STAFF MEMBERS PLANNING RETIREMENT DURING 1982. Any member of the faculty or staff planning to retire during the calendar year 1982 should notify Cynthia Newhouse, Personnel Director.

She will be able to help you plan for retirement and advise as to retirement benefits that are available.

Copies of the Indiana State University Evansville Retirement Policy and the Early Retirement Policy are available in the Personnel Office, AD101. Now is not too soon to start thinking about what is available during retirement years.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS. Robert E. Mays, director of student teaching and early field experiences, and Charles J. Bertram, chairman of the division of education, recently had their article "The Gifted and Talented: Implications for Teaching" selected by the University of Evansville Press as part of a collection of readings entitled Gifted Students and Gifted Teaching. The book will have national distribution.

One of ISUE's first employees has retired. George E. Russell, a stationary engineer at the Power Plant, retired as of Friday, January 30, 1981. George has planned to take life easy, with a trip to Hawaii in February and lots of fishing in the summer months. George will be missed very much by all of his co-workers. We all wish him the best on his retirement. George has served 10 years, 8 months, and 20 days (or 22,240 hours +).

NEW FACES. Melvin Duerson has accepted a position as grounds maintenance worker with ISUE. He is a '64 graduate of Reitz High School, and he received his B.F.A. in 1971 from the Maryland Institute of Art. He worked as an arts and crafts specialist before joining the staff of ISUE. He enjoys all sports -- but particularly football-- and sculpture.

Larry Leveron has accepted a job as security officer with the Physical Plant. He graduated in 1973 from Princeton Community High School and is currently attending ISUE. Before joining the ISUE staff, Larry was a criminal investigator with the U.S. Army at Ft. Campbell, Kentucky. He and his wife Connie live in Evansville. Larry enjoys running, karate, and swimming.

SPORTS THIS WEEK. The women's basketball team will play two games during the next week. Friday, February 6, they will play DePauw at 8:00 p.m. in the HPER Building. Tuesday, February 10, they will play at Hanover, at 7:00 p.m.

The men's basketball team will play Saturday, February 6, at 7:30 p.m. at Indiana Central and Monday, February 9, at St. Joseph's at 7:30 p.m.

CAFETERIA MENU. The Cafeteria will be open from 11:00 a.m. - 1:30 p.m. daily and features a soup and salad bar. The Sunday Buffet is open from 11:00 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.
