

ISUE UNIVERSITY NOTES
May 17, 1971

Notes for faculty and staff will be distributed on Monday of each week, if news items are available. Please give notices which should appear in a particular issue of UNIVERSITY NOTES to Mrs. Duffie Barton prior to 4:00 p. m. on Friday.

1. Project 14 Programs

ISUE's first series of Project 14 programs will end in June with a show being produced by Dr. Darrell Bigham concerning Evansville history. Other programs have dealt with ISUE development, New Harmony, and "The Rise of the American Youth Class." On the agenda for August is a program promoting the new Bent Twig area on campus. If anyone on the faculty or staff has ideas for programs, please contact Mr. Brad Awe, extension 303.

The Communications Area of the Humanities Division has recently organized a Communication Arts Club. Club activities include on and off campus performances in public speaking, discussion (symposium or open forum), interpretation, theatre, mass media publications, etc. Anyone desiring the services of the Club is invited to contact any Communications faculty member for further information.

2. Annual Health Services Department Report

The Health Services Department is slowly increasing its total patient care load. In 1970-71, the students out-numbered the employees needing care for the first time. The students visiting the service made up 54% of the total patients compared to 41% the previous year. In September, 1970, speech and hearing tests were given to students majoring in education. 145 have been tested since then.

3. Decoration Day Holiday
