USI schedule

January 1-31, 1996

Monday, January 1

New Year's Day — University closed

Tuesday, January 2

Spring meeting — The USI spring meeting for fulltime faculty and administrative staff has been abbreviated in favor of a series of 45- and 90-minute information workshops open to everyone at the University — fulltime and adjunct faculty members and administrative and clerical/support staff. The Spring Meeting for fulltime faculty and administrative staff will begin with coffee and rolls from 8:30 to 9 a.m. Tuesday, January 2, in Mitchell Auditorium, followed by a 75-minute session for the report from President H. Ray Hoops, introductions, and announcements. The morning sessions for all staff members will begin at 10:30; afternoon sessions for all staff members — some repeats of the morning — will begin at 1:15. More than 500 individual slots are filled in 46 information sessions on a variety of topics.

(For information, contact Cynthia S. Goodwin, instructor in nursing, 812/465-1167, or Linda L. Cleek, associate director of Extended Services, 464-1989, co-chairs of the information sessions.)
