UNIVERSITY NOTES. VOL. XI No. 56 October 5, 1977
Editor, Sherri Standley; Assoc. Editor, Debbie Lottes

GO TO COLLEGE NIGHT. Indiana State University Evansville will host the annual Vanderburgh County Go To College Night, Wednesday, October 26 from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m.

Attendees will be from all eight Vanderburgh County high schools, including the five public schools, the two parochial schools, and the day school. Admissions representatives from over 40 institutions of higher education will be on hand to discuss their school with parents, counselors, and students.

According to DR. ROBERT REID, Vice President for Academic Affairs, all classes will be canceled the evening of October 26. Prior arrangements have been made through the Division Chairmen to reschedule these sessions.

For further information concerning the Go To College Night, contact the Admissions Office at extension 1765.

VARIETY PACK SESSION. The third session of the Variety Pack Program, "Relaxation," will be presented October 5 at 2:00 p.m. in UC350. Persons will pick up some pointers on how to control emotions and build self confidence. MR. BOB HARPER, Director of ISUE Counseling Center; MS. PEGGY NUTT, University Nurse; and SISTER SHELIA MARY GRIFFIN, Counselor, Campus Ministries will be offering hints that will allow persons to feel at ease in situations that would normally cause anxiety.

The "Relaxation" program is the third in a series presented by the Student Activities Office, Counseling Center and Campus Ministries through the "Variety Pack." These programs are free to all students and are designed to enhance student development on campus.

Upcoming programs include such topics as Public Relations, October 12; Decision Making, October 19; Time Management, October 26; and Interviews and Resumes on November 2.

COPY CENTER. The copy center in the Administration Building is open Monday through Thursday from 8:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m. Faculty who need to use the small copy machine for extended periods of time may find it more convenient to plan this after 5:00 p.m. when administration offices are closed. This will help eliminate the long lines during the regular hours of operation.
