INDIANA STATE UNIVERSITY EVANSVILLE, EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER
SHERRIANNE STANDLEY, EDITOR NANCY ALLEN, ASSOCIATE EDITOR

Volume XVII, Number 43
June 22, 1983

1983 FREEDOM FESTIVAL. "The Year of the Gold" is the slogan for the 13th Annual Freedom Festival. Destined to be the largest Freedom Festival ever - 55 events stretching over 16 days- it begins with the lighting of the festival torch on Saturday, June 25 and culminates with "Thunder on the Ohio" hydroplane races on Sunday, July 10.

ISUE will host and participate in several of the festival events. Riding in the University's 1965 Cadillac convertible, ISUE's Cheerleaders will be a special unit in the Saturday morning parade. The festival will bring Cannons and Muskets to the campus during the historic reenactment of the Battle of Bull Run Sunday, July 3. Other events on the campus are an antebellum wedding, military ball, tobacco spitting contest, washer toss competition, and a relic hunt.

The Evansville Freedom Festival is a community event planned and produced by the nonprofit Freedom Festival Foundation, Inc. Joan Jost, administrative secretary for the vice-president for administration, is a member of the Foundation's Board of Directors.

For those interested in attending "Thunder on the Ohio" or other Freedom Festival events, buttons are on sale for $5.00 in Dr. Donald Bennett's Office.

TELEPHONE DIRECTORY UPDATES FOR THE 1983-84 YEAR. All faculty, staff and administrators should check the information in the current directory for inaccuracies. Any changes in titles, room numbers, phone numbers, and addresses should be reported as soon as possible to Nancy Allen at extension 1755. The Personnel Office should also be notified of any of these changes by calling extension 1770.

CONGRATULATIONS. Congratulations to Don C. Dailey, biology laboratory supervisor at ISUE, and Terry Lynn Simmons who were married Saturday, June 11. The couple will move to Indianapolis in August, where Don will attend Indiana University Medical School's graduate program.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS. Jay Fredrich, chairman of the Engineering Technology Division, was elected national chairman of the Water Resources Management Group of the American Society of Civil Engineers at its meeting in South Lake Tahoe last month. He will also serve as a member of the Society's Technical Activities Committee which manages two national conventions and fifteen national speciality conferences annually for the 85,000 members of the Society.

NEW FACES. John A. Warren has accepted a position as custodial worker. John is a Reitz High School graduate. He enjoys outdoor sports and driving.
