International Week at USI

University of Southern Indiana's Office of International Student Services will sponsor an International Week Monday - Friday, February 8 - 12. The purpose of the celebration is to heighten student and public awareness of other cultures.

Thirty children at Culver School will enter their international art work in a competition which will judged by USI's International Club members at the beginning of the week. The winning pieces will be displayed at the International Food Expo on Thursday.

Campus events follow.

Monday, February 8

Traditional Tea Ceremony - 2 p.m. - 3:30 p.m. in the UC Conference Center; refreshments will be served by USI students. Open to the public.

Tuesday, February 9

International Coffee House - 6 p.m. - 9 p.m. in Carter Hall; coffee, desserts, entertainment, and dancing from various regions of the world, $1 admission, open to the public.

Wednesday, February 10

International Trivia Contest - 8 p.m. in Carter Hall; campus organizations and classes are invited to participate on a team or in the audience. Prizes will be awarded.

Thursday, February 11

International Food Expo - 11 a.m. - 1:30 p.m. in UC Conference Center, $4 in advance, $4.50 at the door. The menu follows. Advance tickets may be purchased by calling the Office of International Student Services at 465-1248. Open to the public.

Friday, February 12

Study Abroad Fiesta - 11 a.m. - 1 p.m. in the UC lobby; information on study abroad opportunities available through USI will be available.
