

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT:
Kathy Funke, Director
News & Information Services
812/465-7005
FAX 812/464-1956

USI SCHEDULE

OCTOBER 1-15, 1994

Saturday, October 1

Learning Edge III - The annual conference on innovative approaches to using language and literature in the K-8 classrooms opens at 8 a.m. in Forum I, sponsored by Extended Services. This year's program is held in conjunction with Arts Council of Southwest Indiana storytelling festival.

(For information, contact Extended Services, 812/464-1989, or the Arts Council, 812/422-2111.)

Saturday, October 1

Historic New Harmony - A free candlemaking demonstration will be presented from 9 a.m. to 12 noon and 1 to 4 p.m. in the Eigner Cabin yard.

(For information, call Historic New Harmony, 812/686-4488.)

Sunday, October 2

Greater Evansville College Fair - The 1994 Greater Evansville College Fair will start at 9 a.m. in the Physical Activities Center. Some 80 colleges, universities, the military, and others will be available to discuss postsecondary opportunities with the more than 3,000 high school students expected.

(For information, contact Mrs. Tracy Wilson, assistant director of Enrollment Services, 812/465-1671.)

Tuesday, October 4

Fall films - *Imitation of Life (1934) will be shown at 1:30 and 6 p.m. in Forum I; it is free and open to the public. The film is the story of a woman who gets rich from the pancake recipe of her black servant, whose life is saddened when her daughter passes for white.

(For information, call the School of Liberal Arts, 812/464-1735.)

Thursday, October 6

Visiting Writers series - Ken Smith, short story writer and author of Angels & Others, will open a new USI Visiting Writers Series. He will present a fiction reading at 7:30 p.m. in Forum III. He is a teacher at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga.

(For information, contact Matthew Graham, associate professor of English/creative writing, 812/464-1953.)

Monday, October 10

Southern Hospitality Day - The first fall Southern Hospitality Day will start at 9 a.m. in the University Conference Center, allowing Tri-State high school students to become acquainted with USI. Students and their families and friends are invited to join the USI Enrollment Services staff for informational sessions on academic programs, financial assistance, campus activities and tours, free lunch, and more. No reservations are required.

(For information call Mrs. Tracy Wilson, assistant director in Enrollment Services, 812/465-1671.)

Tuesday, October 11

Fall film series - *Things To Come (1936) Director: William Cameron Menzies; cast: Raymond Massey, Ralph Richardson, Edward Chapman, Ann Todd. A science fiction drama based on the H. G. Wells fantasy; "wonderful special effects; amazingly prophetic."

(The film will be shown at 1:30 and 6 p.m. in Forum I; it is free and open to the public. For information, call the School of Liberal Arts, 812/464-1735.)

Thursday, October 13

Health care forum - "Effective Measurement of Health Care Quality and Cost - The Pennsylvania Model" will feature Ernest Sessa, executive director of the Pennsylvania Health Care Cost Containment Council. Dr. John C. Bailey, Indiana Department of Public Health, will discuss Indiana programs. The three-hour program will start at 8:30 a.m. in the University Conference Center, co-sponsored by USI and the Tri-State Business Group on Health.

(For information, contact Tim Mahoney, coordinator of the Southern Indiana Labor-Management Education Forum, 812/464-1989.)

Friday-Saturday, October 14-15

Mid-America Conference for Teachers of Psychology - The keynote session for the 11th annual conference will feature Dr. Steve Davis of Emporia State University, with "I know it's bad to cheat but it's worse for me to get an F," an update in his ongoing study of student cheating; he will speak at 10:45 a.m. Friday in the University Conference Center. The conference continues through noon Saturday.

(more)

(For information, call Dr. Joseph Palladino, chair of the USI Psychology Department, 812/464-1952.)

Saturday, October 15

Super Saturday for Kids - In "Gizmos, Gadgets, and Gears," youngsters aged 3 1/2 through sixth grade will be shown that computers are machines but so are doorknobs. They will learn basic principles of wheels, axles, levers, screws, wedges, inclined planes, and pulleys -- what makes them work and how they affect us every day. Older children will try their hand at "inventing lunch." The program starts at 9 a.m. in Forum II.

(For information, call Ginger Ramsden, coordinator of Children's Programs, 812/464-1989.)

Saturday, October 15

Activities Programming Board Family Day - The annual Family Day will start with registration at 10:15 a.m. in Forum III, followed by USI discussions by President H. Ray Hoops; Dr. Robert L. Reid, vice president for Academic Affairs; Barry Schonberger, dean of students; and Barry Hart, director of Safety and Security. Lunch of hot dogs and hamburgers will start at 11:30 a.m. on the UC Mall. The Mid-America Singers and Band will entertain from Rice Plaza during lunch, in their first performance of 1994-95 season. The afternoon program will include "Fun With Chemistry" at 1 p.m. and a Family Day softball game at 3 p.m. Reservations are $5 and should be made before October 10.

(Call APB, 812/464-1872, for information or a Family Day brochure.)

USI Theatre

The 1994-95 season opens with the Eric Overmyer fantasy
On the Verge

October 6-16
8 p.m. Thursday through Saturday
2 p.m. Sunday
USI Theatre, 3001 Igleheart Avenue

Tickets: University community and senior citizens, $5
General admission, $7
Box office opens at 6 p.m. on production nights
Call 812/465-1668 for information

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT:
Kathy Funke, Director
News & Information Services
812/465-7005
FAX 812/464-1956

USI SCHEDULE

OCTOBER 16-31, 1994

Sunday, October 16

New Harmony Gallery - The Art Education Association of Indiana will hold its 1994 Regional Juried Exhibition at the New Harmony Gallery, opening today and continuing through November 16.

(For information, contact Connie Weinzapfel, Gallery director, 812/682-3156.)

Monday, October 17

Stanley Hall Day - More than 80 students from the Stanley Hall Enrichment Center will visit the campus and join the Student Government Association and the student Activities Programming Board in painting windows at the University Center in preparation for the national Red Ribbon Week observance the following week (see Oksoberfest, October 23). USI President H. Ray Hoops will welcome the students to campus at 8:45 a.m. Their morning will be filled with such events as the window painting, a "Fun with chemistry" presentation by Dr. Marie G. Hankins, chair of the Physical Sciences Department, and a "Playdough Economics" presentation by Dr. Gregory P. Valentine, assistant professor of business education and director of the Center for Economic Education in Southwestern Indiana. The Enrollment Services staff will provide campus tours, including USI radio and television facilities, and students will be guests for lunch in the University Center where professors and students will discuss various elements of campus life. USI Eagles basketball Coach Bruce Pearl also will greet the students.

(Stanley Hall Day is being coordinated by Patricia Loehr, a University Division advisor, the Welborn Mulberry Center, and Stanley Hall. For information, call Ms. Loehr, 812/465-1606.)

Monday-Tuesday,

October 17-18

Government forum - Tri-State government and community leaders interested in how their hometowns can plan for the future are invited to a "Local Government Forum: Toward 2000 and Beyond" at the New Harmony Inn Conference Center in New Harmony, Indiana. The program is sponsored by the Southern Indiana Rural Development Project, Inc., (SIRD) an organization resulting from efforts by Indiana 8th and 9th District Congressmen Frank McCloskey and Lee Hamilton and funded by the Lilly Endowment to assist southern Indiana economic development in both traditional and nontraditional ways. USI Extended Services is coordinating the program, which is geared basically to southern Indiana but has import for leaders in southern Illinois and western Kentucky. Sessions will convene at noon October 17 and adjourn at noon the next day.

(Call Extended Services, 812/464-1989, for an information.)

Tuesday, October 18

Fall films: The Miracle of Morgan's Creek (1944) Director: Preston Sturges; cast: Betty Hutton, Eddie Bracken, William Demarest, Brian Donlevy. Shot in 1942, this film was a daring farce in its day, described as "a weird and wonderful assault on American institutions such as motherhood and politics."

(The films are shown at 1:30 and 6 p.m. in Forum I; they are free, open to the public. For information, call the School of Liberal Arts, 812/464-1735.)

Friday, October 21

Enrollment Services - The 1994-95 High School Counselors Hospitality Day will be held at 9 a.m. in the University Conference Center.

(For information, call Tracy Wilson, assistant director, 812/464-1765.)

Saturday, October 22

Historic New Harmony - This year's "Ghost Tales" will be told at 7 p.m. at the Double Log Cabin. There is an admission fee.

(Call Historic New Harmony, 682-4488, for information.)

Sunday, October 23

Oksoberfest - The public is invited to join USI faculty, staff, and students in celebrating the 1994 Oksoberfest, launching Red Ribbon Week and demonstrating that a fun time may be had without benefit of drugs or alcohol. The fest will be held from 12 noon to 4 p.m. in the Outdoor Education area. It is part of the University observance of National Red Ribbon Week (October 23-30), working with community organizations to present a unified and visible commitment toward the creation of a Drug Free America. Oksoberfest will have a plate lunch available for 50 cents. The afternoon will provide games and entertainment for all ages, including country line dancing and a dunking booth. Parking is recommended in the lot adjacent to the Physical Activities Center; a haywagon will be available to shuttle everyone to the fest site. USI and Stanley Hall students will paint University Center windows, starting Sunday, October 16, in preparation for Oksoberfest.

(more)

(Call Patricia Loehr, University Division advisor and Oksoberfest coordinator, for information, 812/465-1606).

Tuesday, October 25

National Quality Forum - The tenth annual National Quality Month live satellite downlink will be presented in the University Conference Center, beginning with registration at 8 a.m. The forum theme is "Quality 2000: the Next Decade of Progress;" the televised program will feature Alex Trotman, chairman, Ford Motor Company, David Luther, president, American Society for Quality Control (ASQC), the primary sponsor; and Joseph M. Bress of New York, director of the Governor's Office of Employee Relations. The Evansville program will include lunch, followed by two guest speakers: Bruce Stallings, Plumbing and Industrial Supply vice president and chair of E-Qual, the regional quality control organization, and ASQC representative Nancy Hurst, who will discuss "Koalaty Kids," a national training program designed to establish locally-driven quality processes in elementary education.

(For information, call Jerry Benware, manager, USI Center for Total Quality Management, 812/464-1816. Monday, October 17 is the deadline to register for the downlink program.)

Tuesday, October 25

Fall films - Rock-a-bye Baby (1958) Director: Frank Tashlin; cast: Jerry Lewis, Marilyn Maxwell, Connie Stevens. Jerry becomes a full-time baby sitter for a movie sex siren who doesn't want the public to know she's had triplets.

(The films are shown at 1:30 and 6 p.m. in Forum I; they are free, open to the public. For information, call the School of Liberal Arts, 812/464-1735.)

The Health Professions Job Fair on Monday, October 31, will launch this year's Career Week, Monday-Friday, October 31-November 4, at USI. Students or graduates of any nursing or health-related program at any institution are invited. Some 70 recruiters will be available, representing 50 health-care organizations in Indiana, Illinois, Kentucky, Missouri, Ohio, and Tennessee. The employer sign-in begins at 12:30 p.m. Monday in the Physical Activities Center; student visitation will be from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. This event is sponsored by USI Career Services and Placement.

Two Alumni-in-Residence events will be held during Career Week:

School of Education and Human Services: Jill Padgett ('79 business education), marketing instructor at

Career Week Monday-Friday October 31-November 4

Ivy Tech, will speak at 11 a.m. Monday, October 31, in L100 on "Building a Teacher of the Year"

School of Science and Engineering Technology: Shirley F. Reising Ph.D. ('77 biology), director of the Clinical Microbiology/Virology/Immunology Laboratory at Children's Hospital Medical Center, University of Cincinnati, will speak at 1:30 p.m. Friday, November 4, in Forum II on "On the Trail of Infectious Diseases: Diagnosis and Prevention, Using Molecular Strategies."

Other Career Week events include: Tuesday, November 1 - Alumni

Association, Student Alumni Association, and Career Services and Placement will sponsor Career Exploration, allowing students to network with alumni to explore various career fields, 12 noon-3 p.m., UC Conference Center

Wednesday, November 2 - Personnel Club will sponsor a Career Enhancement Clinic, 9 a.m.-1 p.m., UC Conference Center

Thursday, November 3 - School of Business's Executive-in-Residence - Martin Imbler, president and CEO, Berry Plastics, 9 a.m.-2:30 p.m., UC Conference Center
Communications Art Club's Internship Job Fair, 11:30 a.m.-1 p.m., Orr Center lobby

(For information, call Tracy Powers, assistant director, Career Services and Placement, 812/465-7002.)

USI Halloween: Children's Center, APB, Student Life, Greeks

Vampire lecture by Dr. Daniel C. Scavone, 9 p.m.
Thursday, October 27, Forum III

Lambda Chi Alpha Pumpkin Bust dance, 9 p.m.
Friday, October 28, UC Conference Center
Children's Halloween Party, 11 a.m., UC Conference Center

Movie - Rocky Horror, 12 midnight Saturday,
October 29, UC Mall (Forum I is rain night)
Halloween Costume Contest and wedding chapel,
11 a.m. Monday, October 31, Eagle's Nest Wedding chapel - with create ceremonies and marriage certificates - will remain available through November 3, when the Student Las Vegas Night will get under way at 6 p.m. in the UC Dining Room, offering pay money for horse racing and various casino games

(For information, call Michelle Tenburge, Student Life secretary, 812/463-7037.)

Children's Center youngsters will tour the campus on the following Halloween trick or treat schedule
on Monday, October 31:
Wright Administration Building corridor, 9:45 a.m.
Orr Center lobby, 10:10 a.m.
University Center, 10:30 a.m.

(For information, call Pam Buschkill, center coordinator, 812/464-1869.)

Intramural/Timex Fitness Week

Students, faculty, and staff will participate in the sixth annual Timex Fitness Week, as USI joins 300 other colleges and universities in annual competition.
Included is World's Largest Aerobics Class Thursday night, October 20; last year, an estimated 25,000 students from the 300 schools sweated it out in aerobics marathon. The schedule includes:

Muscle Monday, October 17 - strength training 12
noon; aerobics, 9 p.m.

Fat Tuesday, October 18 - country line dancing, 12
noon; aerobics, 9 p.m.

Healthy heart Wednesday, October 19 - one-mile walk/run, two-mile fitness trail, or aerobics, 12 noon
PAC122; aerobics, 9 p.m.

Stress-release Thursday, October 20 - country line dancing, 12 noon; World's Largest Aerobics Class, 9 p.m.

Flexible Friday, October 21 - aerobics or Timex
Fitness Competition, 12 noon; Timex Fitness Competition participants tested on number of sit ups in a minute, number of push ups, best time in shuttle run (30-feet apart), and the endurance test - best time in one-mile run/walk

(For information, call Ruth Waller, Intramurals director, 812/464-1904.)