

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT:
Kathy Funke, Director
News & Information Services
812/465-7005
FAX 812/464-1956

USI SCHEDULE

SEPTEMBER 1994

Thursday, September 1

USI Board of Trustees will meet at 1 p.m. in the University Center; committee meetings will follow.

(For information, contact Sherrienne Standley, vice president for University Relations, 812/464-1755.)

Saturday, September 3

Historic New Harmony - a free traditional craft demonstration of open-hearth cooking will be presented from 9 a.m. to 12 noon and 1 to 4 p.m. at the Double Log Cabin by Jean Hadley, a Posey County resident. She also will conduct tours of the cabin.

(For information, contact Historic New Harmony, 812/682-4488.)

Saturday, September 3

MDA benefit - WSWI radio station will sponsor its annual benefit for the Muscular Dystrophy Association, assisted by co-sponsors CAB and Martin Electronics. The program from 8 p.m. to 12 midnight in the UC Dining Room will feature three local bands who have members attending USI - Big Jon 350, Luna Clara, and Kunga Sludge. Admission will be $3 a person, with proceeds going to MDA. WSWI deejays will spin records during breaks.

(For information, call Matt Martin, WSWI music director and benefit chairman, 812/464-1836.)

Monday, September 5 Labor Day - University closed

DR. BLEVINS TO RECEIVE ARTS HONOR

Dr. James R. Blevins, dean of the School of Liberal Arts who has led humanities activities at USI since 1969, has been named recipient of the 1994 Mayor's Arts Award in Evansville, which will be presented at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, September 15 at the Evansville Country Club, in the Arts Council of Southwestern Indiana "Flavor of the Arts" observance.

For information, call the Arts Council, 812/422-2111.

Tuesday, September 6

Fall films - Broken Blossoms and The Rink (music version), 1:30 and 6 p.m., Forum I; free, open to public; for information, call the School of Liberal Arts, 812/464-1735.

Tuesday, September 13

Fall films - It, 1:30 and 6 p.m., Forum I; free, open to public; for information, call the School of Liberal Arts, 812/464-1735.

Wednesday, September 14

OSHA rules videoconference: A videoconference on OSHA Confined Space Regulation Enforcement will be aired at 11:45 a.m. in the Conference Center, co-sponsored by Extended Services and the Evansville Area Safety Council (EASC). OSHA training personnel will be featured and will explain the OSHA definition of a permit-required confined space -- whether defined by location, equipment, or materials. A local panel discussion will follow the videoconference, involving representatives of IOSHA, the Indiana Department of Labor's Bureau of Safety, Education, and Training (BUSET), and EASC. Wilder Allen of Southern Indiana Gas & Electric Co. will moderate the panel; panelists will be Bill Pfister and Bill Miller of BUSET and Joe Green of OH&H Corporation. The registration fee for the four-hour program is $100 ($75 each for three or more registering together).

(For information, call Extended Services, 812/464-1989.)

Wednesday, September 14

Meet the candidates - The USI Student Government Association and the West Side Improvement Association are co-sponsoring a "Meet the Candidates" night at 7 p.m. in the UC Dining Room. The community is invited to meet and hear remarks from candidates for Vanderburgh County offices.

(For information, call Rob Kerny, SGA president, 812/464-1873.)

Thursday, September 15

Senator Dan Coats is expected to visit the USI campus between 1 and 3 p.m. His plane is scheduled to land about 12:30 p.m. and the first USI event probably will be about 1:15 p.m. Plans are being made for a meeting with Dr. H. Ray Hoops, University president; a public reception in the Orr Center lobby; and a lecture in Dr. Walter W. Jermakowicz's class.

(more)

(For information, call Cindy Brinker, assistant vice president for Business Affairs, 812.464-1774.)

Thursday, September 15

Founders Day - The 1994 Founders Day program will be held at 3:30 p.m. in the UC Dining Room, where recognition will be bestowed on six professors who are celebrating 25 years with the University -- Dr. Charles J. Bertram, professor of mathematics and education and compliance coordinator; Dr. Howard E. Dunn, professor of chemistry; Dr. Helen R. Sands, professor of communications; Dr. Robert M. Small, Jr., associate professor of education and educational psychology; Dr. Frank L. Stanonis, professor of geology and geography and chair of the department; and Dr. Michael D. Waitman, associate professor of English. All joined the USI faculty in September 1969 except Dr. Waitman, who began teaching at USI in January 1969.

(For information, call Kathy Funke, News and Information Services director, 812/465-7050.)

Saturday-Sunday, September 17-18

Historic New Harmony - Kunstfest German crafts festival, 9 a.m. Saturday, 12 noon Sunday, community-wide; "Big Whopper" liars contest, 7 p.m. Saturday, Murphy Auditorium

(admission)

(For information, call Historic New Harmony, 812/682-4488.)

Tuesday, September 20

Fall films - Footlight Parade, 1:30 and 6 p.m., Forum I; free, open to public; for information, call the School of Liberal Arts, 812/464-1735.

Thursday, September 22

Labor-Management Forum - The Southern Indiana Labor-Management Education Forum has tentatively scheduled officials from The Quaker Oats Co. of Danville, Illinois. The program will be at 8:30 a.m. in the University Center, if plans work out. Confirmation will be sent when it is available. For information, call Tim Mahoney, forum coordinator, 812/464-1989.

Friday, September 23

This "Coming Together" session for adult students will have a Halloween theme as Dr. Daniel C. Scavone, professor of history, discusses "Vampires and the Historical Dracula." The group will meet at 7 p.m. in the UC Dining Room. Guests are invited, especially children.

(For information, call Ann Cooper, Enrollment Services counselor, 812/464-1765.)

Saturday, September 24

Music Benefit - Local bands are being enlisted for a day of music to benefit single USI students in need of financial assistance for child care. The program now is slated for 12 noon to 5 p.m., but the hours may be expanded to 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.; it will be held in USI's Bent Twig Outdoor Education area. Advance tickets will be $5 for adults, $3, children (age 7-14; age 6 and under free); prices will go up $1 the day of the event. The benefit is co-sponsored by the USI Social Work Club, Strange Puppy Society, and Single Parent Awareness Network (SPAN).

(For information, call Patricia Loehr, University Division advisor, 812/464-1606.)

Sunday, September 25

The 1994 induction ceremony for new members of Pinnacle, the honorary for adult students, will be held at 3 p.m. in the University Center. USI President H. Ray Hoops will be the speaker.

(For information, call Ann Cooper, Enrollment Services counselor, 812/464-1765.)

Tuesday, September 27

Fall films - no film

Wednesday, September 28

The induction ceremony for Pi Sigma Alpha, a new honorary for political science students, will be held at 6 p.m. in the University Center.

(For information, contact Dr. Charles T. Barber, chair of the Philosophy and Political Science Department, 812.464-1726.)

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT:
Kathy Funke, Director
News & Information Services
812/465-7005
FAX 812/464-1956

SEPTEMBER 1994

Fall film series - Films are shown at 1:30 and 6 p.m. Tuesdays in Forum I. They are free and open to the public.

September 6 - Broken Blossoms, The Rink (musical version)

September 13 - It

September 20 - Footlight Parade

September 27 - no film

Music Benefit - Saturday, September 24 - Bent Twig Outdoor Education Area. Local bands are being enlisted for a day of music to benefit single USI students who need financial assistance for child care. The program is slated for 12 noon to 5 p.m., but the hours may be expanded to 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Advance tickets will be $5 for adults, $3 for children (age 7-14; age 6 and under free); prices will go up $1 the day of the event.

The benefit is co-sponsored by the USI Social Work Club, Strange Puppy Society, and Single Parent Awareness Network. For information, call Pati Loehr, USI Counseling Center counselor, 812/464-1867.

Historic New Harmony

New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art - exhibition of collages by Susan Sensemann of the University of Illinois at Chicago continues through September; Ms. Sensemann juxtaposes disparate images such as a Vermeer portrait and a romantic western landscape on a Currier and Ives print of a wild turkey shoot, posing questions about dominance of gender, man, and nature. The Gallery, 506 Main Street, is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday, 1-5 Sunday, closed Monday.

Saturday, September 3 - free open-hearth cooking demonstration, 9 a.m.-12 noon, 1-4 p.m., Double Log Cabin

Saturday, September 17 - "Big Whopper" Liar's Contest, 7 p.m., Murphy Auditorium; admission

Saturday-Sunday, September 17-18 - Kunstfest, communitywide German crafts festival, 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Saturday, 12 noon-5 p.m. Sunday

For information, call 812/682-4488 (Historic New Harmony) or 682-3156 (the Gallery).

Extended Services

Degas at the Dayton Art Institute - A fall trip planned September 16-17-18 by USI Extended Services will be an Indiana/Ohio weekend filled with antiques, art, airplanes, and architecture. The centerpiece will be a Saturday morning visit to the $1.2-million exhibit of sculpture and paintings by the French impressionist, Edgar Degas, on display at the Dayton Art Institute. En route to Dayton, the group will stop for Friday lunch at the Golden Lamb Inn in Lebanon, Ohio, and browse in Lebanon's antique shops. Saturday's agenda also includes the Air Force Museum at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, where everything from Presidential planes to Glenn Miller's trombone are on display. En route home, the travelers will stop in Columbus, Indiana, for a driving tour of buildings designed by noted architects I.M. Pei and Alvar Aalto. The $225 registration fee covers transportation, welcome reception at the Dayton Marriott Courtyard, baggage handling and lodging (double occupancy), Friday lunch, Sunday brunch at the historic Peerless Mill Inn, and all admission fees. Call 812/464-1989 to learn if seats are still available on the bus.

Children's Programs

Discipline for Parents (of toddlers to age 10) - 6:45-8:45 p.m. Wednesdays, September 21-October 12, Nativity Church on Pollock Avenue; registration fee, $38 (for two together, $68)

Peer Mediation - training for those who work with school-age children; six Thursdays, September 22 to December 1, USI; registration fee, $80

National Teacher Exams test preparation course - 2-5 p.m., four Fridays starting September 23, USI

Call 812/464-1989 for information.

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT:
Kathy Funke, Director
News & Information Services
812/465-7005
FAX 812/464-1956

USI Schedule -- ADD

Monday, September 26

Highway ribbon cutting: The Vanderburgh County Commissioners plan a ribbon-cutting ceremony at 12 noon to open the Highway 62 overpass/entrance to the campus. University officials also will participate. The new bridge and three of the ramps are expected to open that afternoon. The next morning, the temporary campus entrance just west of the bridge will be closed to allow work to be completed on the fourth ramp, which will become the primary campus access for eastbound traffic. The work is expected to take four weeks. After the ribbon-cutting, all westbound traffic entering the campus and all traffic leaving the campus will be able to use the new interchange.

(For information, contact Robert L. Mills, project supervisor, 812/465-7126.)

Saturday, October 1

Language conference/storytelling - The Learning Edge III conference on innovative approaches to using language and literature in the K-8 classrooms, sponsored by USI Extended Services, will be held in conjunction with a "Tellin' Tales" storytelling festival at USI sponsored by the Arts Council of Southwest Indiana. The Learning Edge conference begins at 8 a.m. in the Wright Administration Building; the storytelling lineup -- all open to the public -- includes Bob Payne, guitarist, 12:45 p.m.; Kathy Culmer, 1 p.m.; Lola Teubert, 1:25 p.m.; Bobby Norfolk at 1:45 p.m.; Mike and Paula Boegnik, 2:45 p.m.; Linda Bruns, 3:05 p.m.; and Janice Tenbarger, 3:30 p.m. Ghost stories will be featured at the 7 p.m. session. Norfolk, a performer, writer, director in children's television, and a contributing author to the recently published Writer's Choice, will headline "Tellin' Tales" and also will conduct a late-morning storytelling workshop for the Learning Edge conference. The Learning Edge conference registration fee prior to September 26 is $30, after that date $34; full-time students may register for $20 before September 26 and $34 after that date. "Tellin' Tales" sessions fees are $10 all day; $5 morning workshop; $3 for afternoon performances; $3 adults, $1 children 12 and under, for evening ghost stories.

(For information, call USI Extended Services, 812/464-1989, or the Arts Council, 812/422-2111.)

USI Schedule - postpone/cancel

Thursday, September 22

The program planned by the Southern Indiana Labor-Management Education Forum has been postponed, probably until 1995. Tim Mahoney, forum coordinator, said the company to be featured, Quaker Oats of Danville, Illinois, has a hectic fall production schedule and was unable to confirm the date.

Saturday, September 24

The music benefit slated by several campus groups to help students in need of child-care assistance has been canceled.