothing for men and women, along with shoes, accessories, current fashions, and a few very unusual theatrical pieces.

Period clothing is always in demand at the theatre and donations are always welcome. Call extension 1668 for information.

publication, the residency may involve participation in seminars, conferences, or other collaborative activities within the host program. Awards may not be used for the completion of graduate studies, advanced training, curriculum development projects, or for writing poetry or fiction. Complete information about eligibility, stipends, and procedures for application is available from current host institutions. Application deadlines range from November 15 to June 30. For information on 1996-97 programs and host institutions, contact Dr. Peggy Harrel, coordinator of Grants and Sponsored Research, AD104H, extension 7016 of e-mail: PHARREL.UCS.

Communal Studies lecture:

The continuing series of lectures sponsored by the USI Center for Communal Studies will feature Dr. Susan Matarese of the University of Louisville Department of Political Science. She will present the slide-illustrated lecture, "The Artisan as Individual and Communitarian: The Life of Brother Isaac Newton Youngs," at 10 a.m. Saturday, October 28, in Beal House, New Harmony.

Reception for potters:

A farewell reception will be held from 7 to 9 p.m. Friday, October 27, at the New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art for two Australian potters - Ms. Martha Jabour of Sydney, a ceramic sculptor, and Mr. Andrew Parker of Uralla, who creates functional pottery. The two have spent the past six weeks in southern Indiana and have carried on their pottery work at the Blaffer Pottery Studio in New Harmony. The pieces they have completed during their residency will be on display during the reception. Mr. Leonard E. Dowhie, USI professor of art and a sponsor of the Australians' visit, said the public is invited to the reception or to stop by Blaffer Studio to watch the potters work and chat with them about pottery and Australia.

Immunizations required:

All new students at state-supported universities must comply with the immunization requirements of Indiana Public Law 192. Those not in compliance will not be allowed to pre-register November 6-17 for the 1996 Spring Semester. University faculty and administrative staff members are asked to remind students that they must submit immunization records to Health Services, UC118, by October 31 to ensure enrollment eligibility.

An on-campus immunization clinic will be offered by Welborn Clinic from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Friday, November 10 in the Health Services Office, UC118. The fees will be: MMR (measles-mumps-rubella), $37; tetanus, $8; and tuberculosis, $9. Immunizations also are available at Deaconess Primary Care West, Welborn Clinic West, and from Dr. James Rice in Mt. Vernon. Any questions may be directed to Mrs. Lori Mason Powers, secretary in Health Services, extension 1807.

FYI —

Secretaries/Associates craft sale:

The USI Secretaries and Associates Club will hold a craft and bake sale and Chinese auction Monday-Thursday, October 30-November 3. Items will be available from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. daily in the Orr Center lobby. Club members are asked to take their sale items to Ms. Joyce Babillis, secretary in Total Quality Management, or to Ms. Sue AtKisson, School of Business secretary.

Advising workshop:

The only University Division/Academic Affairs advising workshop was held October 13. Other dates listed last week were for a student program mistakenly lumped with the faculty workshop. If you have questions, call Ms. Julie A. Floyd, advising coordinator, extension 1606.

Articles, artwork sought:

The deadline has been extended to November 1 for submissions of poetry, short stories, essays, photography, or artwork for the 1995-96 edition of Southern Indiana Review, a USI publication highlighting some of the best work by USI faculty, alumni, graduate students, and RopeWalk Writers Retreat participants and faculty. Ms. Martha W. Chapin, senior administrative secretary in the School of Liberal Arts, is accepting submissions and can answer queries; call extension 1630.

Graduate nursing information:

Information on the USI graduate nursing program will be presented during three sessions - 9-11 a.m. Wednesday, October 18; 5-7 p.m. Thursday, October 19; and 2-4 p.m. Friday, October 20, all in HP1006. Anyone interested in the program is invited to attend.

Wanted:

A cheerleading advisor to work with the Red and Blue Squad coaches and Student Life Office in coordinating squad activities and appearances. A desire to help far outweighs any lack of experience. Please call the Student Life Office for details.

Life was much simpler when what we honored was father and mother rather than all major credit cards.

Movies:

Fall film series - To Catch a Thief (1955)
Director: Alfred Hitchcock; cast: Cary Grant, Grace Kelly. In this Oscar winner for cinematography, Grant is a reformed jewel thief suspected of a string of thefts in luxury hotels on the Riviera and must catch the thief to prove his innocence. The film will be shown at 1:30 and 6 p.m. Tuesday, October 24, in Forum 1; it is free, open to the public.

Sports this week —

5 USI sports ranked in polls

For the first time in the history of the Athletic Department, which was created in 1971, USI has five of its teams ranked nationally at one time.

Both the men's and women's cross country teams are at 20th place and the men's soccer team is at 25th in their respective Top 25 rankings for the season. In preseason rankings, the men's basketball team is ranked first in four polls and the women's team is ranked third in the Division II Bulletin.

In the 1990s, the Screaming Eagles have been ranked nationally in men's and women's basketball, baseball, men's and women's cross country, men's golf, men's soccer, and softball, with six teams making post-season appearances in their respective NCAA Division II Tournaments. In 1995, men's basketball became the first sport to win a national title.

Cross country - men's and women's teams in GLVC Championships, 10:15 a.m. Saturday, October 21

Soccer - USI at IU/PU-Fort Wayne, 12 noon Saturday, October 21; St. Joseph's at USI, 6 p.m. Sunday, October 22

Volleyball - USI at St. Joseph's, 7 p.m. Friday, October 27
