

SILVER ANNIVERSARY TO BE UNIVERSITY-WIDE OBSERVANCE

USI's Silver Anniversary observance September 10-15 will be a University-wide celebration, as students, faculty and staff, and alumni participate in events celebrating the first 25 years.

The major event will be the Silver Anniversary Gala dinner at 8 p.m. Saturday, September 25, in the Indiana Room at Robert E. Greene Convention Center. The keynote speaker will be Mr. Charles McDowell, newspaper columnist and public television panelist dealing with politics and presidential campaigns. His presentation is described as reminiscent of Will Rogers.

Tickets for the dinner are $50 per person, which includes $25 earmarked for the University's Presidential Scholarship program for Indiana valedictorians and salutatorians; corporations also may reserve a table for eight for $1,000. Scholarship recipients will be among Gala celebrities.

Mr. McDowell's schedule also includes a luncheon with USI students, deans, and faculty chairs at 12 noon Saturday, and an appearance on Channel 9, which carries the Washington Week in Review program on which he is a frequent panelist.

Other 25th Anniversary observances will include a "Professional-in-Residence" series in which USI alumni will return to campus to discuss their careers and successes with current students, and several special events planned by student organizations. The series will include:

Friday, September 7 -- Dr. Joey V. Barnett, Class of '81 (biology) and a faculty member at Harvard Medical School's Brigham and Women's Hospital, will meet with School of Science and Engineering Technology students at 1 p.m. in Forum III. He currently is working in the Division of Genetics at Harvard's Howard Hughes Medical Institute, learning molecular biology techniques to answer questions on cell communication and response. He investigates how heart cells in a developing chick embryo respond to environmental cues which cause the cells to migrate to their proper location.

Monday, September 10 -- Ms. Catherine Wheeler Jensen, Class of '78 (dental hygiene), will meet with School of Nursing and Health Professions students at 8 a.m. in UC350-352. She is an associate professor and coordinator of dental hygiene programs at Southern Illinois University's School of Technical Careers, Carbondale, where she was chosen 1988 Outstanding Teacher of the Year. She currently is working on her doctorate at SIU.

Monday, September 10 -- Mr. William F. Fisher, Class of '73 (management), will meet with School of Business students at 10 a.m. in UC350-352. He is senior vice-president of Applied Communications, Inc., Omaha, Nebraska, and recently represented ACI in accepting the "E Star" award presented by President George Bush to companies with superior performance in export promotion. ACI develops computer software for electronic banking systems, with up to 50 percent of its sales occurring overseas.

Wednesday, September 12 -- Mr. Errol Gene Theriac, Class of '72 (elementary education), will meet with School of Education and Human Services students at 8:30 a.m. in UC350-352. He is principal of West Terrace School in Evansville; president of Vanderburgh County Elementary School Principals Association; past president of the Evansville Area Reading Council and Public Library Friends; a Leadership Evansville graduate; and a member of Phi Delta Kappa.

Mr. Theriac's presentation will be followed by a panel presentation at 11 a.m. in UC350-352, featuring three social work alumni: Ms. Brenda Jones, Class of '88 and director of the Owensboro (Kentucky) Spouse Abuse Center; Ms. Barbara Wedding, Class of '89 and coordinator of Patient and Family Services, Evansville Cancer Center; and Ms. Luzada Hayes, Class of '90 and a graduate student.

The Activities Programming Board is spearheading the student observance, opening the week's activities by giving away Silver Anniversary cake from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Monday, September 10, in the Eagle's Nest.

Other events will include entertainment by SIBECO, a jazz band, at 12 noon Wednesday, September 12, on the UC

SPECIAL EMPLOYEE TICKET PRICES

Invitations have been mailed for USI's gala 25th Anniversary celebration Saturday, September 15. Employees who wish to attend have the option of purchasing two tickets at a reduced price of $25 each. The regular price of $50 per ticket includes $25 earmarked for the Presidential Scholarship program. It is hoped that as many employees as possible will attend the celebration.

Mall (Eagle's Nest if it rains), and the movie, The Big Chill, at 9 p.m. Wednesday in Forum I; Mr. Barry Drake, lecturer, speaking at 8 p.m. Thursday, September 13, in the UC Dining Room on "'60s Rock -- When the Music Mattered"; and a '60s-type sock hop from 8 p.m. to 12 midnight Friday, September 14, on the UC Mall (UC Dining Room if it rains). Mr. Drake will present a multi-media retrospective on the '60s -- the music, Woodstock, and political issues.

GERMAN REUNIFICATION LECTURE

Dr. Armin Bohnet, West German economics and finance professor at Justus-Liebig University GieBen, will discuss "German Reunification -- Hopes and Problems" in a public lecture at 7 p.m. Wednesday, August 29, in UC350. He will be the first speaker in the Silver Anniversary International Speakers series being offered this year at USI.

Dr. Bohnet is a member of the advisory group to West German Chancellor Helmut Kohl and has made exploring and consulting trips to the U.S., China, Japan, Chile, Colombia, and Venezuela. He will give a first-hand look at East German problems, discussing economic, monetary, and social reform and the transformation problems regarding competitiveness, privatization of state-owned companies, environmental destruction, and housing. He also will discuss repercussions on the West German economy and the impact of external relations of the two German states.

INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES. "Investment Opportunities in China, Korea, and the Far East" will be the topic of a seminar at 1 p.m. Thursday, August 30, in UC350, opening a fall program at USI on International Business Opportunity. The seminar is co-sponsored by the Metropolitan Evansville Chamber of Commerce, Tri-State World Trade Council, and the USI Office of Continuing Education. The featured speakers will be Dr. Armin Bohnet, an expert in public finance and theory of economic orders, with a specialty in strategies for economic reform in socialist countries, particularly China and East Germany, and Dr. Sang T. Choe, USI associate professor of marketing who has been certified since 1970 as a foreign trade specialist by the Republic of Korea Ministry of Commerce and Industry. Friday, August 24, is the deadline to register for the seminar. Call the USI Office of Continuing Education, extension 1989, for information or to register.

NAMES IN THE NEWS. Mr. Larry D. Johnson, Media Services coordinator, co-chaired a Summer Leadership Conference for the Association for Educational Communications and Technology, held August 2-5 in Kansas City, Missouri.

Dr. Guillermo Latorre, assistant professor of Spanish, made a presentation May 16 at the Tenth Cincinnati Conference on Romance Languages and Literature on the acquisition of Spanish gender by college students. Another paper, "Semantically Transparent Surnames in Spanish," appeared in the Romance Language Annual 1989 (Vol. I, pp. 505-510). The journal, Hispania, will publish Dr. Latorre's letter advocating more frequent use of Spanish in Hispanic studies in the U.S. in its September 1990 issue. He also read a paper on the syntax of Spanish unipersonal constructions at the 72nd annual meeting of the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese, held August 10-14 in Miami.

Dr. Joseph J. Palladino, chair of the Psychology Department and president-elect of Division II, American Psychological Association, has received APA's 1990 Teaching Excellence Award, presented for "his commitment to teaching, his development of regional conferences for teachers of psychology, his contributions to the literature on teaching, and his encouragement of colleagues to develop and disseminate teaching methods and techniques." Dr. Palladino was nominated for the award by Dr. Bill Hill, chair of the Psychology Department at Kennesaw State College, who has attended nearly all the psychology conferences organized by Dr. Palladino at USI the past seven years. Dr. Hill said the conferences are exceptional and are used as models elsewhere. He also noted that Dr. Palladino holds the rare distinction of receiving the APA award the first year he was nominated.

WELCOME. Nine new employees have joined the University staff, including:

Mrs. Julie St. Clair, instructor in nursing -- she has a B.S. from Western Kentucky University and an M.S. from the University of Evansville, and formerly was director of the Nursing Division, Evansville-Vanderburgh Health Department.

Ms. Elizabeth "Libby" Wetzell Currier, coordinator for Corporate Giving, Development Office -- she received an A.A. from Stephens College and B.S. from Indiana University and previously was public relations manager for WFYI-TV and FM 90, public television and radio in Indianapolis.
