NEW START SEMINAR. The next New Start Seminar for adults interested in changing careers, finding new challenges, and entering or returning to college will be held at 9 a.m. Saturday, August 5, in the University Center. Topics to be covered are Career Planning and Placement Opportunities, Financial Aid, and USI Support Programs for Adults. Participants also may take the Strong Campbell Interest Inventory test which indicates the best career fields for their personality and interests; there is a $5 fee for the test. There is no registration fee for the seminar but reservations are requested; call extension 1765.

NAMES IN THE NEWS. Dr. Charles T. Barber, chairman of the Philosophy and Political Science Department, participated in the 1989 Summer Institute for Faculty on "Islam," held July 12-15 at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor. The institute was sponsored by the Michigan Committee for U.S.-Arab Relations and the UM Center for Near Eastern and North African Studies, and included lectures, films, discussions with a Jerusalem rabbi and Muslim musicians, and visits to a mosque service, Arabian restaurant, and the opening of an exhibit at the Kelsey Museum of Archaeology.

NEW FACES. Three more employees have joined the University staff, including:

Mr. Bryan K. Abell, a 1983 Reitz High School graduate, is a security officer. He previously worked at Accuride Corporation in Henderson, Kentucky.

Mr. Steven F. Baker is a heating, ventilating, and air-conditioning operator. He is a 1978 graduate of Castle High School and 1982 graduate of Ivy Tech-Southwest. He lives at 511 W. Jennings, Newburgh.

Mr. Michael A. Granger is a stationary engineer. A 1981 graduate of Washington (Indiana) High School, he is a Navy veteran and previously was a forklift operator with Ryan-Walsh Stevedoring Company in Mobile, Alabama. He has a daughter, Amber Nicole.

NEW DINING ROOM DIRECTOR. Ms. Vicki Gephart is American Food Management's new food service director at USI, coming here from Westark Community College in Fort Smith, Arkansas. A native of Michigan, she taught home economics there for 10 years prior to joining AFM seven years ago. She worked at Rend Lake College in Illinois and Nevada City Hospital in Missouri before going to Westark. She has a daughter, Jennifer, 17.

STOP BY FOR REFRESHMENTS! You are cordially invited to drop by the UC Dining Room at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday, July 26, to meet Ms. Gephart.

THANK YOU. Mrs. Roberta A. Reich, Science Annex custodial worker, wishes to acknowledge with sincere thanks all those who expressed their sympathy in the death of her father, Mr. Arthur Cambron, 85, of Goodlettsville, Tennessee. Mr. Cambron was visiting in Evansville when he became ill June 30 and died July 4.

MEDIA DEMONSTRATIONS. Media Services invites all faculty and staff members to stop by between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. Monday, July 24, to see demonstrations of the use of camcorder units, desktop presentation techniques, and video-monitor players, all new capabilities for USI.

NEW EMPLOYEE BENEFIT. Beginning September 1, Citizens Bank will offer University employees Benefits Plus Banking, a plan providing interest, no service charge, and no minimum balance on checking accounts; various special savings accounts; and several other free or discounted services. Citizens representatives will be on campus to explain the program on Tuesday and Wednesday, July 31 and August 1; University employees will receive additional information the week of July 24.

SECRETARIES STILL HAVE CANDY. The USI Secretaries and Associates Club still has 48 candy bars to sell to complete the 1989 fundraiser. Please call Mrs. Jennie L. Head, senior secretary in the Admissions Office, extension 1765, if you would like to help.
