USI Chamber Choir to make debut

Heralding a new era for choral music at University of Southern Indiana, the USI Chamber Choir will present its first concert at 3 p.m. Sunday, October 14, at Old North United Methodist Church.

The choir is replacing USI's Mid-America Singers. Performing under the direction of Daniel R. Craig, assistant professor of music, the Chamber Choir will present an eclectic repertoire of selections representing the best of choral music at the university level.

The program will include: "Cantate Domino" by Giuseppe Pitoni; "Hallelujah, Amen" from George Frideric Handel's Judas Maccabaeus; "Ave Verum Corpus" by Robert Lau; "Alleluia" by Randall Thompson; "Sing Me to Heaven" by Daniel Gawthrop; "Turn the World Around," arranged by Robert De Cormier; "Steal Away," arranged by Joseph Jennings; and "Worthy to be Praised," arranged by Byron J Smith.

The concert is free and open to the public; however, donations will be accepted at the conclusion of the performance.

This years choir members include: Samantha Wargel, Evansville; Ivy Miller, Poland, Indiana; Cassie McCord, Evansville; Christina Woodrow, Crawfordsville, Indiana; Rebecca Bennett, Evansville; Laura Raymes, Evansville; Toshawa Shoup, Frankfort, Indiana; Tabitha Zeigler, Covington, Indiana; Katherine Hollander, Evansville; Molly Wilson, Evansville; Catherine Helfert, Evansville; Andrea Wintner, Evansville; Kimberly White, Wabash, Indiana; Audrey Seay, Clarksville, Indiana; Amanda Golvier, San Pierre, Indiana; Tammy Pettis, Shelbyville, Indiana; Keith Lloyd, Hammond, Indiana; Mark Ogle, Flora, Indiana; Richard Guercio, Greencastle, Indiana; Barry Green, Rockport, Indiana; Stephen Risinger, Wadesville, Indiana; Andy Glazebrook, Newburgh, Indiana; Matt Bower, Evansville; Andrew Cloutier, Farmersburg, Indiana; Jason Goodwin, Mount Vernon, Indiana; Aaron Calbert, Evansville; Charlie Stoltz, Mount Vernon, Indiana; Levi Vanwinkle, Bloomfield, Indiana; Travis Daugherty, Dunkirk, Indiana; Joel Rupert, Evansville; and Kyle Davis, Madisonville, Kentucky.
