EVANSVILLE CAMPUS

See p. 3

In 1972, Chisholm declared her candidacy for President of the United States and went on to become the first woman from a major political party to carry her candidacy through to its conclusion at the 1972 Democratic National Convention, where she received 152 delegate votes.

In addition to Chisholm, other participants in the program February 3 are QUENTIN DAVIS, Assistant Professor of Political Science who will give a national overview of the history of women in government, and DR. DARREL BIGHAM, Associate Professor of History, who will give a local overview of the history of women in government.

Following the keynote address, there will be a panel discussion of the issues by Shirley Cox, Vanderburgh County Clerk; Betty Lou Jarboe, Evansville City Councilwoman; Estella Moss, Vanderburgh County Recorder; and Nancy Worden, Evansville City Clerk.

A reactor panel will be composed of Norma Kacen, Executive Director of the Evansville Teacher's Association; Sondra Matthews, President of the Inner-City Neighborhood Planning Council; Barbara McKenna, Past President of the League of Women Voters; and Susie Nicholson, Past President of Leadership Evansville.

An open reception, sponsored by Delta Sigma Theta, will follow the program. The program is sponsored by the Office of Continuing Education and is co-sponsored by the Vanderburgh County Democrat and Republican women's organizations and the League of Women Voters of Southwestern Indiana. It is funded, in part, by the Indiana Committee for the Humanities. The second segment of Women in Government will be held Thursday, February 9.

STUDY SKILLS HELP SESSIONS. The schedule for the second semester Study Skills Help Sessions has been announced by the Counseling Center.

These workshops are open to all students and will cover such topics as budgeting study time, listening and taking notes, reading a textbook, taking tests and test anxiety. Individual student needs will be considered at this time such as locating a tutor for a special class or covering a specific concern of the student.

Sessions will begin at 2:00 p.m. in Room L100. The workshops will be informal and will vary from session to session so that students need not be limited to one session.

REPRESENTATIVE CHISHOLM ON CAMPUS. Congresswoman Shirley Chisholm (D-NY) will keynote the first session of the Women in Government program on Friday, February 3 at 7:30 p.m. The program is open to the public and free of charge. Congresswoman Chisholm, who represents the 12th Congressional District of New York, is a specialist in early childhood education and child welfare who entered politics in 1964 when she ran successfully for the New York State Assembly on the Democratic ticket. She first ran for Congress in 1968, campaigning under the slogan "Unbought and Unbossed."

The schedule is as follows:

Thursday, February 9
Thursday, February 23
Thursday, March 9

Thursday, March 30
Thursday, April 13
Thursday, April 27

Students unable to attend these sessions but interested in study skills, should contact the Counseling Center at extension 1867.

WELCOME TO CAMPUS DAY. The Admissions Office is sponsoring a Welcome to Campus Day Friday, February 3 from 10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m. Interested students are to meet in the University Center Cafeteria. The agenda includes campus tours, meeting with faculty members to discuss academic questions, lunch and discussion sessions.

CAMPUS MINISTRIES SCRIPTURE INSTITUTE. A five part Scripture Institute will be sponsored by Campus Ministries each Tuesday from February 7 - March 7. The presentations by SISTER SHELIA GRIFFIN and Reverend George Hughes will be in Room 100 of the Library at 12:00 noon.

The Scripture Institute sessions will be concerned with two books of the Old Testament and two books of the New Testament. The fifth sessions will center around the relationship of scripture to life experience.

The first Scripture Institute will be held Tuesday, February 7. SISTER SHELIA GRIFFIN will present thoughts and current documentation relating to the Book of Exodus. Discussion will follow with Reverend George Hughes serving as moderator.

LIBRARY EXHIBITS. JOSEPHINE ELLIOTT, Archivist, announces that two exhibits have been set up in the Library.

On loan from Roche Laboratory is an exhibit showing the history of psychiatry and treatment of mental illness.

Also on display is an exhibit of teeth made from actual models of patients of Dental Technology students. Books of historical interest on teeth care are included in the exhibit.

PANEL DISCUSSION CONCERNING DENTAL SCHOOLS. Indiana University School of Dentistry will participate in a live television panel discussion program covering dental schools on February 28, 1978. The program will be in cooperation with the University of California Dental Schools and will be available in Room SC194 from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. and will feature a SUTON telephone hookup so that the audience may ask questions of the panel members. All members of the faculty, staff and students are invited to participate.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS. LARRY GOSS, Associate Professor of Engineering Technology, attended the mid-year meeting of the Engineering Design Graphics Division of the American Society for Engineering Education (ASEE) held at the University of Alabama January 3-6. GOSS was program chairman for the meeting and also presented a paper entitled "Metrics in the PEOPLE IN THE NEWS (CONT.) Marketplace." The paper has since been accepted for publication in the next issue of the Engineering Design Graphics Journal.
