Jon Mark Hall, Director of Athletics

Jon Mark Hall was appointed to the position of director of Athletics in January 2002, after seven years as the assistant director.

Under his direction, USI was the 2003-04 GLVC All-Sports and Commissioner's Cup winner and host of the 2004 and 2009 NCAA Division II Cross Country National Championships.

In addition to his duties as director of Athletics, Hall also is the chair of the NCAA Division II men's and women's tennis committee. He has served on the Great Lakes Valley Conference Executive Committee and the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional women's basketball committee.

Hall joined the USI Athletic Department in 1995 as an assistant athletic director and men's tennis coach.

As the men's tennis coach, Hall was named the GLVC Coach of the Year five times, directed the Screaming Eagles to four GLVC regular-season titles and GLVC Tournament crowns, and had a 123-47 record (.724).

During his final season as head coach, Hall led the Eagles to their third straight appearance in the NCAA II Tournament and their first victory in the post-season. In 2000 and 2001, Hall put the Eagles on the national map with their first two invitations to the NCAA II Tournament in the 27-year history of the program.

Hall came to USI after his appointment at the University of South Carolina-Spartanburg as an assistant athletic director, where he was the NCAA compliance coordinator, oversaw the academic support service program for student athletes, and coordinated the Athletes Can Educate (ACE) program. He also assisted in fundraising and promotional activities.

The native of Murray, Kentucky, is a 1990 cum laude graduate of Murray State University, with a bachelor's degree in business administration. While at MSU, Hall was on the tennis team for two seasons, earning Academic All-Ohio Valley Conference honors in 1987. Hall received his master's degree in sports administration from Ohio State University in 1992.

In 1998-99, he completed the Sports Management Institute Executive Program at the University of South Carolina and the University of Notre Dame.

Hall and his wife Patti reside in Evansville and have four sons, Nathan, Garland, Ty, and Owen, and daughter Mary Claire.

Physical Activities Center

The Physical Activities Center (PAC) has been the home of the Screaming Eagles for the past 30 years. Opened in 1980, the PAC accommodates physical education classes, intramural activities, and is the arena for the USI basketball and volleyball teams.

Games of regional and national interest have been played on the center court of the PAC during the past 17 years. USI has hosted the 1993, 1994, and 1996 men's NCAA II Great Lakes Regionals; the 2009 men's GLVC Tournament; the 1998 women's GLVC Tournament; the 1998 and 2001 women's NCAA II Great Lakes Regionals; and the 2000 and 2004 GLVC Volleyball Tournaments.

A true home court, the USI women's basketball team has a 198-66 home record since 1993-94, a .750 winning percentage.

With padded chairback seats, back-supported bleacher seats, and a top-of-the line scoreboard and video board, the Physical Activities Center is one of the top Division II athletic venues in the region.

Situated on the banks of the Ohio River, Evansville is a mid-sized city that welcomes USI students and offers them plenty of things to do. Roberts Stadium and the Victory Theatre attract students to concerts by entertainers like Nelly, Aerosmith, Kenny Chesney, Kid Rock, and Josh Groban. Traveling Broadway shows and feature performances come to The Centre. For a relaxing walk or invigorating run, the downtown riverfront features a greenway with a view of the changing river traffic and the Evansville skyline. Movie theatres (including an IMAX) and Swonder Ice Arena draw students together for fun, activity, and fellowship. Evansville's coffee shops, restaurants, and shopping areas also are places where students like to spend time. Less than three miles from campus, shopping centers and restaurants are plentiful. Eastland Mall on Green River Road and the commercial centers off Burkhardt Road offer more restaurants and terrific shopping. ## Eagles ready to contend for GLVC title

When the University of Southern Indiana women's basketball team takes the court in 2010-11, it will do so with a list of goals that include winning a GLVC title and making a deep run into the NCAA II Tournament.

The Screaming Eagles, who were 22-9 overall and 13-5 in the GLVC a year ago, return a plethora of talented players that include nine letterwinners, four of their top six leading scorers, and eight of their top 11 scoring threats.

Entering his 12th year as the head coach of the Eagles, Rick Stein has to feel good about the list of returning players, especially when that list includes a pair of All-GLVC senior guards in Ellen Young and Amie Newhart.

Young earned second-team All-GLVC honors last season after averaging a team-best 15.3 points and 4.4 rebounds per contest a year ago. The two-time All-Conference honoree was named the Division II Bulletin National Player of the Month for December after averaging 20.3 points per contest and shooting 59.6 percent from the field to lead the Eagles to a 4-0 mark, including wins over arch-rivals Bellarmine and Northern Kentucky.

Newhart, who has started every game of her collegiate career, chipped in 11.8 points, 3.5

rebounds, and 3.4 assists per contest last season, including a career-high 30 points to knock off then No. 2-ranked and unbeaten Indianapolis in February.

Young and Newhart are among seven seniors who will lead the Eagles in 2010-11. Guard Lauren Meneghetti as well as forward/centers Courtney Perry and Leigha Thompson are entering their fourth seasons with USI.

Meneghetti averaged 6.9 points and 2.6 rebounds per appearance last season, while Perry saw increased playing time as she averaged 2.2 points and 2.3 rebounds per contest during her junior year.

Thompson made the most of her limited minutes last season as she averaged nearly two points per game, including a season-high seven against Marygrove.

Guard Stephanie Gehlhausen and forward/center Stephanie McSparin round out the Eagles' senior class. Gehlhausen averaged 1.3 points per game in 2009-10, while McSparin chipped in 3.1 points and 3.0 rebounds per outing.

Stein's junior class includes three players—guard Cootie Leeberg, forward/center Ashton Mertens, and guard/forward Kristen Raker.

Leeberg became one of the Eagles' go-to players off the bench in 2009-10 as she averaged 5.0 points per contest, including a season-best 13 points on a pair of occasions.

Mertens averaged 7.0 points and 4.0 rebounds per contest a year ago, including a season-best 19 points against North Alabama and 14 rebounds against eventual NCAA II runner-up Fort Lewis.

Raker is one of four newcomers on the Eagles' squad after transferring from Division I Morehead State University. The former Indiana All-State performer at Perry Meridian High School in Indianapolis, Indiana, saw action in 25 games during her two seasons at Morehead State.

Sophomore guard Marina Hartman also is a Division I transfer, making the transition from Western Illinois where she saw action in 11 games during her freshman season. Hartman graduated from Muskego High School in Muskego, Wisconsin, where former USI stand-out Katie Thiesenhusen played during her prep career.

USI's freshman class includes guard Stephanie Carpenter and forward/center Nicole Hazemi. Carpenter, a high school teammate of Ellen Young, earned All-State honors as a senior at

• 2010-11 WOMEN'S BASKETBALL OUTLOOK •

Senior guard Lauren Meneghetti (left) and junior guard Cootie Leeberg (right) help form one of the most talented back courts in the GLVC, while junior forward/center Ashton Mertens (middle) will be a go-to player in the low post in 2010-11. Senior guard Young (below), a two-time All-GLVC performer, was named preseason honorable mention All-America by Division II Bulletin after averaging more than 15 points and four rebounds per contest in 2009-10.

Salem Community High School in Salem, Illinois, after averaging 13.1 points, 3.3 rebounds, and 3.2 assists per game during her senior year. She finished her career ranked sixth in SCHS history with 1,088 career points.

Hazemi graduated from Glenbard West High School in Glen Ellyn, Illinois, where she was an All-Conference and two-time All-Area performer. She averaged nearly seven points and five rebounds per game during her senior season at GWHS.

The Eagles, who advanced to the NCAA II Tournament for the eighth time in school history last year, open a challenging schedule that includes eight games against teams that were in the 2010 NCAA II Tournament when they host Wayne State on November 12.

Wayne State is one of eight non-conference opponents for the Eagles, all but one of which are Division II. Seven of USI's non-conference opponents sported winning records a year ago.

In addition to the Wayne State contest, the Eagles host non-conference games against Saint Francis (Indiana), St. Mary's (Texas), Salem International (West Virginia), and defending Midwest Region champion Michigan Tech. The Eagles also play a neutral site contest with Minnesota State-Moorhead and pay visits to Grand Canyon (Arizona) and North Alabama. USI, which plays 14 games at the Physical Activities Center, opens GLVC play when it visits East Division foe Northern Kentucky. The Eagles were 7-1 against the East Division last season, despite it being one of the toughest divisions in the country—three of the five teams in the division, including USI, advanced to the NCAA II Tournament last season.

Home games against Bellarmine, Maryville, Missouri S&T, Drury, Kentucky Wesleyan, Indianapolis, Lewis, Wisconsin-Parkside, and Northern Kentucky highlight the Eagles' GLVC schedule. In addition to its trip to Northern Kentucky, the Eagles visit Saint Joseph's, Illinois-Springfield, Quincy, Rockhurst, Missouri-St. Louis, Indianapolis, Kentucky Wesleyan, and Bellarmine to round out their conference slate.

Rick Stein, Head Coach

Rick Stein '92 led the University of Southern Indiana women's basketball team back to the NCAA II Tournament for the first time since 2004 and the eighth time in the program's history in 2009-10.

In 2009-10, Stein's squad finished 22-9 overall, 13-5 GLVC, and hosted a first and second-round GLVC Tournament cluster. In his 11th year at the helm of the Screaming Eagles, Stein directed USI to a 7-1 mark against the GLVC East Division, a division that produced three NCAA II Tournament squads.

Heading into the 2010-11 campaign, Stein is just 11 wins shy of becoming the first coach in the program's history to reach 200 wins.

Already the program's all-time leader in wins, Stein recorded his historic 160th career win, surpassing former Head Coach Chancellor Dugan, when his squad defeated Wayne State 80-75 on December 29, 2008. He enters his 12th season as the Eagles' head coach with a 189-131 overall record.

In 19 seasons as an assistant coach and head coach for USI women's basketball, he has had a hand in 348 of the program's 496 victories (70.2 percent of USI's all-time wins).

The 2001 GLVC Coach of the Year has been a major factor in four conference championships, three GLVC Tournament titles, all eight of USI's NCAA II Tournament appearances, and two NCAA II Elite Eight appearances.

In 2010-11, Stein will blend an experienced group of returning players with a strong recruiting class as he works to get the Eagles back to the top of one of the toughest Division II conferences.

Two years ago, his squad finished 14-13 (6-11 GLVC) and was just one win shy of qualifying for the league's post-season tournament, despite having just three upperclassmen on the roster.

The 2007-08 Eagles were one of the most competitive groups in the GLVC despite their 10-17 overall mark and 5-14 record in league play. His team held second-half leads in nearly every contest in a league that featured six NCAA II Tournament teams and the 2008 national champions.

In 2006-07, Stein guided the Eagles to a 16-12 overall record, 10-9 in the GLVC, and back to the GLVC Tournament. His squad also earned a victory over eventual NCAA II Great Lakes Region champion Drury.

The 2005-06 season saw Stein lead the Eagles to a 15-15 overall record, 7-12 in the GLVC, despite losing nearly 70 percent of his team's offensive output and nearly 80 percent of his squad's rebounding output from the previous season.

Stein's squad battled through multiple injuries to post a 14-14 overall record, 7-13 in the GLVC, and qualify for the GLVC Tournament in 2004-05.

In 2003-04, Stein led the Eagles to the program's seventh 20-win season, posting a 20-10 mark and a 12-8 record in the GLVC. His Eagles returned to the NCAA II Tournament for the seventh time in the program's history.

Despite a rough 2002-03 campaign, Stein and his coaching staff brought in a strong recruiting class that set the stage for a return to national competitiveness. In 2003-04, USI had the sixth-best turnaround in Division II, with USI improving by 12 wins from the previous year.

In 2002-03, Stein and the Eagles were forced into a rebuilding year after losing five seniors and more than 60 points and 25 rebounds per game from the 2001-02 squad. With only one returning starter, Stein and his staff had a young team competing for a spot in the GLVC Tournament late in the season and finished the year with an 8-19 overall record.

The 2001-02 season saw Stein's Eagles post a 27-6 overall record, 16-4 GLVC, win a second straight GLVC Championship, and appear in the NCAA II Great Lakes Region Tournament for the second straight season. Stein also led the Eagles into the national spotlight with his squad ranked nationally for 37 consecutive weeks between December 2000 and December 2002.

In just his second season at the helm, Stein led USI to a 28-4 record and the biggest season-to-season turnaround in school history (+13 wins). Stein, who earned GLVC Coach of the Year honors, directed the Eagles to the GLVC Championship, GLVC Tournament Championship, an NCAA II Tournament appearance, and an appearance in the NCAA II Elite Eight for the second time in the program's history.

Stein went 15-12 overall in 1999-00, tying the record for most victories for a rookie head coach and setting the record for best winning percentage for a rookie coach (.556).

A member of the WBCA, Stein is a 1992 USI graduate with a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration. He joined the Eagles' program in 1991-92 as a student assistant under Dugan. He was promoted to head assistant coach in 1994 and promptly helped Dugan and the Eagles to their best season as a varsity sport at USI.

In his eight seasons as an assistant, Stein helped Dugan amass a 159-73 record with four straight NCAA II Tournament appearances (1994-95 to 1997-98) and three GLVC titles. The Eagles were the NCAA II Tournament finalist and produced the first perfect season in GLVC history (20-0) in 1997.

A native of Crete, Illinois, Stein was a two-year starter on USI's men's basketball team from 1989-91. During his tenure as a player, Stein helped USI to an appearance in the NCAA II South Central Region Tournament in 1989-90 and a win over Division I Wisconsin in 1990-91. Before joining USI's team, he played basketball at Parkland College in Champaign, Illinois, and earned an associate degree. Parkland finished as the NJCAA Division II runner-up in 1988 and fourth nationally in 1989.

Stein and his wife Kari have a son, Alex, and a daughter, Mallorie.

In 2001-02, Head Coach Rick Stein led the Screaming Eagles to their second straight Great Lakes Valley Conference Tournament title.

In 19 seasons with the USI women's basketball team, eight as an assistant and 11 as head coach, Stein has been a part of 348 Eagle victories, eight NCAA II Tournament appearances, four regular-season GLVC titles, and a record three GLVC Tournament championships.

Stein has participated in 70.2 percent of USI's all-time victories.

In his second season, Stein was voted the GLVC Coach of the Year after leading USI to a 28-4 record and both the GLVC regular-season and tournament championships.

Stein, who led USI to its second NCAA II Elite Eight appearance in 2000-01, is USI's all-time winningest coach with 189 victories. He also is the third coach in the program's history to eclipse the 100-win plateau.

Randa Dallas, Assistant Coach

Assistant Coach Randa Dallas '99 returns for her 12th season with the Screaming Eagles. Dallas assists in all aspects of the USI women's basketball program. In particular, she works closely with game scouts, recruiting, player assessments, and on-the-court skill work with the guards.

Dallas has been a major part of USI's success throughout the years, both as a player and as a coach. She has been a part of 289 victories, 189 as a coach and 100 as a player. In addition, Dallas has been a part of eight NCAA II Tournament teams, two NCAA II Elite Eight squads, and five GLVC championship teams.

In addition to her coaching duties, Dallas is USI's senior woman administrator and an instructor in physical education. She also is the coordinator for USI's Eagle Math program.

A native of Evansville, Indiana, Dallas started her career at Evansville Central High School. She served as the head coach for the first-ever Central girl's freshman basketball team and was instrumental in its creation.

Dallas graduated from USI in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in social work. She is closing in on her master's degree in social work from USI as well.

During her playing days at USI, Dallas was a member of the 1997 NCAA Division II national finalist team. Her play helped the Eagles to NCAA II Tournament appearances in 1995, 1996, 1997, and 1998, as well as GLVC championships in 1995, 1997, and 1998. She was the team captain in 1997-98.

The Eagles were a dominating 100-16 (.862), including an amazing 67-9 (.881) in the GLVC, during Dallas's four years in an Eagle uniform.

Michelle Irwin-Wagner, Assistant Coach

Michelle Irwin-Wagner enters her fifth season with the USI women's basketball team. She assists in all aspects of the USI women's basketball program. In particular, she works closely with game scouts, recruiting, player assessments, and on-the-court skill work with the post players.

Irwin-Wagner came to USI from Ashland University, where she was a graduate assistant from 2004-06. She helped the Ashland Eagles to an NCAA II Tournament appearance, two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference South Division titles, and two 20-win seasons.

Prior to Ashland, Irwin-Wagner got her coaching start at St. Catharine College during the 2003-04 season. She helped in recruiting, player development, and scouting reports while at SCC.

Irwin played for USI Head Coach Rick Stein from 1999-02 and was part of the Screaming Eagles' back-to-back GLVC Tournament championship teams. USI amassed a 70-22 mark, 43-17 in the GLVC, during Irwin-Wagner's three seasons in a USI uniform. The Eagles also appeared in the NCAA II Tournament twice.

The Louisville, Kentucky, native averaged 5.9 points and 4.6 rebounds per game for the Eagles, including a career-best 7.9 points and 5.5 rebounds during USI's NCAA II Elite Eight run in 2000-01.

Irwin-Wagner, who also teaches in the Physical Education Department at USI, earned a bachelor's degree in marketing with a minor in international business from the University of Louisville in 2004. She graduated with a master's degree in sports sciences from Ashland in December of 2005.

Michelle, her husband Eric, and their dog Layla reside in Evansville.

University of Southern Indiana's Department of Athletics is in the national spotlight for its athletic accomplishments in the NCAA Division II and an Evansville partner in community building.

USI student athletes are among the many volunteers contributing to the success of the Komen Race for the Cure, while the coaching staff is present to help staff the telephones for the MDA Telethon.

In addition to conducting free clinics at the local YMCA and volunteering as tutors at local elementary schools, the women's basketball team also participates in the WBCA's Pink Zone initiative, sponsoring fundraisers to benefit local families affected by breast cancer.

In addition to the national charities, the Department of Athletics sponsors Eagle Math, a nationally recognized program to encourage young students to improve their math skills. The program is designed around the Eagle Math booklets printed in first quarter, second quarter, third quarter, and fourth quarter sequence to carry out the sports theme.

As student athletes practice to get better, math students are encouraged to practice math to excel in the classroom.

Soaring through the years of success

The University of Southern Indiana women's basketball team enters the 2010-11 campaign seeking its ninth NCAA Division II Tournament appearance in 17 seasons. The last 16 seasons have not only produced eight NCAA II Tournament appearances, but have seen the Screaming Eagles make it to the NCAA II Sweet Sixteen three times and to the Elite Eight twice. USI finished as the runner-up in 1997.

In addition to its NCAA II Tournament success, USI also has been one of the top programs in the Great Lakes Valley Conference. The Eagles have won four GLVC regular-season titles since 1995 and have won the GLVC Tournament a record-tying three times. In nine trips to the GLVC Tournament, the Eagles are 10-6.

Note: Since 1994, the Eagles have had five players earn All-America honors.

After beginning the 1996-97 season with a 1-1 record, the Eagles won 29 straight games as well as the GLVC and NCAA II Great Lakes Regional Championship. USI went on to win its first two games in the NCAA II Elite Eight before falling in the national championship game to North Dakota. USI also became the first and only team in GLVC history to go 20-0 in conference play. USI finished the season with a school-record 30-2 mark and finished second in the national rankings.

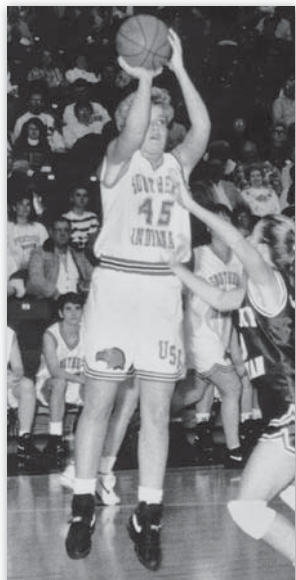

Missing out on the NCAA II Tournament in 1999 and 2000, the Eagles exploded back on to the national stage in 2001. The Eagles finished the 2000-01 season with a 28-4 mark and won a share of the GLVC regular-season title. The Eagles went on to win the GLVC Tournament championship as well as the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional Championship for the second time in school history.

Quick fact: The Eagles have hosted the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional Tournament twice. However, the two times the Eagles have gone to the Elite Eight, they have won the regional tournament in the state of Michigan.

All-American Impact

Kathy Lauck was the first of five USI players to earn All-America honors since 1994. Lauck averaged 20.1 points and 9.2 rebounds per game as a senior and led the Screaming Eagles to their first winning season in eight years. USI finished the season with a 17-10 mark and a 12-6 record in the GLVC. Lauck, who is third all-time at USI in career scoring with 1,573 points, earned GLVC Player of the Year honors in 1994 and was a two-time All-GLVC selection. She was recognized by three publications for All-America honors.

In 1995, LeAnn Freeland became the second player in school history to earn All-America honors. Freeland, USI's all-time leading scorer with 2,269 points, finished her career at USI as a three-time All-American. However, her sophomore campaign in 1994-95 stood out as she became the first player in school history to earn National Player of the Year honors. During the 1994-95 season, Freeland averaged 24.4 points and 9.2 points per game. She finished her career as USI's all-time leader in six statistical categories, including rebounds (961). The two-time GLVC Player of the Year holds 16 school records and was a three-time Academic All-American.

Eileen Weber was recognized by two organizations for All-America honors in 1996-97. She also earned All-America honors for her efforts during the 1997-98 season. In 1996-97, Weber helped lead the Screaming Eagles to a 30-2 record and the NCAA II National Championship game. She started her career at USI by earning GLVC Newcomer of the Year honors and ended it by earning GLVC Player of the Year honors. Weber is second all-time at USI in career points (1,847) and career rebounds (842). She averaged 17.8 points and 8.0 rebounds per game as a senior in 1997-98 and 15.4 points and 6.4 rebounds as a junior in 1996-97.

After a quiet first three seasons, Elizabeth Prewett broke out as a senior during the 2000-01 season. She averaged 15.0 points and 9.2 rebounds per game to lead USI to a 28-4 record and its second trip to the NCAA II Elite Eight. Her efforts landed her first-team All-GLVC and All-Region honors. She also was selected GLVC All-Tournament Team and was named the MVP of the 2001 NCAA II Great Lakes Regional Tournament. Prewett is ranked 14th all-time at USI in career scoring (837) and eighth all-time at USI in career rebounds (589). In 2000, she helped the USI volleyball team to a share of the GLVC regular-season title.

We Pledge...

We have joined institutions across 22 conferences and independents in committing to safe, fun, and entertaining sporting experiences on Division II campuses. We have signed the pledge to create and continue family-friendly experiences for everyone.

DIVISION II GAME ENVIRONMENT PLEDGE

NCAA Division II presidents and chancellors affirm that athletics events should reflect the values of higher education and the mission of each institution. Division II emphasizes learning and development in a personal setting. As chancellors and presidents, we are concerned about the uncivil behavior exhibited at college athletics contests and thereby pledge to work together to make respectful, family-friendly events a standard of the Division II experience.
