Wednesday, June 5; Thursday, June 6, and Friday, June 7
University Conference Center at University of Southern Indiana
A day camp for students in grades 7 to 9

Students are studying the play A Midsummer Night's Dream by William Shakespeare and what various elements go into staging a production.

In addition to the play, students will be introduced to stage makeup techniques, choreography and costumes, and rehearsals.

Students meet from 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. and 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. each day.

Robert York, an instructor in English, and other USI faculty members are leading the day camp, which is part of the USI summer enrichment program offered by USI Extended Services.

Sunday, June 9
USI Alumni Picnic
Between the University Center and Rice Library

USI alumni and their families will enjoy food, children's games, clowns, petting zoo, and friendship.
4 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Questions about the day camp or the USI Alumni picnic can be directed to Kathy Funke, News and Information Services director, at 465-7050 or kfunke@usi.edu.
