Seasonal events at USI

- Wednesday, December 3

The Foreign Language Department at the University of Southern Indiana will hold a Christmas caroling event at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday, December 3 in Forum I of the Wright Administration Building. Carols will be sung in French, German, Japanese, and Spanish. Foreign language students and faculty members are organizing the event.

- Sunday, December 7

The USI Student Alumni Association will sponsor the eighth annual Lighting a Tradition tree ceremony at 4 p.m. Sunday, December 7 in the Orr Center lobby on campus. The USI Madrigal Singers will perform and Santa will welcome the children. The public is invited. Admission is one canned good or non-perishable food item to be donated to Archibald Eagle's Food Closet.
