INDIANA STATE UNIVERSITY EVANSVILLE, EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER
SHERRIANNE STANDLEY, EDITOR DANA HOLDER, ASSOCIATE EDITOR

Volume XVII, Number 28
March 9, 1983

WOMEN'S HISTORY CELEBRATION. On campus, last Friday, Mayor Michael Vandever issued a proclamation for Women's History Week (March 6-12) and the Women's History Celebration which runs March 7 through March 19. Sponsored by Indiana State University Evansville, in cooperation with several women's organizations, the Women's History Celebration is supported by a grant from the Indiana Committee for the Humanities.

During the two-week celebration, programs of interest to women will be held at various locations in Evansville. Today, Dr. Frances Brown will lecture on "The Feminist Movement: 1848 - 1983" at noon at The Old Courthouse; Dr. Jane Follis will speak on "Southern Indiana's Contribution to Feminism - Fanny Wright" at 4:00 p.m. at the YWCA; and Ms. Janet Wyatt will talk on the "Changing Images of Women" at 6:30 p.m. at the YWCA.

Other topics throughout the week: "Women as Workers: The Evansville Story"; "Women in the Church"; "Herstory: Women in American History"; "Sex Differences and Behavior: Biological & Cultural Differences"; and "From the Shtetl to the Suburbs: The Literary Odyssey of the Jewish Woman in America." On Tuesday, March 15, "La Strada" starring Giulietta Masina will be shown at 2:00 and 6:00 p.m. in Forum One. Dr. Sherry Darrell will lead the discussion following the film. The film and discussion are sponsored by the ISUE Division of Humanities.

All events are free and open to the public. More information may be obtained by calling the Office of Continuing Education at 464-1863.

ANNUAL FACULTY SHOW. Indiana State University Evansville art faculty will display their prints, paintings, drawings, and clay and metal sculptures at the Evansville Museum of Arts and Science from March 13 through April 4. There will be a preview at the museum on Saturday, March 12 from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. Katie Waters, Lenny Dowhie, Bill Leth, Michael Aakhus, and John McNaughton will exhibit their creations in the ISUE Faculty Show.

CONCERT SERIES. The ISUE Spring Concert Series will resume next Sunday, March 13 with keyboard artist Mark X. Hatfield accompanying soprano Elizabeth Spillman Casey.

Other series performances on March 27, April 17, and May 1 will feature a recital by piano prodigy Kevin Rhodes, piano duets by Hatfield and colleague Eulalie Jeter, and a program of spirituals and other works by the Evansville Philharmonic Chorus' Chamber Singers.

CONCERT SERIES (continued). General admission for each 2:00 p.m. concert in the ISUE Administration Building Forum One is $2.00. Series tickets for the Beethoven recitals will be honored. For more information, call 464-1736.

LECTURE AND SLIDES. Dr. Michael Rynkiewicz, anthropologist, will lecture and present slides on "Cultural Ecology and Colonialism in Micronesia" on Tuesday, March 15 at 12:30 p.m. in Science Center, Room 290. Everyone is invited to attend.

HVAC CONVERSION PROJECT. As a part of the Energy Conservation Measures Grant Project, the Technology Center heating, ventilating, and air-conditioning system will be converted from the existing constant volume to a variable air volume system. This work will include replacing mixing boxes, relocating and installing new thermostats, and re-balancing the system.

Replacing the mixing boxes will require system fans to be shut off during working hours for approximately four days. This may result in slightly uncomfortable space temperatures. Tentative date for the installation to begin is the week of March 21. This project should be substantially completed well before the end of the semester.

UNIVERSITY COMMUNITY INVITED. Dr. D'Ann Campbell, dean of women's affairs and assistant professor of history at Indiana University, will be speaking on Wednesday, March 16 at 7:30 p.m. as part of the Women's History Celebration. Dr. Campbell's topic will be "An Awareness of Women in World War II". Dr. and Mrs. Darrel Bigham are hosting this session in their home at 8215 Kuebler Road and invite the university community to attend. Call the Office of Continuing Education at extension 1863 for reservations and directions.

When the hounds of Spring are on winter's traces,
The mother of months in meadow or plain
Fills the shadows and windy places
With lisp of leaves and ripple of rain.
