VOL. XXXIII, No. 30 - August 20, 1999

Free professional photo opportunity

At the beginning of the academic year, the Office of News and Information Services invites faculty and administrative staff to sit for a professional photo free of charge. Ms. Elizabeth Courtney Randolph, photographer, will be available to take photos following the faculty and administrative staff luncheon on Monday, August 23, until 4 p.m. and from 8 a.m. to noon and from 1:30 p.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday, August 24, Thursday, August 26, and Friday, August 27, in the photography studio located in the Publishing Services Center.

Photos taken for Eagle Access Cards are not for News and Information Services files.

New faculty are encouraged to sit for a photo, while returning faculty and administrative staff may have their photos updated. The color photos will be added to the News and Information Services photo library and used for University promotions and announcements, the USI online site, and brochures. Individuals may order copies for personal use at a nominal fee.

The Publishing Services Center is located on Clarke Lane across from the Physical Plant. Parking is available in parking lot G west of the Science Center and accessible from Clarke Lane.

Names in the news

USI President H. Ray Hoops has appointed Dr. Jackson Marr, chairman of the biology department, to faculty athletic representative (FAR) to the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) and the Great Lakes Valley Conference (GLVC). Dr. Marr, the first USI men's tennis coach from 1972 to 1995, replaces Dr. Charles Bertram, who died in June. The FAR is a member of an institution's faculty or administrative staff designated by the institution's chief executive officer to represent the university and its faculty in the NCAA and the GLVC. Dr. Marr also will be chair of the Athletic Advisory Council at USI.

Head softball coach Ms. Beth Watson has accepted the duty of senior women's administrator (SWA) in the Athletic Department. Ms. Watson assumes duties held by Ms. Chancellor Dugan. As SWA, Ms. Watson will represent USI to the Great Lakes Valley Conference and serve as advisor to the Student Athlete Advisory Council, an NCAA-mandated organization. She also will coordinate Eagle Math, a program for local second and third graders to master math skills. The young students receive encouragement from USI student athletes.

Welcome:

Ms. Roberta Brandt has accepted the position of custodial worker. She was a hairdresser for 25 years. Ms. Brandt attended West Side Beauty College. Ms. Brandt resides in Evansville with husband Terry.

The University community welcomes Mr. Boyd Winternheimer as ground maintenance worker. He farms and was employed by Citgo. Mr. Winternheimer resides in Wadesville and has one daughter, Melissa.

In sympathy:

The University community extends sympathy to Ms. Emily Whitehead, account clerk, in the death of her father Mr. Julio Esperza on Thursday, August 12.

FY*I*Baseball tryouts:

USI baseball tryouts will be held on Tuesday, August 31, at the baseball field. All full-time USI students are eligible. Interested individuals should bring a bat, mitt, and spikes. Registration begins at 2:45 p.m. with tryouts beginning at 3 p.m.

TIAA-CREF consultations:

Mr. Chris Day, individual consultant from TIAA-CREF, will be available for 30-minute private appointments from 8:30 a.m. to noon and from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. on Tuesday, August 24, in the Human Resources Conference Room, FWA 166. He will answer any questions pertaining to the TIAA-CREF retirement plan. Call Ms. Marsha Griesse, benefits clerk, at 464-1781 for an appointment.

Race for the Cure:

USI is organizing a team for the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure, to be held Saturday morning, September 25. This event raises money for breast cancer research, education, and screening and treatment projects for the medically under-served. Entry forms may be obtained in the Advancement Office. Interested persons should return the forms and a $16 registration fee to the Advancement Office by August 24. All USI team entry forms must be turned in together. If you don't want to walk, but want to help, you can be a Phantom Walker.

Each USI participant will receive a USI Race for the Cure t-shirt. For more information, call Ms. Sherrianne Standley, vice president for Advancement, at 464-1902 or Ms. Suzanne Nicholson, director of University Development, at 464-1918.
