ISUE THEATRE DEPARTMENT PRESENTS "STORY THEATRE." On Friday and Saturday, April 18 and 19, the ISUE Theatre department will close its spring season with "Story Theatre," a presentation of works of prose fiction adapted for stage reading.

Directed by Communications and Theatre faculty DRS. HELEN SANDS, DOUGLAS HUBBELL, and TED WENDT, the schedule of performances will include: Excerpts from Tom Sawyer by Mark Twain, "The UFO Menace" by Woody Allen, "The Pedestrian" by Ray Bradbury (directed by DR. SANDS); "Who Am I This Time?" by Kurt Vonnegut (directed by DR. WENDT) and "What Is It, Mrs. Perkins?" by Art Buchwald (directed by DR. HUBBELL).

Though it involves a skillful cutting and reshaping of material, a variety of staging techniques must also be employed for the successful transformation of a work of fiction to dramatic form. Some of these techniques will include sound effects and special theatrical lighting, and also a unique use of the imagination as performers invite audience members to envision scenes distinct as those of a Mississippi river bank and that of modern city.

All performers are Communications or Theatre students, many from DR. SAND's Advanced Oral Interpretation class. Normally seen snatching rebounds and stuffing baskets, Big John Hollinden -- the 7'1" starting center for the ISUE Screaming Eagles basketball team -- will play Huck Finn in the excerpt from Tom Sawyer.

The performances will begin at 8:00 p.m. each evening at the ISUE Playhouse on Igleheart Avenue. Tickets are $1.00 and are available at the Playhouse or in the Pyramid Lounge during Spring Week.

HUMANITIES FORUM. Modern fictions and their experimental counterparts will be examined in Professor Joseph Weixlmann's Humanities Forum on Friday, April 18.

Weixlmann, who teaches with the English Department at Indiana State University, will present "An Introduction to Modern Experimental Fiction" and discuss contemporary movements in fiction and non-traditional writing.

According to Weixlmann, some of the current experimental movements -- such as the Metafiction movement -- have already spurred important reactions, and he will consider some of these.

Weixlmann most recently spoke before a meeting of the Modern Language Association where he dealt with current trends in fiction and also black fiction.

His forum is from 12:00 noon to 1:00 p.m. in Room UC 350.

ALUMNI SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS. Through the cooperation of DAVID DEERING, Bookstore manager, and the ISUE Bookstore, the ISUE Alumni Association has undertaken this project in an attempt to raise additional funds for student scholarships.

Each year faculty members receive text books for which they have a minimum amount of use. We are proposing that faculty and staff members donate these books to the Alumni Association. The Alumni Association will sell them to the Bookstore and all funds collected will be used for student scholarships. We are interested in all kinds of books regardless of the amount of money that we can receive for them. These books can be delivered to the Office of Alumni Affairs in the University Center, or you can contact the Office of Alumni Affairs and someone will get the books from you at your convenience.

In addition to your cooperation, the Alumni Association will make this opportunity available to students. Contact RALPH KENT, director of Alumni Affairs, at extension 1865 for further information.
