Hostettler and Riecken to discuss tri-state international trade

The Tri-State World Trade Council presents an opportunity for the public to hear 8th Congressional District candidates, the honorable John Hostettler and Democratic challenger Gail Riecken, discuss international trade issues affecting the Tri-State at two separate forums on Thursday, October 15, in University of Southern Indiana's Carter Hall, University Center. Each candidate will discuss their positions on international trade issues and the role of international trade in the Tri-State economy.

There will be a luncheon forum from 11:15 a.m. to 11:45 a.m. Reservations are required and the cost is $8.50. A second forum will be held from noon to 1 p.m. and is free and open to the public.

Discussion moderator Bill Riales of WEHT-TV will pose questions from the audience. The public is invited to submit trade-related questions to the candidates in advance to USI Extended Services by fax, 812/465-7061, or e-mail, <extserv.ucs@smtp.usi.edu>. Questions submitted at the door will be addressed if time permits.

For more information, to make reservations, or to submit questions, call USI Extended Services at 812/464-1864.
