...a modern, technology-enhanced ENVIRONMENT

USI is a vibrant campus with modern facilities and an exciting pace of growth. Since the first campus building (Wright Administration Building) opened in 1969, the face of the campus has continued to change, providing the most up-to-date facilities for academics, housing, and student life. Facility development at USI keeps students and faculty equipped with the resources they need, including the best in advanced teaching and learning technology for classrooms and laboratories.

Computer Services

Computer labs are located throughout campus and in the housing areas. Wireless service is available in all main buildings and the surrounding courtyards.

All residence life areas are equipped with network jacks for Internet access. Wireless network also is available throughout the housing areas.

Eagle Access Card

Students use the Eagle Access Card as an identification card and as an all-in-one card for student services such as library privileges, meal plans, vending and copy machines, and access to the Recreation and Fitness Center.

MyUSI

MyUSI is a portal to Web services. Students check e-mail, register online, view their grades, and access other services through this secure Web site.

ADMINISTRATION

Jon Mark Hall, Director of Athletics

Jon Mark Hall was appointed to the position of director of Athletics in January 2002, after spending seven years as the assistant director of Athletics. He is USI's second director of Athletics.

Under his direction, USI was the 2003-04 GLVC All-Sports and Commissioner's Cup winner and host of the 2004 NCAA Division II Cross Country National Championships.

In addition to his duties as director of Athletics, Hall also is the chair of the NCAA Division II men's and women's tennis committee. He has served on the Great Lakes Valley Conference Executive Committee and the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional women's basketball committee.

Hall joined the USI Athletic Department in 1995 as an assistant athletic director and men's tennis coach.

As the men's tennis coach, no one did it better in the GLVC than Hall. He was named the GLVC Coach of the Year five times, directed the Screaming Eagles to four GLVC regular-season titles and GLVC Tournament crowns, and had a 123-47 record (.724).

During his final season as head coach, Hall led the Eagles to their third straight appearance in the NCAA II Tournament and their first victory in the post-season. In 2000 and 2001, Hall put the Eagles on the national map with their first two invitations to the NCAA II Tournament in the 27-year history of the program.

Hall came to USI after his tenure at the University of South Carolina-Spartanburg as an assistant athletic director, where he was the NCAA compliance coordinator, oversaw the academic support service program for student athletes, and coordinated the Athletes Can Educate (ACE) program. He also assisted in fundraising and promotion activities.

The native of Murray, Kentucky, is a 1990 cum laude graduate of Murray State University, with a bachelor's degree in business administration. While at MSU, Hall was on the tennis team for two seasons, earning Academic All-Ohio Valley Conference honors in 1987. Hall received his master's degree in sports administration from Ohio State University in 1992.

In 1998-99, he completed the Sports Management Institute Executive Program at the University of South Carolina and the University of Notre Dame.

Hall and his wife Patti reside in Evansville and have four sons, Nathan, Garland, Ty, and Owen, and daughter, Mary Claire.

ABOUT USIwomen's basketball*Location

Founded in 1965, the University of Southern Indiana is located in Evansville, the state's third-largest city. From its picturesque site on the Ohio River, Evansville is a comfortable drive from the major metropolitan areas of Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Louisville, Nashville, and St. Louis.

Academic Life

The University enrolls 9,939 students and offers undergraduate majors in 70 areas of study. Graduate degree programs also are available.

Campus Life

Beyond the classroom, students have opportunities to participate in more than 90 organizations offering co-curricular and extra-curricular activities. Special interest clubs, student government, sororities and fraternities, music and drama groups, and other organizations enable the students to enjoy and contribute to campus life.

Science and Education Center

*Recreation and Fitness
Center*

Residence Life

USI offers two kinds of housing. One is the conventional apartment and the other is suite-style housing in a residence hall. Computer labs, laundromats, a convenience store, outdoor recreational areas, and student lounges contribute to an efficient living environment that has proven overwhelmingly popular with students. A meal plan is available in the University Center. More than 3,000 students live on campus.

Financial Assistance

USI is an affordable higher-education institution and some families find that they can handle the cost of a USI education without financial aid. Many others qualify for need-based financial aid packages, including grants, loans, and jobs.

ABOUT EVANSVILLE

EVANSVILLE, Indiana

...A CITY with urban attractions and hometown friendliness

Situated on the banks of the Ohio River, Evansville is a mid-sized city that welcomes USI students and offers them plenty of things to do. Roberts Stadium and the Victory Theatre attract students to concerts by entertainers like Nelly, Aerosmith, Kenny Chesney, Kid Rock, and Josh Groban. Traveling Broadway shows and feature performances come to The Centre. For a relaxing walk or invigorating run, the downtown riverfront features a greenway with a wonderful view of the changing river traffic and the Evansville skyline. Movie theatres (including an IMAX) and Swonder Ice Arena draw students together for fun, activity, and fellowship. Evansville's coffee shops, restaurants, and shopping areas also are places where students like to spend time. Less than three miles from campus, shopping centers and places to eat are plentiful on both sides of the Lloyd Expressway. The Eastland Mall area on Green River Road and the commercial centers off Burkhardt Road offer more restaurants and terrific shopping. USI's suburban location in the rolling hills of western Vanderburgh County is just minutes away from all that Evansville has to offer.

Excitement looms as Eagles head into 2007-08

Excitement looms for the University of Southern Indiana women's basketball team in 2007-08.

That is because ninth-year Head Coach Rick Stein has the opportunity to mold eight talented newcomers with four returning players into a team that has expectations of winning a conference title and advancing to the NCAA II Tournament.

Nine players, including four starters, are gone from a squad that was 16-12, 10-9 in the GLVC, in 2006-07. However, the presence of All-GLVC senior forward Jasmine Baines and the versatility of senior guard Marshay Jolly help bolster a roster that includes five juniors, one sophomore, and four freshmen.

Baines was third on the team and 22nd in the GLVC with 11.8 points per game (ppg) as a junior last season. She was fifth in the conference with a team-high 14.0 ppg as a sophomore in 2005-06.

Jolly has averaged 3.1 points and 1.6 rebounds in three seasons wearing the Screaming Eagle uniform. She averaged 3.2 points and 1.6 rebounds as a junior a year ago.

Stein is counting on junior forward/centers Brittany Neuman and Jessica Grimaldo to lead the Eagles in the paint.

Neuman ended the 2006-07 season on a high note when she recorded a career-high 11 points and nine rebounds in USI's first round loss to number-one seeded Lewis University in the GLVC Tournament. She played in all 28 games as a sophomore, averaging 2.7 points and 3.5 rebounds per outing.

Stein is hoping Grimaldo can return to the form she showed during the 2004-05 season, before a knee injury ended her season prematurely. Grimaldo, who averaged 14.6 points and 5.0 rebounds in five games before the injury in 2004-05, has had a solid off-season workout program and looks confident heading into this year.

If the Eagles are to be successful in 2007-08, they need their newcomers to step up and have big years.

Stein strengthened the front court with the additions of junior forward/center Ninette Evans and freshmen forward/centers Courtney Perry and Leigha Thompson.

Evans transferred from North Shoals Community College where she averaged 5.4 points and 5.3 rebounds in two seasons. She shot 62.2 percent from the field and averaged 5.6 points per game, while pulling down 5.6 rebounds per contest as a sophomore in 2006-07.

Perry, who averaged 8.2 points and 8.9 rebounds per game as a senior at Crown Point High School, was named All-Area honorable mention by the Post Tribune in 2005-06 and pre-season All-Area by the Northwest Indiana Times as a senior in 2006-07.

Thompson, who was coached by her mother, Laurie, at Teutopolis High School, garnered third-team All-State honors from the Illinois Basketball Coaches' Association before playing in the IBCA All-Star game. She averaged 9.1 points and 6.5 rebounds per game while leading THS to a 27-6 record as a senior in 2006-07.

Stein also bolstered the back court with the addition of junior guards Brittany Darden and Carly Clendenen, sophomore guard VaNita Smart, and freshmen guards Amie Newhart and Lauren Meneghetti.

Darden transferred from St. Catharine College where she earned NJCAA Division I All-Region VII honors after averaging nearly 13 points, five rebounds, and three steals per game as a sophomore in 2006-07. She led SCC to a 23-4 record and was named to the Western Division All-Conference team.

Brittany Neuman (left), Jasmine Baines (middle), and Jessica Grimaldo (right) provide the Screaming Eagles a powerful presence in the paint in 2007-08. Baines, one of two seniors on this year's squad, has averaged nearly 13 points per game in a USI uniform.

Clendenen averaged 11.9 points and shot 45.6 percent from the field as a sophomore at Rend Lake College. She connected on 91 three-pointers to help RLC to a 24-6 record in 2006-07.

Smart spent her freshman campaign at Indiana University where she saw action in 23 games during the 2006-07 season. Prior to attending IU, Smart was a two-time first-team All-Conference and All-Metro performer at Bosse High School. She owns a spot on BHS's 1,000-point club after leading the team in scoring for four straight seasons.

Newhart graduated from Clinton Prairie High School where she finished 12th in the state of Indiana in scoring as a senior in 2006-07. She averaged 21.8 points, 6.5 rebounds, 2.8 assists, and 3.7 steals per game, while shooting 51.5 percent from the field as a senior. She was invited to Hoosier Basketball Magazine's 2007 Top 40 Senior Workout.

Like Newhart, Meneghetti was invited to the Hoosier Basketball Magazine's 2007

Top 40 Senior Workout after averaging 18.9 points, 6.2 rebounds, 3.4 assists, and 4.5 steals per outing as a senior at Munster High School. Meneghetti, who finished her career as MHS's all-time leader in assists and its second-leading scorer, was named first-team All-Area as a junior and senior and was a three-time All-Conference performer.

The Eagles open the exhibition season November 1 with a trip to South Bend, Indiana, and the University of Notre Dame. They open the regular season with three straight home games, starting November 17 when they host the University of Illinois-Springfield.

USI opens its GLVC schedule December 1 when it visits rival Kentucky Wesleyan College. Following a pair of home games, USI travels out of the country to play a pair of games at the Bahamas Sunshine Shoot-out in Nassau, Bahamas, December 19-20.

Following a non-conference showdown with Saginaw Valley State University December 28 at the Physical Activities Center, the Eagles get into the meat of their GLVC slate when they visit the University of Missouri-St. Louis January 3 and Missouri University Science & Technology (formerly Missouri-Rolla) on January 5.

USI plays its first GLVC home game January 10 when it hosts the University of Wisconsin-Parkside. It hosts the University of Indianapolis, which is under the direction of former USI assistant coach and All-American LeAnn Freeland, for homecoming February 9.

The Indianapolis game is the second contest of a four-game homestand for the Eagles, the longest such stretch of the season. USI's Senior Day is March 1 when the Eagles host Missouri-St. Louis in their regular-season finale.

GLVC Tournament play begins March 6, while the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional Tournament is March 14-17. The NCAA II Elite Eight is March 26-29 in Kearney, Nebraska.

USI Head Coach Rick Stein

Rick Stein '92 needs just 17 wins to become the University of Southern Indiana women's basketball program's all-time leader in victories as he enters his ninth season at the helm of the Screaming Eagles.

Stein, in 16 seasons as an assistant coach and head coach for USI women's basketball, has had a hand in 302 of the program's 450 victories (67.1 percent of USI's all-time wins).

The 2001 GLVC Coach of the Year has been a major factor in four conference championships, three GLVC Tournament titles, all seven of USI's NCAA II Tournament appearances, and two NCAA II Elite Eight appearances.

Last season, Stein guided the Screaming Eagles back into the GLVC Tournament after a frustrating year in 2005-06. His squad finished 16-12 overall, 10-9 in the GLVC, and posted a victory over eventual NCAA II Great Lakes Region champion Drury University.

In 2005-06, Stein led the Eagles to a 15-15 overall record, 7-12 in the GLVC, despite losing nearly 70 percent of his team's offensive output and nearly 80 percent of his squad's rebounding output from the previous season.

His squad battled through multiple injuries to post a 14-14 overall record, 7-13 in the GLVC, and qualify for the GLVC Tournament in 2004-05.

In 2003-04, Stein led the Eagles to a 20-10 mark and a 12-8 record in the GLVC. His Eagles returned to the NCAA II Tournament for the first time since the 2001-02 season.

Despite a rough 2002-03 campaign, Stein and his coaching staff brought in a strong recruiting class that set the stage for a return to national competitiveness. In 2003-04, USI had the sixth-best turnaround in Division II, with USI improving by 12 wins from the previous year.

In 2002-03, Stein and the Eagles were forced into a rebuilding year after losing five seniors and more than 60 points and 25 rebounds per game from the 2001-02 squad. With only one returning starter, Stein and his staff had a young team competing for a spot in the GLVC Tournament late in the season and finished the year with an 8-19 overall record.

The 2001-02 season saw Stein's Eagles post a 27-6 overall record, 16-4 GLVC, win a second straight GLVC Championship, and appear in the NCAA II Great Lakes Region Tournament for the second straight season. Stein also led the Eagles into the national spotlight with his squad being ranked nationally for 37 consecutive weeks between December 2000 and December 2002.

In just his second season at the helm, Stein led USI to a 28-4 record and the biggest season-to-season turnaround in school history (+13 wins). Stein, who earned GLVC Coach of the Year honors, directed the Eagles to the GLVC Championship, GLVC Tournament Championship, an NCAA II Tournament appearance, and an appearance in the NCAA II Elite Eight for the second time in the program's history.

Stein went 15-12 overall in 1999-00, tying the record for most victories for a rookie head coach and setting the record for best winning percentage for a rookie coach (.556).

A member of the WBCA, Stein is a 1992 USI graduate with a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration. He joined the Eagles' program in 1991-92 as a student assistant under former Head Coach Chancellor Dugan. He was promoted to head assistant coach in 1994 and promptly helped Dugan and the Eagles to their best season as a varsity sport at USI.

In his eight seasons as an assistant, Stein helped Dugan amass a 159-73 record with four straight NCAA II Tournament appearances (1994-95 to 1997-98) and three GLVC titles. The Eagles were the NCAA II Tournament finalist and produced the first perfect season in GLVC history (20-0) in 1997.

A native of Crete, Illinois, Stein was a two-year starter on USI's men's basketball team from 1989-91. During his tenure as a player, Stein helped USI to an appearance in the NCAA II South Central Region Tournament in 1989-90 and a win over Division I University of Wisconsin in 1990-91. Before joining USI's team, he played basketball at Parkland College in Champaign, Illinois, and earned an associate degree. Parkland finished as the NJCAA Division II runner-up in 1988 and fourth nationally in 1989.

Stein and his wife Kari have a son, Alex, and a daughter, Mallorie.

In 2001-02, Head Coach Rick Stein led the Screaming Eagles to their second straight Great Lakes Valley Conference Tournament title.

In 16 seasons with the USI women's basketball team, eight as an assistant and eight as head coach, Stein has been a part of 302 Eagle victories, seven NCAA II Tournament appearances, four regular-season GLVC titles, and a record three GLVC Tournament championships.

Stein has been a part of 67.1 percent of USI's all-time victories.

In just his second season, Stein was voted the GLVC Coach of the Year after leading USI to a 28-4 record and both the GLVC regular-season and tournament championships.

Stein, who led USI to its second NCAA II Elite Eight appearance in 2000-01, ranks second all-time at USI with 143 career victories and is the third coach in the program's history to reach the 100-win plateau.

COACHING STAFF

women's basketball

Randa Gatling

Assistant Coach

Assistant Coach Randa Gatling '99 returns for her ninth season with the Screaming Eagles. Gatling assists in all aspects of the USI women's basketball program. In particular, she works closely with game scouts, recruiting, player assessments, and on-the-court skill work with the guards.

Gatling has been a major part of USI's success throughout the years, both as a player and as a coach. She has been a part of 243 victories, 143 as a coach and 100 as a player. In addition, Gatling has been a part of seven NCAA II Tournament teams, two NCAA II Elite Eight squads, and five GLVC championship teams.

In addition to her coaching duties, Gatling is USI's senior woman administrator and an instructor in physical education. She also is the coordinator for USI's Eagle Math program.

A native of Evansville, Indiana, Gatling started her career at Evansville Central High School. She served as the head coach for the first-ever Central girl's freshman basketball team and was instrumental in its creation.

Gatling graduated from USI in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in social work.

During her playing days at USI, Gatling was a member of the 1997 NCAA II national finalist team. Her play helped the Eagles to NCAA II Tournament appearances in 1995, 1996, 1997, and 1998 as well as GLVC championships in 1995, 1997, and 1998. She was the team captain in 1997-98.

The Eagles were a dominating 100-16 (.862), including an amazing 67-9 (.881) in the GLVC, during Gatling's four years in an Eagle uniform.

As a player and a coach, Randa Gatling has helped lead the Eagles to 243 wins, five GLVC championships, three GLVC Tournament championships, two NCAA II Elite Eight appearances, and the 1997 NCAA II Finals.

Michelle Irwin

Assistant Coach

Michelle Irwin enters her second season with the USI women's basketball team. She assists in all aspects of the USI women's basketball program. In particular, she works closely with game scouts, recruiting, player assessments, and on-the-court skill work with the post players.

Irwin came to USI from Ashland University, where she was a graduate assistant from 2004-06. She helped the Ashland Eagles to an NCAA II Tournament appearance, two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference South Division titles, and two 20-win seasons.

Prior to Ashland, Irwin got her coaching start at St. Catharine College during the 2003-04 season. She helped in recruiting, player development, and scouting reports while at SCC.

Irwin played for USI Head Coach Rick Stein from 1999-02 and was part of the Screaming Eagles' back-to-back GLVC Tournament championship teams. USI amassed a 70-22 mark, 43-17 in the GLVC, during Irwin's three seasons in a USI uniform. The Eagles also appeared in the NCAA II Tournament twice.

The Louisville, Kentucky, native averaged 5.9 points and 4.6 rebounds per game for the Eagles, including a career-best 7.9 points and 5.5 rebounds during USI's NCAA II Elite Eight run in 2000-01.

Irwin earned a bachelor's degree in marketing with a minor in international business from the University of Louisville in 2004. She graduated with a master's degree in sports sciences from Ashland in December 2005.

Michelle Irwin was a key player for the Screaming Eagles during their back-to-back GLVC Tournament championship runs in 2000-01 and 2001-02. As a player and coach, she has been part of three NCAA II Tournament appearances.*

women's basketball IN THE COMMUNITY

University of Southern Indiana's Department of Athletics is in the national spotlight for its athletic accomplishments in the NCAA Division II and in the Evansville-area spotlight as partners in the community.

USI student athletes are among the many volunteers contributing to the success of the Komen Race for the Cure, while the coaching staff is present to help staff the telephones for the MDA Telethon.

The women's basketball team also conducts free clinics at the local YMCA and team members volunteer as tutors at local elementary schools.

In addition to the national charities, the Department of Athletics sponsors a nationally recognized math program. Eagle Math is an incentive program to encourage young students to improve their math skills. The program is designed around the Eagle Math booklets printed in the first quarter, second quarter, third quarter, and fourth quarter sequence to carry out the sports theme.

As student athletes practice to get better, math students are encouraged to practice math to excel in the classroom. A local bank provides incentive for the students. Each student who completes the math booklet is offered a savings account with a $10 deposit.

Screaming Eagles fly around the USA and beyond

The University of Southern Indiana women's basketball teams have traveled the continental United States and beyond over the last 15 years. USI has played in regular-season tournaments in Alaska, California, Florida, Missouri, Mexico (Cancun), and the Bahamas; and in NCAA Division II Tournaments in Illinois, Michigan, Minnesota, and North Dakota.

In December 2007, the Screaming Eagles will return to the Bahamas Sunshine Shootout in Nassau, Bahamas, for the second time. USI's first trip resulted in a 2-0 record during the 1997-98 season.

Soaring through the years of success

The University of Southern Indiana women's basketball team enters the 2007-08 campaign seeking its eighth NCAA Division II Tournament appearance in 14 seasons. The last 13 seasons have not only produced seven NCAA II Tournament appearances, but have seen the Screaming Eagles make it to the NCAA II Sweet Sixteen three times and to the Elite Eight twice. USI finished as the runner-up in 1997.

In addition to its NCAA II Tournament success, USI also has been a powerhouse in the Great Lakes Valley Conference. The Eagles have won four GLVC regular-season titles since 1995 and have won the GLVC Tournament a record three times. In six trips to the GLVC Tournament, the Eagles are a conference-best 10-3.

Note: Since 1994, the Eagles have had five players earn All-America honors.

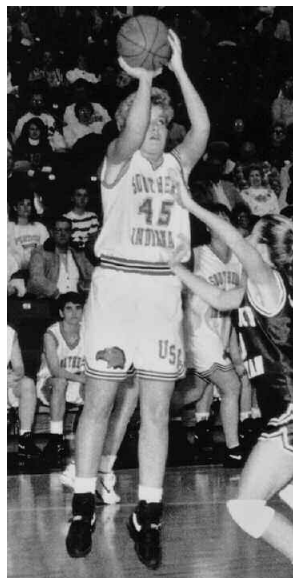

After beginning the 1996-97 season with a 1-1 record, the Eagles won 29 straight games as well as the GLVC and NCAA II Great Lakes Regional Championship. USI went on to win its first two games in the NCAA II Elite Eight before falling in the national championship game to North Dakota. USI also became the first and only team in GLVC history to go 20-0 in conference play. USI finished the season with a school-record 30-2 mark and finished second in the national rankings.

After missing out on the NCAA II Tournament in 1999 and 2000, the Eagles exploded back on to the national stage in 2001. The Eagles finished the 2000-01 season with a 28-4 mark and won a share of the GLVC regular-season title. The Eagles went on to win the GLVC Tournament championship as well as the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional Championship for the second time in school history.

Quick fact: The Eagles have hosted the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional Tournament twice. However, the two times the Eagles have gone to the Elite Eight, they have won the regional tournament in the state of Michigan.

All-American Impact

Kathy Lauck was the first of five USI players to earn All-America honors since 1994. Lauck averaged 20.1 points and 9.2 rebounds per game as a senior and led the Screaming Eagles to their first winning season in eight years. USI finished the season with a 17-10 mark and a 12-6 record in the GLVC. Lauck, who is third all-time at USI in career scoring with 1,573 points, earned GLVC Player of the Year honors in 1994 and was a two-time All-GLVC selection. She was recognized by three publications for All-America honors.

In 1995, LeAnn Freeland became the second player in school history to earn All-America honors. Freeland, USI's all-time leading scorer with 2,269 points, finished her career at USI as a three-time All-American. However, her sophomore campaign in 1994-95 stood out as she became the first player in school history to earn National Player of the Year honors. During the 1994-95 season, Freeland averaged 24.4 points and 9.2 points per game. She finished her career as USI's all-time leader in six statistical categories, including rebounds (961). The two-time GLVC Player of the Year holds 16 school records and was a three-time Academic All-American.

Eileen Weber was recognized by two organizations for All-America honors in 1996-97. She also earned All-America honors for her efforts during the 1997-98 season. In 1996-97, Weber helped lead the Screaming Eagles to a 30-2 record and the NCAA II National Championship game. She started her career at USI by earning GLVC Newcomer of the Year honors and ended it by earning GLVC Player of the Year honors. Weber is second all-time at USI in career points (1,847) and career rebounds (842). She averaged 17.8 points and 8.0 rebounds per game as a senior in 1997-98 and 15.4 points and 6.4 rebounds as a junior in 1996-97.

After a quiet first three seasons, Elizabeth Prewett broke out as a senior during the 2000-01 season. She averaged 15.0 points and 9.2 rebounds per game to lead USI to a 28-4 record and its second trip to the NCAA II Elite Eight. Her efforts landed her first-team All-GLVC and All-Region honors. She also was selected GLVC All-Tournament Team and was named the MVP of the 2001 NCAA II Great Lakes Regional Tournament. Prewett is ranked 14th all-time at USI in career scoring (837) and eighth all-time at USI in career rebounds (589). In 2000, she helped the USI volleyball team to a share of the GLVC regular-season title.

ABOUT THE PAC

Physical Activities Center

The newly renovated Physical Activities Center (PAC) has been the home of the Screaming Eagles for the past 28 years. Opened in 1980, the PAC accommodates physical education classes, intramural activities, and is the arena for the USI basketball and volleyball teams.

The center court of the PAC has been the setting for many games of regional and national interest during the past 13 years. USI has hosted the 1993, 1994, and 1996 men's NCAA II Great Lakes Regionals; the 1998 women's GLVC Tournament; the 1998 and 2001 women's NCAA II Great Lakes Regionals; and the 2000 and 2004 GLVC Volleyball Tournaments.

A true home court, the USI women's basketball team has a 166-52 home record since 1993-94, a .762 winning percentage.

In 2006-07, the PAC underwent renovations that included three new wood courts and a new center-court design that incorporated USI's athletic logo. The renovation also featured a new scoreboard and video board, new portable goals, and new seating. Among the changes to the seating were padded chairback seats and back-supported bleacher seats.

Investing in the future of a student-athlete ensures that every one of USI's student athletes receives an exceptional academic and athletic opportunity during his or her four years of eligibility.

Fans of USI intercollegiate sports help underwrite scholarships for student athletes through their membership in the USI Varsity Club. Others provide charitable gifts for a specific athletic scholarship or for one of the 15 varsity teams.

USI Varsity Club

Every year 100 percent of the membership fees the USI Varsity Club receives from sports fans, alumni, friends, and area businesses goes directly into the club's scholarship fund for student athletes. The USI Varsity Club was organized in 1970 as the official booster club for USI varsity athletics. The club's primary goal today—in partnership with the University—is to fully fund scholarships for all student athletes participating in USI's 15 intercollegiate sports.

Membership levels

- Silver Eagle ($125)
- Golden Eagle ($250)
- Regal Eagle ($500)
- All-American Eagle ($1,000)
- Screaming Eagle ($2,000)

Call Mandi Fulton in the USI Department of Athletics at 812/464-1973 for more information.

Each year the USI Varsity Club sponsors several events such as the USI Varsity Club Golf Outing (above) and the USI Steak Fry 'n Auction (below) to help raise funds for all of USI's 15 intercollegiate sports.
