"Taste of USI" program slated for adult students

For immediate release
May 8, 1995

A free "Taste of USI for Adults" program will be held from 5 to 7 p.m. Wednesday, May 17, in the Robert D. Orr Center, designed to answer questions for those who are thinking of changing jobs, want a job advancement, or are just curious about college.

The session will offer workshops on Career Search Assessment: Taking Control of Your Life by a Private Industries Council counselor; local job opportunities; and a sampling of college instruction in computers, psychology ("Sleep and Sleep Disorders" lecture), or economics ("Tackling the Stock Market").

Reservations are requested. Call 812/464-1765 for information or to register.
