Vol. XXVIII, No. 29 - March 25, 1994

Deadline: FRIDAY AFTERNOON

BREAKFAST WITH THE PRESIDENT

The Student Alumni Association's 1994 "Breakfast with the President" will be held at 7:30 a.m. Wednesday, April 6, in the UC Dining Room. Dr. David L. Rice, University president the past 27 years, will provide an overview and answer questions for the final time before his June 30 retirement.

Tickets are $4.50, covering the usual breakfast variety. Students may attend free by stopping by the UC Information Desk to pick up a ticket.

EXECUTIVE-IN-RESIDENCE

Dr. Lawrence D. Prybil of Evansville, east-central regional executive and CEO with the Daughters of Charity National Health Systems, will be the spring Executive-in-Residence on Monday, March 28, in the School of Business. Roundtables for invited students will open and close Dr. Prybil's visit. In the interim, Dr. Prybil will lead discussion periods at 9 and 10 a.m. on the topics "The Daughters of Charity National Health System and Its Evolution in a Changing Health-Care Environment" and "A Perception on Health-Care Reform in America" and will speak at an 11:30 a.m. luncheon. The discussion periods and lunch program will be held in the University Conference Center and are open to the public.

NAMES IN THE NEWS. Dr. Betty Hart, associate professor of English, and Mrs. Sharon Morrow and Dr. Susanna Hoeness-Kurpsaw, instructors in English, attended the 45th annual convention of the ENVELOPE ALERT . . .

Campus and fax envelopes again are in short supply in the Mail Room. Please forward those you don't need, so new ones won't have to be bought unnecessarily. Thank you.

Conference on Composition and Communication, held March 17-19 in Nashville. Dr. Hart served as associate chair for a session on "Beyond the Teaching Case: Interpreting Multiple Voices." She also staffed a software demonstration booth and served on a committee selecting the 4 Cs Book of the Year Award winner.

Mrs. Nancy M. Myers, mathematics specialist, and Mrs. Corinne Vandever, Learning Center specialist, attended the National Association of Developmental Educators conference March 1-4 in Kansas City, Missouri. Both attended a pre-conference institute on "Workplace Literacy: Meet the Experts," presented by educators and industry practitioners who discussed models of program excellence.

Mr. Ronald C. Roat, assistant professor of journalism, spoke on "Plotting Your Mystery Story" at the March 21 meeting of the Ohio Valley Writers Guild. Mr. Roat is the author of two Michigan-based mysteries, Close Softly the Door and A Still and Icy Silence.

During spring break, Mr. Eric vonFuhmann, assistant professor of English, served as faculty counselor for an EF company group touring Greece "In Search of Agamemnon." Mrs. Sharon Morrow, instructor in English, and five USI students were among the travelers. Mr. vonFuhmann is contemplating an "In Search of Virgil" tour to Italy next year.

WELCOME. The University community welcomes Mrs. Victoria Reed, assistant registrar. Mrs. Reed has an M.B.A. and has been an adjunct faculty member at Oakland City College, coordinator for Oakland City in Evansville, and human resources manager at Lexington Center Corporation.

CONGRATULATIONS to Mrs. Doris J. Hollis, Human Resources secretary, on the birth March 16 of her 11th grandchild, Nathan James Hastings, son of Ben and Kristi Hollis Hastings of Terre Haute. Mrs. Hastings formerly was a secretary in Human Resources.

Congratulations also to Mr. Gregory S. Myers, director of Student Housing, and his wife Michele on the birth March 15 of a son, Caleb Scott.

REPORT FROM THE OFFICE OF THE VICE PRESIDENT FOR ACADEMIC AFFAIRS. The following petitions for course modifications have been received and approved for Fall 1994 implementation:

School of Business

CIS 354 Software/Hardware Concepts - 3 hrs.

CIS 454 Managing Information Technology - 3 hrs.

CIS 475 Advanced Systems Analysis and Design - 3 hrs.

CURRICULAR COMMITTEE. The USI Curricular Committee has received the following petition for a course modification: CHEM 141 Principles of Chemistry - 4 hrs. Anyone wishing to provide information is asked to contact Mr. William Henderson, committee chair, extension 1728, prior to March 28.

The committee also has received a new-course petition -- SOCW 238 Disability Issues in Contemporary Society - 3 hrs. -- for which comment will be received by Mr. Henderson prior to April 4.

NEW HARMONY GALLERY. "A Taste of Fiber: the Polish Experience" will be the next exhibition at the New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art, opening Easter Sunday, April 3, and continuing through May 18; there will not be an opening reception.

The show was curated by Ms. Christa Thurman, the Christa C. Mayer Thurman Curator of Textiles at the Art Institute, Chicago. She worked closely with Dr. Anne Baruch in selecting works from The Anne and Jacques Baruch Collection, Ltd. Artists included in the exhibition are Ms. Magdalena Abakanowicz, Ms. Zofia Butrymowicz, Ms. Lilla Kulka, Ms. Jolanta Owidzka, Mrs. Urszula Plewka-Schmidt, Mr. Stefan Poplawski, Ms. Agnieszka Ruszczynska-

Szafranska, and Ms. Anna Urbanowicz-Krowacka. These artists, while surviving under impossible conditions, made a tremendous impact by bringing fiber works into the sculptural realm of the 20th century. Their works have been exhibited throughout the world, are included in major museum and corporate collections, and have been commissioned for public spaces.

EXHIBITION. Selected images from "Natural Beauty: Documenting Life and Land at the University of Southern Indiana" are on display outside of University Archives on the lower level of the David L. Rice Library. A total of 30 images of flora, fauna, and geology have been created by Dr. Charles L. Price, professor of science education. His work was funded by the Faculty Research and Creative Work awards program. Anyone wishing to see the full series may contact Mrs. Gina R. Walker, library assistant in the archives.

ALUMNI SPEAKERS. The USI Alumni Association has issued its 1994-95 Speakers Bureau pamphlet, listing names of USI graduates who are willing to serve as guest speakers, and their topics, which range from banking to volunteer service. Call extension 1924 for information or a copy of the pamphlet.

GREEK WEEK. Because the basketball Eagles went to the Elite Eight in Springfield, Massachusetts, and many USI students and staff members went with them, the annual spring celebration of campus Greeks was postponed to Monday, April 4. The opening ceremonies -- including carrying the torch through campus to Eicher Barn -- and the Olympic games will start at 3 p.m. at the Greek Court in MASH. The chili/dessert cookoff will be at 6 p.m. at Eicher Barn, where the 1994 Greek god and goddess will be introduced.

Other events include a hot tub or dunking booth fundraiser all day Tuesday on the UC

Mall, with Wish Upon a Star to benefit; a Greek scavenger hunt at 9 p.m. Tuesday, starting in the Eagle's Nest; a Greek picnic at 12 noon Wednesday and bands on the UC Mall, starting at 9 p.m.; and the Greek pageant and dance at 9 p.m. Thursday at the Greek Court.

EASTER FUN. The student Activities Programming Board will hold its annual Easter party for children of students, faculty, and staff, starting at 11 a.m. Saturday, March 26, in the UC Dining Room. For information, contact Mrs. Michelle Tenbarge, Student Life secretary, extension 7037.

The New Harmony Easter Egg Hunt is scheduled at 1 p.m. Sunday, April 3, in the Harmonist Cemetery.

AWARDS AVAILABLE. Fulbright - Fulbright opportunities are available for university lecturing or advanced research in nearly 140 countries. Scholars in all academic ranks are eligible to apply, from junior faculty to emeriti. Awards range from two months to a year. August 1 is the deadline to apply. Science faculty development - The 1994 National Chautauqua Short Course College Teacher Program offers forums in which scholars at the frontiers of various sciences meet intensively for several days with undergraduate college teachers of science. Teachers of undergraduate students in the natural or social sciences, mathematics, or engineering are eligible. Application should be made as early as possible. Lindbergh grants - The Charles
