Jon Mark Hall, Director of Athletics

Jon Mark Hall was appointed to the position of director of Athletics in January 2002, after seven years as the assistant director.

Under his direction, USI was the 2003-04 GLVC All-Sports and Commissioner's Cup winner and host of the 2004 and 2009 NCAA Division II Cross Country National Championships.

In addition to his duties as director of Athletics, Hall also is the chair of the NCAA Division II men's and women's tennis committee. He has served on the Great Lakes Valley Conference Executive Committee and the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional women's basketball committee.

Hall joined the USI Athletic Department in 1995 as an assistant athletic director and men's tennis coach.

As the men's tennis coach, Hall was named the GLVC Coach of the Year five times, directed the Screaming Eagles to four GLVC regular-season titles and GLVC Tournament crowns, and had a 123-47 record (.724).

During his final season as head coach, Hall led the Eagles to their third straight appearance in the NCAA II Tournament and their first victory in the post-season. In 2000 and 2001, Hall put the Eagles on the national map with their first two invitations to the NCAA II Tournament in the 27-year history of the program.

Hall came to USI after his appointment at the University of South Carolina-Spartanburg as an assistant athletic director, where he was the NCAA compliance coordinator, oversaw the academic support service program for student athletes, and coordinated the Athletes Can Educate (ACE) program. He also assisted in fundraising and promotional activities.

The native of Murray, Kentucky, is a 1990 cum laude graduate of Murray State University, with a bachelor's degree in business administration. While at MSU, Hall was on the tennis team for two seasons, earning Academic All-Ohio Valley Conference honors in 1987. Hall received his master's degree in sports administration from Ohio State University in 1992.

In 1998-99, he completed the Sports Management Institute Executive Program at the University of South Carolina and the University of Notre Dame.

Hall and his wife Patti reside in Evansville and have four sons, Nathan, Garland, Ty, and Owen, and daughter Mary Claire.

...a modern, technology-enhanced environment

USI is a vibrant campus with modern facilities and an enviable pace of growth. The Business and Engineering Center opened this fall and the University Center renovation will open in the spring of 2011. USI provides the most up-to-date facilities for academics, housing, and student life.

Computer Services

Computer labs are located throughout campus and in the housing areas. Wireless service is available in all main buildings and exterior courtyards.

Residence life areas are equipped with network jacks for Internet access. Wireless network also is available throughout the housing areas.

Eagle Access Card

Students use the Eagle Access Card as an identification card and as an all-in-one card for student services such as library privileges, meal plans, vending and copy machines, and access to the Recreation, Fitness, and Wellness Center.

MyUSI

MyUSI is a portal to web services. Students check email, register online, view their grades, and access other services through this secure web site.

USI at a GLANCE

- A comprehensive, public university in Evansville, Indiana, founded in 1965 and established as a separate university in 1985
- 10,702 students from 90 Indiana counties, 41 states, and 67 nations
- Student/faculty ratio of 22:1
- 1,400-acre suburban campus with 12 modern academic buildings
- Apartments and suite-style residence halls for approximately 2,800 students
- Six academic units: Business, Education and Human Services, Liberal Arts, Nursing and Health Professions, Science and Engineering, and University Division

Location

The University of Southern Indiana was founded in Evansville in 1965. USI is a comfortable drive from the major metropolitan centers of Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Louisville, Nashville, and St. Louis.

The Campus

The Health Professions Center, Science Center, Wright Administration Building, Education Center, and Orr Center are located on the north side of campus. Rice Library, University Center, Liberal Arts Center, Technology Center, and Business and Engineering Center form the quadrangle in the center of campus. The Physical Activities Center and the Recreation, Fitness, and Wellness Center are located east of University Boulevard, a major thoroughfare through campus. Apartment buildings and residence halls are home to 2,800 students who live on campus.

Academic Life

The University enrolls 10,702 students and offers undergraduate majors in 70 areas of study. An ever-increasing number of post-graduate programs also are available to students who wish to continue their education, including a Doctor of Nursing Practice degree. Opportunities are available for service learning, study abroad, and internships.

Campus Life

Outside the classroom, students have opportunities to participate in more than 90 organizations offering co-curricular and extra-curricular activities. Special interest clubs, student government, sororities and fraternities, music and drama groups, and other organizations enable the students to enjoy and contribute to campus life.

Residence Life

Students living on campus have their choice of two types of housing. Students can live in standard apartments or in residence halls which have amenities such as Internet connections, wireless Internet, and cable television. Computer labs, laundromats, a convenience store, outdoor and indoor recreation areas, and student lounges contribute to an efficient living environment that has proven to be overwhelmingly popular with students. Meal plans also are available at the University Center, which is located in the center of campus.

Financial Assistance

USI provides families with an affordable way to a higher education. While some families find that they can handle the cost of a USI education without financial assistance, others qualify for need-based financial packages, including grants, loans, and on-campus jobs.

Degrees offered at USI

University of Southern Indiana Screaming Eagles ABOUT THE PHYSICAL ACTIVITIES CENTER

Physical Activities Center

The Physical Activities Center (PAC) has been the home of the Screaming Eagles for the past 30 years. Opened in 1980, the PAC accommodates physical education classes, intramural activities, and is the arena for the USI basketball and volleyball teams.

Games of regional and national interest have been played on the center court of the PAC during the past 17 years. USI has hosted the 1993, 1994, and 1996 men's NCAA II Great Lakes Regionals; the 2009 men's GLVC Tournament; the 1998 women's GLVC Tournament; the 1998 and 2001 women's NCAA II Great Lakes Regionals; and the 2000 and 2004 GLVC Volleyball Tournaments.

A true home court, the USI men's basketball team has a 402-67 home record since 1980, a .857 winning percentage.

With padded chairback seats, back-supported bleacher seats, and a top-of-the line scoreboard and video board, the Physical Activities Center is one of the top Division II athletic venues in the region.

Eagles on track to soar in 2010-11

Every year NCAA basketball programs all around the country dream of one thing—winning championships. The University of Southern Indiana Screaming Eagles enter the 2010-11 season with the elements to achieve those dreams.

Reaching championship goals will be tough this season for USI and second-year Head Coach Rodney Watson. The Eagles have to replace six seniors who represented 74 percent of the offense of last year's 24-3 squad, including Basketball Times Division II Player of the Year Jamar Smith.

Despite the loss of core players, USI is still considered a possible “break-out” team by The Sporting News, showing respect for the talent level returning to USI in 2010-11.

The Eagles bring back six veteran players from last year's team who helped win a school record 23 straight contests. The returnees include four seniors—guard Kevin Gant, guard/forward C.J. Trotter, forward Nick Duncheon, and center Mohamed Ntumba.

On the outside, Gant will direct the offense for a second straight season after leading the team and ranking second in the NCAA Division II in assist/turnover ratio. He started all 27 games last season and averaged 6.4 points, 5.2 assists, and 2.7 rebounds.

Returning to join Gant on the outside of the key is Trotter and junior guard Brandon Hogg. Trotter posted 6.8 points and 1.8 rebounds per game during his first season at USI, while Hogg was a top defensive specialist off the bench last year for the Eagles and tied for fourth on the team with 23 steals.

The Eagles also expect to see more of sophomore guard Lawrence Thomas at the point. Thomas, who hopes to recover quickly from ACL surgery over the summer, played in 15 contests behind Gant last season, averaging 2.7 points and one assist per game.

New to the USI backcourt are senior Jared Rehmel as well as freshmen Eduardo Gallina and Collin Grantz. Rehmel, a transfer from NCAA Division I University of Central Arkansas, started 29 games last season for the Bears, averaging 9.8 points and 2.1 rebounds per game. He had a season-high 21 points against the University of Tennessee-Martin.

Gallina was a member of two Brazilian national championship teams and two Santa Catarina state championship teams. He was appointed as a “Future Brazilian National Player.”

In the United States, Gallina helped Reserve Christian (Reserve, Louisiana) and Riverside Academy (Reserve, Louisiana) to Louisiana State titles in 2008-09 and 2009-10, respectively.

In the frontcourt, the Eagles return a pair of starters in Ntumba and Duncheon. Ntumba started the last 11 games after the death of center Jeron Lewis, finishing the year with 7.9 points and 6.2 rebounds per games. He also averaged 8.9 points and 7.6 rebounds as a starter.

Duncheon had his career-best season as a junior. He averaged 6.4 points and 2.0 rebounds per game in 27 starts, posting 21 points in the win over Lake Erie College.

USI has a stable of five new players in the frontcourt that includes junior center Nick Evans; junior forward Isaac McClure; freshman center Wesley Hall; freshman forward Taylor Wischmeier; and freshman guard/forward Austin Davis.

Senior Kevin Gant averaged 6.4 points, 5.2 assists, and 2.7 rebounds per appearance as USI's starting point guard a year ago. Gant led the team and was second in the nation in assist-to-turnover ratio.

Senior forward Nick Dunccheon averaged a career-high 6.4 points and 2.0 rebounds per game in 27 starts last season. He had a career-high 21 points in the Eagles' win over Lake Erie.

McClure transferred to USI from Southeastern Illinois College where he dropped in 13.3 points and grabbed 6.7 rebounds per appearance as a sophomore. Evans comes to USI after two seasons at Southern Illinois University, averaging 4.5 points and 2.9 rebounds during his 32-game career with the Salukis.

Wischmeier signed with USI after lettering in basketball at Brownstown Central High School (Brownstown, Indiana). He was the BCHS 2010 Most Valuable Player and averaged a double-double (21.5 points and 10.0 rebounds per game) for his career.

Davis was the first to sign with USI last year after lettering in basketball at Freeport Senior High School (Freeport, Illinois). He recorded 16.0 points, 10.1 rebounds, 1.7 assists, and 2.5 blocked shots per game as a senior.

USI tips off the 2010-11 campaign with a pair of exhibition games, traveling to Division I University of Illinois and Vanderbilt University before opening a regular-season calendar that includes 15 home games at the Physical Activities Center.

The schedule also includes a GLVC slate that features home-and-home dates with traditional conference rivals Bellarmine University, Kentucky Wesleyan College, the University of Indianapolis, and Northern Kentucky University.

USI's home schedule also includes home dates with Drury University, Maryville University, and Missouri University of Science & Technology from the GLVC West Division; and Lewis University and the University of Wisconsin-Parkside from the GLVC North Division.

GLVC play starts the first week of December for USI when it travels to Northern Kentucky on December 2 and returns to the PAC to host Bellarmine on December 4.

In addition to the nine conference games at the PAC, USI hosts the Bill Joergens Memorial Tournament and four additional non-conference foes. The fourth annual Bill Joergens Memorial Tournament pits the Screaming Eagles and Bellarmine versus Harris-Stowe State University and St. Catharine College.

Senior center Mohamed Ntumba averaged 7.9 points and 6.2 rebounds per contest during his junior year. He racked up 8.9 points and 7.6 rebounds in 11 games as a starter.

Rodney Watson, Head Coach

Rodney Watson, the ninth head coach in the history of the USI men's basketball team, had the Screaming Eagles soaring during his first season in 2009-10.

The 2010 GLVC Coach of the Year led USI to a 24-3 overall mark and ninth-place finish in the national poll during his first season. The Eagles set a school record with 23-straight wins and were ranked as high as second in the national rankings.

The 24 wins were the most by a first-year USI head coach. The 2009-10 squad also featured Basketball Times Division II Player of the Year and All-American Jamar Smith.

Watson took the helm of the Eagles after 21 seasons at Southern Illinois University. He was the associate head coach for two seasons after spending 19 seasons as an assistant coach under head coaches Rich Herrin, Bruce Weber, Matt Painter, and Chris Lowery.

During Watson's tenure at SIU, the Salukis won 11 Missouri Valley Conference championships and qualified for nine NCAA Tournaments and six NITs. SIU also compiled a 430-237 record, a .645 winnings percentage, and was ranked in the top 15 nationally in scoring defense four times in the last five seasons.

Watson helped direct five Salukis to Missouri Valley Conference (MVC) Player of the Year honors; four to Newcomer of the Year awards; five to Freshman of the Year accolades; and nine to Defensive Player of the Year honors. The Salukis had 30 players earn All-MVC honors (18 first team and 12 second) during Watson's 21 seasons.

The Salukis' success was not limited to the basketball court, with 23 of the last 24 seniors earning bachelor's degrees since 2002. SIU had the Prairie Farms Student Athlete of the Year for men's basketball three times since the award was created in 2002.

A native of Paris, Illinois, Watson started his coaching career at Coulterville High School, where he guided the Eagles to the program's first regional championship. He moved to Madison High School in 1984 and led the Trojans to a regional and sectional championship, advancing to the Illinois Elite Eight.

Success at the high school level was a springboard to the college ranks, beginning with a two-year stretch in 1986 at the University of Nebraska-Omaha. He moved to SIU in 1988, beginning his 20-plus season association with the Salukis.

Watson and his wife Carol have four children, Ashley, Zachary, and twins, Olivia and Blake.

Soaring through years of success

During the last 31 years, the University of Southern Indiana men's basketball program has become a force in the Great Lakes Valley Conference, the Great Lakes Region, and at the national level.

Since the beginning of the GLVC in 1978, the Screaming Eagles have become one of the premier teams in the league, winning 12 regular-season titles in the GLVC. USI's teams also have featured four GLVC Coaches of the Year and six conference Players of the Year.

Starting with the 1992-93 team, the Eagles have made their mark on the Great Lakes Region and the NCAA Division II. USI has won 20 or more games 16 times in the last 18 years.

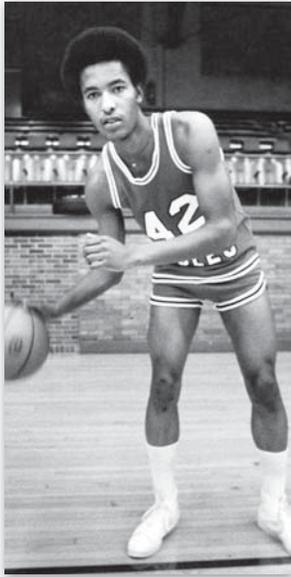

The Eagles stepped into the national spotlight in 1993-94 when they made their first trip to the NCAA Division II Elite Eight and the NCAA Division II Championship game.

The loss in the 1994 championship game propelled USI back into the NCAA Division II Championship game in 1995, and on to its first-ever national championship.

USI has been ranked number one nationally at one point during the season in eight of the last 16 years. In 10 of the last 18 years, USI has advanced to the NCAA Division II Sweet 16.

The University of Southern Indiana men's basketball tradition got its start in 1965 when the school, then known as Indiana State University-Evansville, sponsored basketball as a club sport. USI's first official year as a varsity men's basketball team would come five years later when it changed its nickname from the Spartans to the Screaming Eagles. Pictured above is USI's 1970-71 team, the first varsity athletic team in school history.

The Screaming Eagles' long tradition of winning may have started early, but it was the 1992-93 squad that began a string of nine straight NCAA II Tournament appearances and 15 straight 20-win seasons. Since 1992-93, the Eagles have dominated the NCAA II landscape, appearing in the NCAA II Tournament 14 times, the NCAA II National Championship game three times, and winning the 1995 NCAA II title.

After posting their first winning season in 1976-77, the Screaming Eagles broke into the NCAA Division II Tournament for the first time in 1977-78 when they went 19-9. The Eagles' appearance in the NCAA post-season tournament was the first by any team in school history. Then known as Indiana State University-Evansville, ISUE defeated Northern Kentucky University in the first round before falling to Eastern Illinois University.

We Pledge...

We have joined institutions across 22 conferences and independents in committing to safe, fun, and entertaining sporting experiences on Division II campuses. We have signed the pledge to create and continue family-friendly experiences for everyone.

DIVISION II GAME ENVIRONMENT PLEDGE

NCAA Division II presidents and chancellors affirm that athletics events should reflect the values of higher education and the mission of each institution. Division II emphasizes learning and development in a personal setting. As chancellors and presidents, we are concerned about the uncivil behavior exhibited at college athletics contests and thereby pledge to work together to make respectful, family-friendly events a standard of the Division II experience.
