EUROPEAN MARKET TELECONFERENCE. An interactive teleconference dealing with "European Integration in 1992: Implications for American Business" will be held Thursday, December 8, in the University Center, sponsored by the University, Metropolitan Evansville Chamber of Commerce, and Tri-State World Trade Council. Radically altered competitive conditions are expected for U.S. companies selling in Europe after the European Community completes its plans in 1992 for a single internal market with freedom of movement for goods, services, people, and capital in 12 participating nations. A greater demand for U.S. products is anticipated, along with new risks and greater competition.

The USI program will start at 11:45 a.m. The national teleconference will feature presentations by U.S. Commerce Secretary C. William Verity; Mr. Alfred H. Kingon, U.S. representative to the European Communities; Mr. Willy de Clercq, vice president of the Commission of European Communities; and Sir Roy Denman, head of the Commission delegation. There also will be a panel presentation involving panelists Mr. Richard Humbert, director of the Southern Europe Division, Office of Western Europe; Ms. Pierrette Pelhate, deputy head of the European Community Office of Press and Public Affairs; Mr. Judson Reis, executive vice president and managing director of investment banking for Kleinwort Benson, Inc.; and a representative of Peat Marwick Main & Company. They will discuss issues with Mr. Nhu Hoang, director international of FMC, Inc.; Mr. John Blocha, president of Coburn Optical Industries; Ms. Sherri Sorensen, vice president of international marketing for James Clem Corporation; and a representative of Westinghouse. The teleconference will be followed by a panel presentation by local business people and USI business and economics faculty and chaired by Dr. Glenn Pitman, dean of the USI School of Business.

The teleconference is expected to be beneficial to business, industry, boards of trade, chambers of commerce, export specialists, economists, legal and accounting professionals, government and civic leaders, and business faculty members. The registration fee is $50 and the deadline to register is Wednesday, December 7. Contact the USI Office of Continuing Education, extension 1863, for information or to register.

HUMANITIES GRANT. A $2,492 Indiana Committee for the Humanities grant has been approved for the "Studies in Indiana Art" project of Mr. David A. Lewis, USI art historian and instructor in art history. The project will explore the relative significance of Hoosier Art within the larger context of American and European currents of the 19th and 20th centuries. It will involve an exhibition of Hoosier paintings from the collection of the Evansville Museum of Arts and Science, including eight works recently conserved with funding from a 1987-88 National Endowment for the Arts grant. It also will include a series of forum lectures, which will coincide with the exhibition, April 2 to May 14, 1989, at the Museum. Mr. Lewis will direct a team of advanced undergraduate students in research and in organizing the exhibition. He also will contribute to and edit the exhibition catalogue, coordinate the lecture series, and lecture. Ms. Mary M. Schnepfer, museum curator of collections, will co-direct the project.

USI PERSONNEL CLUB RECEIVES 2 MAJOR AWARDS. The USI Personnel Club recently received the Superior Merit Award from the American Society of Personnel Administrators (ASPA). This top national award recognizing the students for contributions to the professional field, was presented to only 37 university clubs in the nation and USI was the only Indiana institution to be recognized. In addition, the Evansville Personnel Association (EPA) presented the USI club with a plaque recognizing the students for contributions on a local basis. The awards were presented to Dr. Glenn Pitman, dean of the School of Business, by Mr. Frank Beumer, board member of the Personnel Accreditation Institute, ASPA, and Mrs. Cynthia Newhouse, USI Personnel director and EPA member. The awards and will be displayed in the conference room of the new classroom building.

USI Personnel Club members have completed many activities, including conducting an EPA Wage and Salary Survey in the Evansville metropolitan area; participating in the Shadow Day program; hosting a Career Enhancement Clinic; touring St. Mary's Hospital, Whirlpool Corporation, and Bristol-Myers USPNG; and inviting national, state, and local speakers to inform the club about professional personnel issues. Dr. Barbara J. Marting, professor of business, is the club's faculty advisor. Mrs. Karen Harpenau is club president.

NAMES IN THE NEWS. Dr. Glenn A. Pitman, dean of the School of Business and professor of marketing, presented a paper, "Impact of the Growing Asian Market on the United States Export Strategy," at the November 18 meeting of the New England Business Administration Association. Dr. Sang To Choe, associate professor of marketing, was co-author of the paper.

Dr. Marwan Wafa, assistant professor of business, was co-author of a paper entitled "An Investigation of the Application of Generic Strategies in the Kuwaiti Marketplace," which was presented in November by Dr. Ron Green of East Tennessee State University at the Academy of International Business, Southeast USA, in Atlanta. Dr. Wafa will present a paper at the Western Decision Sciences Institute's 18th annual meeting, to be held in March in Monterey, California.

NEW FACES. Ms. Cynthia A. Moore, a temporary custodial worker, has joined the University staff as a full-time employee. A Reitz High School graduate, she has two sons, Jacob, 3, and Joshua, 2; they live at 1941 S. McDowell Road.

RETIREMENT RECEPTION. A retirement reception will be held from 3 to 5 p.m. Tuesday, December 13, in UC308 for Dr. Kenneth B. Settle, professor of business and chairman of the old Division of Business, and Mr. Charles M. Lonnberg, catalog librarian and professor of library science. All faculty and staff members are invited to drop by and wish them well.

BEST WISHES to Mr. Jack L. Huston, custodial worker at the Physical Activities Center, who is a patient at Deaconess Hospital, Room 3622 (zip 47747). He'd love to hear from you.

ST. BARBARA'S DAY. The feast of St. Barbara, patron saint of miners and gunners, has been celebrated for centuries and will be observed this year by the Department of Engineering Technology. The program at 12 noon Friday, December 2, in UC308 will include a reading of the legend of St. Barbara and information on how she came to be the patron saint of miners and gunners. Everyone is welcome. For information, call Dr. Nils Johansen, visiting associate professor of engineering technology, extension 1882 or 1877.

EASTSIDE WESTSIDE II. The joint USI/UE art faculty exhibition will open Tuesday, December 6, at the Evansville Museum of Arts and Science. A reception for the artists will be held from 6 to 8 p.m. Saturday, December 17, in the Old Gallery. USI artists participating this year are Mr. Michael Aakhus, associate professor of art; Ms. Anne Dowhie, lecturer in art and music; Mr. Leonard E. Dowhie, associate professor of art; Mr. William Leth, Art Workshop supervisor; Mr. John McNaughton, professor of art; Mr. Curt Uebelhor, exhibits preparator at the New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art; and Ms. Katie Waters, Art Department chairman and assistant professor of art. UE participants are Mr. Larry Barnfield, Mr. William Brown, Mr. Les Miley, Mr. Bill Richmond, and Mr. Mark Timmis.

HEAR YE! HEAR YE! Let your holidays begin at the Christmas Madrigal Feaste! Seats still are available each night (more on Thursday night) for the Mid-America Singers' yuletide celebration December 1-4 in the UC Dining Room. The feastes begin at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Friday, and Saturday and 6 p.m. Sunday. Tickets are $15 per person, with a special price of $12 for students and senior citizens for the Sunday performance only. Call the School of Liberal Arts, extension 1735, for information.

THE EVANSVILLE CHRISTMAS GIFT FOR 1988 -- An Evansville Album - Perspectives on a River City, 1812-1988, compiled by Dr. Darrel E. Bigham, USI professor of history, and recently published by IU Press, is available at the USI Bookstore. An autograph party will be held there from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. on Monday, December 5; the book will be available at a discount price that day only. There will be refreshments.

LOOKING FOR A GIFT IDEA? For special people on your holiday gift list, order Gift Certificates to the USI Theatre from the School of Liberal Arts. The certificates are $3 each, which is a $2 discount from the regular admission. These attractive gift certificates are the perfect present for your children's teachers and special friends you want to remember. They can be used for any production at the USI Theatre (not New Harmony Theatre). This offer is open only to USI students and employees.

CHRISTMAS CANDLELIGHT TOURS. The third annual Christmas Candlelight Tours sponsored by Historic New Harmony and the New Harmony State Historic Site will be held December 1-7. Tours are by reservation only, adults $5, children $3; group discounts are available. There will be free tram service for the tours, which are scheduled at 6:30, 7, and 7:30 p.m. Call (812) 682-4488 for information or reservations. The annual "Christmas in New Harmony" festivities will be held from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Saturday, December 3, sponsored by New Harmony Business Associates and community organizations. For information, call (812) 682-3271 or 464-9595.

APB CHILDREN'S PARTY. The Activities Programming Board's annual Christmas party for children of USI students, faculty, and staff will be held Saturday, December 10, in the Eagle's Nest. Watch TV monitors for details.

HOLY DAY MASS. A Holy Day Mass for the Feast of the Immaculate Conception will be held at 4:30 p.m. Thursday, December 7, in the MASH rec room.

CHRISTMAS TREE RULES. In order to comply with the State Fire Marshal's instructions, do not use electric lights on any Christmas trees within the University buildings. All live trees must be secured in a tree stand with adequate water.

DISTINGUISHED PROFESSOR NOMINATIONS are due by Friday, December 2. All full-time faculty members are eligible to nominate or be nominated for USI's highest teaching award. The nomination forms can be obtained from and submitted to each school's representative on the Faculty and Academic Affairs Committee.

SAVE SCHNUCK'S RECEIPTS. The Student Education Association, sponsor of the Apples for the Classroom Project with Schnuck's stores, has a goal of at least $150,000 in the contest to save cash register receipts to qualify for a free computer for University facilities. Receipts are redeemable for hardware or software; to date, nearly $2,000 in receipts has been turned in at the cashier's window. If you shop Schnuck's, save receipts dated between October 10 and April 8 and help SEA compete.

FULBRIGHT LECTURES. Many Fulbright scholar lecturing opportunities for the 1989-90 academic year still are available in all academic fields and in all parts of the world, even though major deadlines have passed. The greatest needs are in humanities and social sciences, such as American history and literature. For information, contact Mrs. Pat McReynolds, special projects coordinator, extension 1972.

SUMMER FELLOWSHIPS. The Indiana Humanities Council provides up to six $4,000 stipends each summer for two consecutive months of full-time scholarly research in the humanities, offering scholars the opportunity to develop a project that can be completed during the stipend period -- May 1 to September 30. Applicants must be Indiana residents and have advanced degrees, with professional and formal training completed by January, 1989. The application deadline is 4 p.m. January 20, 1989. Contact the School of Liberal Arts, extension 1630, for information.

SUVON CHANGES. The latest changes in SUVON calling include: St. Joseph's College - dial 866-6000 for operator; the campus now has four-digit extension numbers, 866-6000 to 6999. Hanover College - dial 866-7000 for operator; campus extensions also are four digits, 866-7000 to 7999.

FAMILY PLANNING SPEAKER. Dr. Joseph F. Thompson, M.P.H., professor of obstetrics and gynecology at Indiana University Medical School and medical director of the Indiana Family Health Council, will speak on "Family Planning in Brazil" at 7:30 p.m. Friday, December 2, in the Professional Conference Center of the Signature Inn on North Green River Road. The program is sponsored by Planned Parenthood; reservations are $5 per persons and may be made by calling 473-8803.
