The Campus

Academic Life

The University enrolls 10,820 students and offers undergraduate majors in 70 areas of study. An ever-increasing number of post-graduate programs also are available to students who wish to continue their education, including a Doctor of Nursing Practice degree. Opportunities are available for service learning, study abroad, and internships.

Click link for Academic Affairs web site

Campus Life

Outside the classroom, students have opportunities to participate in more than 90 organizations offering co-curricular and extra-curricular activities. Special interest clubs, student government, sororities and fraternities, music and drama groups, and other organizations enable the students to enjoy and contribute to campus life.

Residence Life

Students living on campus have their choice of two types of housing. Students can live in standard apartments or in residence halls which have amenities such as Internet connections, wireless Internet, and cable television. Computer labs, laundromats, a convenience store, outdoor and indoor recreation areas, and student lounges contribute to an efficient living environment that has proven to be overwhelmingly popular with students. Meal plans also are available at the University Center, which is located in the center of campus.

EVANSVILLE, Indiana

...A CITY with urban attractions and hometown friendliness

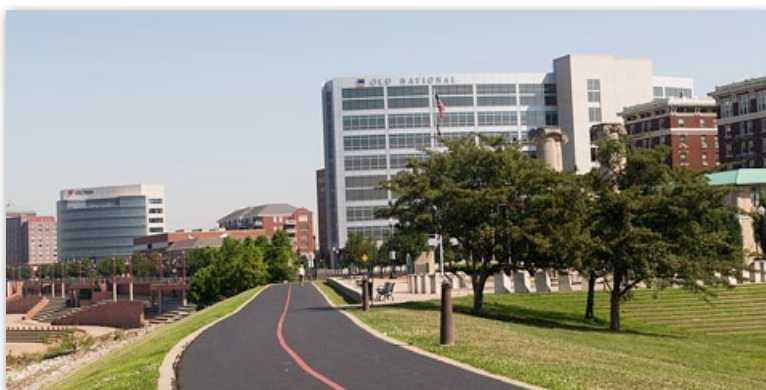

Situated on the banks of the Ohio River, Evansville is a mid-sized city that welcomes USI students and offers them plenty of things to do. The Ford Center, a 10,000-seat downtown arena, is the home of Evansville's hockey team, the IceMen. Traveling Broadway shows and feature performances come to the Evansville Auditorium and Convention Centre. For a relaxing walk or invigorating run, the downtown riverfront features a greenway with a view of the changing river traffic and the Evansville skyline. Movie theatres (including an IMAX) and Swonder Ice Arena draw students together for fun, activity, and fellowship. Evansville's coffee shops, restaurants, and shopping areas also are places where students like to spend time. Less than three miles from campus, shopping centers and restaurants are plentiful. Eastland Mall on Green River Road and the commercial centers off Burkhardt Road offer more restaurants and terrific shopping. USI's suburban location in the rolling hills of Western Vanderburgh County is just minutes away from all that Evansville has to offer.

Physical Activities Center

The Physical Activities Center (PAC) has been the home of the Screaming Eagles for the past 32 years. Opened in 1980, the PAC accommodates physical education classes, intramural activities, and is the arena for the USI basketball and volleyball teams.

The center court of the PAC has been the setting for many games of regional and national interest during the past 19 years. USI has hosted the 1993, 1994, and 1996 men's NCAA II Great Lakes Regionals; the 2009 men's GLVC Tournament; the 1998 women's GLVC Tournament; the 1998 and 2001 women's NCAA II Great Lakes Regionals; and the 2000 and 2004 GLVC Volleyball Tournaments.

A true home court, the USI volleyball team has a 90-28 home record since 2000, a .763 winning percentage.

With padded chairback seats, back-supported bleacher seats, and a top-of-the line scoreboard and video board, the Physical Activities Center is one of the top Division II athletic venues.

Eagles eager to take next step

The University of Southern Indiana volleyball team has advanced to the NCAA II Tournament each of the last two years and has its sights set on even bigger prizes as it heads into the 2012 campaign.

Excitement and expectations are high, and rightfully so, as the Screaming Eagles return four starters and 10 letter winners from a squad that was 20-11 overall and 14-4 in Great Lakes Valley Conference play a year ago.

Head Coach Leah Mercer '02, already the program's winningest coach as she enters her eighth season at the helm, has three seniors, four juniors, three sophomores, and five freshmen to mold together as she looks to have the Eagles in contention for a GLVC and NCAA II Midwest Region title.

USI's senior class consists of setter Ashley King, right side hitter Emily Meyer, and outside hitter Abbi Williams.

King, who averaged 9.00 assists per set a year ago, has provided the Eagles with depth and a spark off the bench in key situations throughout her first three years in a USI uniform. Her 33 assists helped the Eagles end nationally-ranked Lewis's 45-match regular-season home winning streak.

Meyer had a breakthrough season last year when she recorded 0.48 service aces and 2.37 points per set. Her play on the opposite side provided the Eagles with a strong offensive presence in 2011 as she averaged 1.62 kills per set, including a career-high 13 in USI's four-set win over Missouri S&T.

Williams, who played a major role in USI's surge into the 2010 NCAA II Tournament, saw limited time a year ago after spending the 2011 off-season recovering from a knee injury. She averaged nearly two kills per set as a sophomore when she played in 30 matches for the Eagles.

USI's offense has run through the finger tips of junior setter Jorae Bradbury during the last two seasons, and if the Eagles are going to continue their climb toward the top of the GLVC and the Midwest Region, her play will be a key factor.

Bradbury recorded more than 1,000 assists during her sophomore campaign in 2011 and is averaging more than 10 assists per set during her first two years in a USI uniform.

In addition to Bradbury, USI's junior class includes middle blocker Emily Diedrich, outside hitter Kristy Gerardot, and libero Kayla Heldman.

Diedrich, who had eight kills, a .375 attacking percentage, and three blocks in USI's four-set loss to Indianapolis in the opening round of the NCAA II Tournament a year ago, has been a force at the net for the Eagles during her first two years. She was second on the team and 10th in the GLVC a year ago with a .296 attacking percentage, while her 0.83 blocks per set also ranked second on the team.

Gerardot saw a significant increase in playing time during her sophomore season as she averaged 1.23 kills and 1.31 blocks per set in 20 matches a year ago. She had a season-high 12 kills in USI's three-set win over Upper Iowa and racked up eight kills and 18 digs in USI's win at Lewis.

Junior middle blocker Emily Diedrich (left) and senior right side hitter Emily Meyer (right) will be two of the primary targets for junior setter Jorae Bradbury (middle) in 2012. Bradbury averaged more than 10 assists per set a year ago, while Diedrich racked up a .296 attacking percentage and 0.83 blocks per set. Meyer, who was second in the GLVC with 0.48 service aces per set last year, had a breakout season as a junior when she amassed 2.37 points per frame.

Heldman has continued to give the Eagles a strong presence in the back row since taking over the libero duties as a freshman in 2010. Last season, Heldman became the first player since 2007 to eclipse the 400-dig plateau as she finished the year with 404, including a season-best 24 in USI's five-set victory over Wisconsin-Parkside.

The emergence of sophomore outside hitters Lauren DeShaney and Fawn Ryan was crucial in USI's NCAA II Tournament run last year. DeShaney was second on the team in kills (265), kills per set (2.82), and points (314) in her first year of collegiate volleyball, while Ryan was third on the team kills (213) and kills per set (2.09) as a freshman.

Sophomore middle blocker Ashley Rakers rounds out USI's returning players after recording 1.50 kills, 1.50 blocks, and 2.25 points per set in two matches a year ago.

With coaches having the ability to use 15 substitutions per set instead of 12, freshmen defensive specialists Haley Bowden and Erin Goldschmidt figure to compete for playing time immediately.

Bowden recorded 201 digs and 2.7 digs per frame as a senior at Minooka Community High School (Minooka, Illinois), helping her squad to back-to-back regional titles.

Goldschmidt was an honorable mention All-State performer and one of the St. Louis area leaders in digs after recording 544 as a senior at Gibault High School (Waterloo, Illinois).

The biggest question mark for the Eagles entering the 2012 season is the replacement of GLVC Player of the Year and AVCA All-American middle blocker Danielle LaGrange '12, who led USI in attacking percentage, kills, blocks, and points as a senior in 2011.

Mercer brought in a pair of freshmen middle blockers—Molly King and Abbey Winter—to help fill the void left by LaGrange. King, who red-shirted at Division I Cleveland State in 2011, was a two-time All-State and All-Area honoree at Lafayette Central Catholic High School (Lafayette, Indiana). Her 2.46 kills and 0.69 blocks per set as a senior helped LCCHS to the 2010 IHSA Class A state championship.

Winter, a high school teammate of Rakers, helped lead Mater Dei High School (Breese, Illinois) to two straight IHSA Class 3A state championships. She recorded more than 200 kills and 160 blocks during her senior campaign as MDHS finished the year with a 39-3 record.

Rounding out USI's newcomers is freshman right side hitter Erica Oberbroeckling, who earned second-team All-State honors as a senior at Westfield High School after averaging 2.96 kills and 3.67 digs per set. She amassed more than 500 kills in her final two prep seasons and helped lead WHS to a sectional and regional title in 2011.

USI, which begins the season with classic-style tournaments in West Palm Beach, Florida, and Rolla, Missouri, opens its 11-match home schedule September 11 against Cedarville. The Eagles start GLVC play with three straight home matches before hitting the road for a four-match trip that includes visits to Indianapolis and Lewis.

The GLVC/GLIAC Crossover is October 12-13 in Aurora, Illinois, and is sandwiched between USI's four-match swing against the GLVC West Division. The final 10 matches of the regular season see the Eagles host five contests, including home bouts against Indianapolis and Lewis.

Quick Resume

- Began at USI in 2005
- 2 NCAA Tournament appearances
- 125-90 Overall
- 71-43 GLVC

HC Leah MERCER

Head Coach | 8th Year | University of Southern Indiana '02 | Evansville, IN

MEET LEAH MERCER

Leah Mercer '02 enters her eighth season as the head coach of the USI volleyball program after leading the Screaming Eagles to the NCAA II Tournament in 2010 and 2011.

Last year, Mercer became the all-time winningest coach in the program's history as she guided the Eagles to a 20-11 overall mark and a 14-4 record in GLVC play. Her Eagles finished in a tie for third in the powerful GLVC East Division before advancing to the NCAA II Tournament for the second consecutive year and the fourth time in the program's history.

In 2010, Mercer became second coach in the program's history to reach the 100-win plateau as she led her squad to an 18-12 overall record and a 10-4 mark in GLVC play, good enough for third in the conference's regular-season standings. In addition, Mercer's Eagles advanced to the GLVC Tournament semifinals for the third straight season and the eighth time in 11 years and to the NCAA II Tournament for the first time since 2004.

Mercer, who has 125 career victories at the helm of the USI volleyball program, led her squad to an 18-14 overall mark, 9-5 in the GLVC, in 2009.

Four years ago, Mercer brought the Eagles back to the GLVC Championship for the first time in four years and the sixth time since 2000. Her squad was 18-15 overall, 9-8 in the GLVC, and finished third in the GLVC West Division. The Eagles won six of their final eight matches, including upset wins over nationally-ranked Northern Kentucky University and the University of Missouri-St. Louis.

Throughout Mercer's career with the Eagles, USI has been among the GLVC's best teams at the net. Her squad led the GLVC and was eighth in the nation with 2.43 blocks per set in 2008.

• 2012 VOLLEYBALL COACHING STAFF •

The Eagles' 454 block assists in 2008 eclipsed the program's all-time record, which was set the previous year when USI amassed 450 block assists.

In 2007, Mercer's squad finished 15-14 overall and was fourth in the GLVC West Division with a 9-10 conference mark. The 2007 Eagles set season records for digs (2,147) and block assists.

Mercer led the Eagles to a sixth-place finish in the GLVC regular-season standings with a 17-11 overall mark, 9-7 GLVC, in 2006. In the Great Lakes Region, the Eagles knocked off eventual region champion Ashland early in the season.

In 2005, Mercer led her squad to a 19-13 overall record and an 11-5 mark in the GLVC. Her squad also posted wins over fifth-ranked North Alabama and 11th-ranked Northern Michigan.

A native of Evansville and a 2002 graduate of USI, Mercer served Loyola University (Chicago) as the top assistant coach in 2004. She helped guide the Ramblers to a 22-9 overall record and a 10-4 mark in the Horizon League. Loyola won the Horizon League Tournament championship and qualified for the NCAA Division I Tournament before falling to the University of Wisconsin in the first round.

Prior to her one-year stint at Loyola, Mercer spent a year as a graduate assistant coach at Ohio University in Athens, Ohio. She helped lead the Bobcats to a 28-5 overall record, the Mid-American Conference regular-season and tournament titles, and the program's first-ever berth in the NCAA I Tournament.

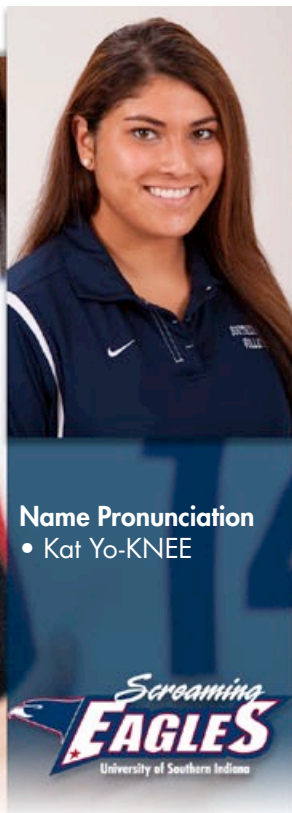

Mercer, who started her coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Purdue University in 2002, was a two-time All-GLVC performer and helped lead the Eagles to a three-year record of 61-27, including a 49-14 mark as a junior and senior. She averaged 3.1 kills per set during her three seasons of collegiate volleyball. Mercer also averaged 5.9 points and 3.6 rebounds in two seasons with USI's women's basketball program.

Mercer, who has a bachelor's degree in physical education (teaching K-12) and a master's degree in recreation and sports science (coaching education), is the Screaming Eagles' 11th head coach in the history of the program.

YONY

Assistant Coach | 2nd Year | Nova Southeastern University '11 | Miami, FL

MEET KATHLEEN YONY

Kathleen Yony is entering her second season with the University of Southern Indiana volleyball coaching staff and assists Head Coach Leah Mercer in all aspects of the Screaming Eagles' program.

A native of Miami, Florida, Yony comes to USI after a stellar career at Nova Southeastern University that saw her set the school's all-time record with 1,721 digs. In 2009, Yony earned All-Sunshine State Conference honors as well as AVCA All-South Region accolades after helping Nova Southeastern to the NCAA II Tournament.

Yony, who helped Nova Southeastern claim the NCAA II South Region title as a sophomore in 2008, earned tryouts with the U.S. National Team following her sophomore and junior seasons.

As a coach, Yony has worked with a pair of club teams, the Tribe Volleyball Club (Deerfield Beach, Florida) and the Boomer's Volleyball Club (Ft. Lauderdale, Florida), since 2008. She was the head coach for the Boomers Elite 12 team and an assistant coach for the Boomers Elite 13 squad as well as the Tribe Elite 17 team.

Yony graduated from Nova Southeastern in 2011 with her bachelor's degree in psychology.

The Screaming Eagles made their third appearance in the NCAA II Tournament in 2010 after posting an 18-12 overall record and a 10-4 mark in GLVC play. USI, one of a conference-record five GLVC teams to qualify for the NCAA II Tournament in 2010, finished third in the conference standings before advancing to the semifinals of the conference tournament.

In 2011, the Screaming Eagles made their second consecutive trip to the NCAA II Tournament after posting a 20-11 overall record and a 14-4 mark in GLVC play. The post-season berth marked the first time in the program's history that USI advanced to the NCAA II Tournament in consecutive years.
