EVANSVILLE CAMPUS

ISUE FOUNDATION BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING

The winter meeting of the ISUE Foundation Board of Directors will be held at noon on Thursday, January 11, 1973 on the Evansville Campus in the Faculty Reading Room of the Library. Joseph E. O'Daniel, President of the ISUE Foundation and Chairman of the Board of Directors, will preside at the meeting.

Just prior to the meeting, a portrait of David Rice will be unveiled. The portrait, a gift of Mrs. Georgia Gabe of Evansville, was done by local artist Fred Eilers. Well known in the Midwest, Eilers is represented in the collections of museums, private and public institutions, as well as in numerous homes throughout the area. Mr. Eilers is listed in the 1966 edition of Who's Who in American Art.

The portrait portrays Dr. Rice in his academic regalia and will be hung in the University Library.

FIVE--YEAR SERVICE AWARDS

Five members of the University staff who will have completed five years of service to the University will be honored with a reception and dinner at Bockelman's on January 25. The Honorees are David L. Rice, President; Byron C. Wright, Vice-President for Business Affairs; Sharon Calhoun, Division Secretary, Humanities Division; Wanda Kirchoff, Division Secretary, Social Science Division; Duffie Barton, Administrative Assistant, Student Services. The Secretaries of ISUE will be in charge of the decorations and the entertainment will be furnished by a drama group under the direction of Clayton Crenshaw. Members of the administration and staff and their spouses are invited to participate in the celebration.
