WELCOME --

The University community welcomes the following new employees, most of whom joined the faculty and staff at the beginning of the fall semester:

Dr. Marie Bussing-Burks of Evansville is visiting assistant professor of economics. She has been an adjunct instructor in economics at USI, a work management analyst at Citizens National Bank, and a visiting instructor at the University of Evansville, where she was a 1980 cum laude graduate, receiving a B.A. in elementary education. She has an associate degree in early childhood education and M.B.A. from UE, and a doctor of arts in economics from Middle Tennessee State University.

Dr. Michael E. Goggin is assistant professor of physics, coming here from Las Cruces, New Mexico, where he was an optical engineer with PSR Services at White Sands Missile Range and an assistant professor at New Mexico State University. He received a Ph.D. in physics from the University of Arkansas, and a B.S. in physics from Oakland University, Rochester, Michigan. He previously was a substitute teacher in Tempe, Paradise Valley, and Mesa, Arizona, school districts, a postdoctoral research assistant at New Mexico State, and a graduate teaching assistant at Arkansas.

Dr. Ernest H. Hall, Jr., is assistant professor of management and director of the USI Small Business Institute. He has been an assistant professor at Clemson University since 1988, a

FOUNDER'S DAY

The first Founder's Day ceremony to recognize employees with 25 years of service to the University will be held Tuesday, September 15, in the UC Dining Room. The University community is invited to a reception at 3:30 p.m. and program at 3:45, hosted by the Staff Council and Faculty Senate.

The program will honor employees who arrived on the scene in 1966 and 1967, beginning the stewardship that brought the University from a branch campus of Indiana State University -- 400 students meeting in dingy classrooms in an abandoned public elementary school -- to a 300-acre campus where structures valued at more than $33 million accommodate more than 7,000 students. Along the way, they helped to achieve the long-sought goal of separation and in 1985, Indiana State University-Evansville became the University of Southern Indiana.

Being honored for their 25 years' contribution to the many milestones for USI are Dr. James R. Blevins, dean of the School of Liberal Arts, appointed in July 1966; Mr. Eric L. vonFuhrmann, assistant professor of English, appointed September 1966; Dr. Rolla M. Dyer, professor of chemistry, appointed January 1967; Dr. Donald E. Pitzer, professor of history, appointed March 1967; Mr. John L. Deem, assistant vice president for Academic Affairs and registrar, appointed April 1967; Ms. Mary A. Schroeder, assistant professor of communications, appointed June 1967; Dr. David L. Rice, University president, and Mrs. Betty Rice, appointed July 1967; Dr. Yen Tzu-Fu, professor of mathematics, and Mr. Byron C. Wright, vice president for Business Affairs, both appointed August 1967; and Dr. Donald D. Bennett, vice president for Student Affairs, appointed July 1968.

NAMES IN THE NEWS. Dr. Nadine A. Coudret, dean of the School of Nursing and Health Professions, discussed "Ethical Dilemmas" August 25 at a meeting of the Darmstadt/McCutchanville Kiwanis Club.

Mrs. Judi L. Kuric, coordinator for Continuing Education in Nursing and Health Professions, has been appointed by the National Federation for Specialty Nursing Organizations (NFSNO) executive committee as director of the production of a specialty nursing documentary. Mrs. Kuric is immediate past president of NFSNO.

Mrs. Kuric also has been invited to present two papers -- "Standards of Practice: How Can They Work for You?" and "Health Care Policy Update 1992" -- at the ninth annual education conference of the American Association of Spinal Cord Injury Nurses, to be held September 8-9.

DATE CHANGED. Due to a conflict, the date has been changed to Wednesday, September 30, for a "Meet the Candidates" program, 7 to 9 p.m. in the Eagle's Nest. It is co-sponsored by the Student Government Association, Political Science Club, and West Side Improvement Association. Candidates will introduce themselves during the first hour and answer questions during the second. Refreshments will be available.

COOPERATION SOUGHT. The Library Services staff seeks the cooperation of co-workers in adjusting their "short cuts" through the building for non-library functions. Specifically, access to L100 and Mail Services will be limited to exterior doors on the building's lower level in the patio courtyard (east side, facing the boulevard). Signs will serve as reminders of this new policy before doors are locked and hallways shut off. Please notify student workers and others who generally run errands to observe these changes. September 8 is the target date for implementation, to allow Library Services to serve our users more effectively.

LILLY ENDOWMENT. The Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs, AD104, has information and applications for the Lilly Endowment, Inc., Faculty Open Fellowships 1993-94 program, offering maximum awards of $40,000. Full-time faculty members are invited to apply. Nomination letters must be requested by October 19.

STIPENDS AVAILABLE. September 18 is the deadline for USI faculty members to enter competition for the 1993 National Endowment for the Humanities Summer Stipends program. The stipends provide support for faculty in the humanities to devote two months of full-time study and research to projects that contribute to scholarly knowledge, to conception and substance of individual courses, or to the public understanding of the humanities. The project may be part of a long-range endeavor; it does not have to be completed during the stipend tenure.

The NEH Travel to Collections program has merged with Summer Stipends, so applicants now apply for awards of $4,000 for projects not requiring travel and $4,750 for those requiring travel over a significant distance for research purposes. For information and applications, contact Dr. Peggy G. Harrel, coordinator of Grants and Sponsored Research, AD104H, extension 7016.

CAN YOU HELP DISABLED SERVICES? The Disabled Student Services section of the USI Counseling Center is recruiting students to tape record text books or take duplicate class notes for fellow students with disabilities. It is helpful if a reader or notetaker can be located in the same class as the student needing assistance. A faculty member who has a student identified as disabled and in need of a reader and/or notetaker is asked to encourage another student in the class to help. Disabled Student Services can provide supplies and compensation to those who
