2. Curricular Committee Petitions (continued)

Mr. Cook was asked why the hours on EET 221 needed to be increased from 3 to 4. He explained that more time was needed to cover the subject properly. Dr. Small moved and Dr. Pohl seconded that the title page be changed as follows: 1) the heading be changed from Petitions for Introduction of New Courses to Petition for Modification of a Course, 2) that points 5,6,&7 be deleted, 3) that point #8 be changed to point #5, and 4) that point #4 be changed to read was instead of will be. The motion carried. Dr. Petranek moved and Dr. Small seconded that EET 221 be approved with these adjustments. The motion carried.

The question was raised, how did EET 221, 4 hours, appear in the Fall 1977 schedule? This will be checked into & reported on at the next Faculty Council Meeting ~~be~~ Mr. Cook.

There was a discussion on valid reasons for accepting or rejecting Curricular Committee petitions.

3. Announcements

Dr. Rivers made a motion that the Faculty Council requests that the Student Academic Affairs Committee determine the necessity of continuing the Student Retention Committee and if it is so decide that the Student Retention Committee become a subcommittee of the Student Academic Affairs Committee. Dr. Petranek seconded. The motion carried.

The chairman encouraged members to submit the topics brought up in discussion for the agenda along with any motions.

Dr. Rivers requested that the name of Mary Schroeder be substituted for that of Eric vonFuhrmann on the Faculty Grievance Committee. The council approved the request.

The meeting was adjourned at 5:15 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Victoria Pohl
