ALL FAITH SEDER SUPPER AT ISUE. People of all denominations are invited to the traditional Jewish Passover family meal, the Seder, at ISUE's Cafeteria on April 2 at 6:30 p.m.

The Seder Supper, conducted by Mrs. Jean Mann and DR. RICHARD WHITMAN, is a joyful feast which must have children present to be authentic. The ritual foods and prayers will be demonstrated, followed by a full course meal accompanied by prescribed prayers. A game for children is included in the ceremonial aspect. Since it is a family meal, families are encouraged to attend.

Passover is a celebration of the Hebrews' liberation from slavery in Egypt with many rites and symbols connected with it. At the Seder Supper the symbolism will be explained. The Seder is not only devotional; it combines serious observations on Jewish life and destiny with poetry and light-heartedness.

The meal will include matzo ball soup, roast chicken and matzo ball dressing, broccoli, fruit cup and macaroons, and wine.

Sponsoring the Seder Supper is the ISUE Campus Ministry in cooperation with Reverend George Hughes, the Office of Continuing Education, and the ISUE Jewish community. Reservations may be made by calling the Office of Continuing Education at extension 1863. The cost for adults is $5.00. Children under 12 will be served at half price. Admission is limited to 40 people.

DONATE TO THE RED CROSS BLOOD DRIVE. Faculty and staff are encouraged to participate in the Red Cross Blood Drive on Wednesday, April 4 and Thursday, April 5 in the UC Bridge.

Anyone interested in donating should sign up March 28, 29, or 30 at the UC Lobby from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

BOOKSTORE EXTENDS DEADLINE FOR ORDERING CAPS AND GOWNS. Thursday, April 12 is now the last day to order faculty caps and gowns. All orders must be placed by that date. Those in need of academic regalia should contact DAVID DEERING in the Bookstore.

ENERGY AND ENVIRONMENT SEMINAR. On Thursday, March 22, DR. ANDREW JORGENSEN, assistant professor of chemistry, will discuss "Energy: Uses, Costs, and Conservation" at the Energy and Environment lecture series. JORGENSEN'S lecture will include how the consumer can monitor and calculate his energy use, and how much energy is costing him. He will also present a strategy for conservation to aid consumers in cutting their energy expenses.

The lecture series is a part of TOM ZELLER's Earth Science 391X class. The class meets on Thursday evenings from 7:00 - 9:00 p.m. in Room SC126. Each week a different speaker is featured.

HUMANITIES FORUM. On Thursday, March 29, Alex Leich will present a slide lecture of the Austria area, traveled from Vienna to the Black Sea. Leich, a native of Evansville, has traveled widely in this country, Canada, the Caribbean area, parts of South and Central America, most of Europe and Egypt. The slide show will be held at 12:30 p.m. in Room A28.

SPRING FILM SCHEDULE. "A Place in the Sun" will be shown Thursday, March 29, at 2:00 and 6:00 p.m. in A126. The film is free and open to the public.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS. PAUL BENNETT, assistant professor of electrical engineering technology, and four students will go to Roanoke, Virginia, April 1 through April 4 to attend the Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers Region Three conference. The students attending with BENNETT are Terry Courter, Michael Elpers, Greg Franke, and Harold Krause.

SHERRY BEVINS DARRELL, assistant professor of English, will act as evaluator for the session of "The Invention Stage in Writing: A Participation Workshop" at the tenth annual conference of the College English Association in Savannah, Georgia, March 22-24. The role of the evaluator is to assess the strengths and weaknesses of the session with a view toward improving communication at subsequent meetings of the College English Association. The College English Association, which celebrates its 40th birthday this year, is the only professional organization devoted to teaching English on the college and university level.

JOHN H. GOTTCENT, associate professor of English, wrote The Bible as Literature: A Selective Bibliography which will be going into production shortly. It will be published by G. K. Hall and Company as part of their Reference Guides in Literature series.

The Scholarship Committee of Alpha Delta Kappa (Indiana), has asked ROBERT E. MAYS, Director of Student Teaching, Laboratory Experiences, and Coordinator of Graduate Studies, to serve as one of three statewide judges who will choose the 1979 Indiana Alpha Delta Kappa Scholarship winner.

ROBERT McDOWELL, assistant professor of English, will give a poetry reading on April 1 at 3:30 p.m. in the Town Hall, Evansville Museum.

From April 1 through 27, JOHN McNAUGHTON's wood sculpture will be on display at the New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art, New Harmony. McNAUGHTON, associate professor of art, has received much attention and many awards for his woodwork, including a National Endowment for the Arts Artists Fellowship. On April 1, faculty and staff are invited to attend the opening reception for the exhibition from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m.

APPOINTMENTS. ROSE ZIGENFUS has been named acting assistant to the president and will serve in that capacity until the beginning of the Fall semester. She is a 1978 graduate of ISUE in communications and formerly was student administrative assistant in Student Activities.

NEW FACES. SHINEUI HAHN has accepted the position of biochemist at the Evansville Center for Medical Education. SHINEUI, a resident of Newburgh, earned a bachelor of science degree in chemistry at Seoul National University, Korea. She has two children. SHINEUI enjoys painting and the arts.
