International students to host reception, panel discussion

For immediate release
April 3, 1996

The International Students Club at the University of Southern Indiana will be hosts for a "Windows on the World" program at 11:30 a.m. Friday, April 12, in the University Conference Center.

Twenty countries will be represented in the food to be tasted and the native items to be exhibited. In addition, there will be a Diversity Connection panel discussion at 12 noon on "How International Students Cope with Life in the United States."

Panelists will be Juzar Ahmed of India, academic services analyst in the Computer Center; Malcolm Fernandes of Tanzania, a freshman electrical engineering major; Claudette L. Giscombe of Jamaica, a biology instructor; Yu-Ping Huang of Taiwan, a junior business administration major; Millie Quan of Belize, a USI biology major; and Dr. Marwan A. Wafa, a Palestinian from Kuwait who is chair of the Management and Marketing Department.

The public is invited to attend the program. There will be a $2 admission fee. For information, contact Pamela F. Hopson, Multicultural Center director, or Emily Winters-Brown, Student Life program advisor, 812/465-7188.
