PREREGISTRATION SCHEDULE. New students for the fall semester will be able to preregister during the week of June 1-5 in a program designed to help them reserve places in the classes of their choice and pay fees later, when billed. Placement testing in writing, reading, foreign language, and mathematics will be held at 8:15 a.m. Monday through Thursday, June 1-4. Testing is mandatory for all beginning freshmen who plan to pursue a degree, either full-time or part-time, and optional for transfer and non-degree-seeking students.

THANK YOU NOTES. Professors emerita Dr. Dona Frost and Dr. Wanda Hibbitts have sent notes of appreciation for the retirement reception held April 30. Dr. Frost said it "was delightful and will be a memorable occasion for me. Also, I enjoyed the opportunity to again visit with the faculty and staff. Thank you all so much for this lovely event and for the beautiful casserole. Each time I use it there will be an ever present reminder of USI and each of you." Dr. Hibbitts said, "I want to thank you for the reception and the beautiful gift; it is something that I will always treasure... However, I treasure, too, my association with all of you. You have made me feel that I had an impact on the University and the students, and I think that nothing in life could be more rewarding than this."

NOTICE FROM MEDIA SERVICES. All requests for equipment needed through Friday, June 5, must be placed with the Media Services Department by this Friday, May 22. This request is made necessary as we enter the final stages of inventory. Your cooperation in this matter will be greatly appreciated.

MUSICAL MELODRAMA OPENS NEW HARMONY SEASON. "Dirty Work at the Crossroads," a musical melodrama, will open the 1987 season for New Harmony Theatre. Designed for audience participation, "Dirty Work" allows theatre goers to hiss the villain, applaud the heroine, and sing along with the cast. The production will be presented at 8 p.m. Thursday-Saturday, and 2 p.m. Sunday in Thrall's Opera House, opening June 4 and continuing through July 11. Season ticket sales ended April 1. Tickets now are $7 for adults, $6 for students, and $4 for children age 10 and under; group rates are available for parties of 20 or more.

Other productions this season will include "Gin Game," July 16-August 16, and "Greater Tuna," August 20-September 26, both at Thrall's, and the musical, "Oklahoma," October 1-24 in Murphy Auditorium.

From the Congressional Calendar observing U.S. Constitution Bicentennial: This week in history, 1787 -- George Reed wrote that small states would defend their rights at the Constitutional Convention; North Carolina delegates arrived at the Convention; James Monroe wrote James Madison that "we all look with great anxiety to the result of the Convention;" William Grayson wrote to James Madison that specific factions were emerging; Maryland chose Convention delegates; George Mason supported secrecy in Convention proceedings; the Constitutional Convention officially convened on May 25 at Philadelphia.

"Our system of Government made up of three separate and independent departments, our divided sovereignty composed of Nation and State, the matchless wisdom that is enshrined in our Constitution, all these need constant effort and tireless vigilance for their protection and support." -- Calvin Coolidge.
