2001 USI Volleyball Outlook

The University of Southern Indiana volleyball team enters the 2001 season with high expectations after posting a 27-4 overall record and a 14-2 record against Great Lakes Valley Conference opponents a year ago. The 27-4 mark was the best in the program's history. USI led the conference in hitting percentage (.263) and was third in service aces (225).

Despite the departure of former head coach Katie Loyer, the Screaming Eagles have high expectations in 2001. Taking over the reigns as head coach is former assistant Chrissy Smith (Decatur, Indiana).

Smith graduated from the University of Cincinnati, where she was a three-time All-Conference USA performer. She finished her career at Cincinnati ranked third in kills, fourth in hitting percentage, fifth in kills per game, sixth in total blocks, and sixth in games played. In addition to leading the Bearcats in hitting percentage in 1995, 1996 and 1997, she led the team in kills in 1995.

Smith will have plenty to work with as the Eagles return five of their seven players, including first team All-GLVC outside hitter Shannon Wells (Merrillville, Indiana).

Wells came into her own during her sophomore campaign, finishing second in the nation with 0.89 service aces per game, becoming the second player in USI history to earn All-Great Lakes Regional honors. Her 93 service aces led the GLVC and set a school record.

Wells' contributions were not limited to service aces either. In 2000, she finished third in the conference with a team-high 4.55 kills per game, was fifth in the GLVC and second on the team with a .303 hitting percentage. She was ninth in the league with a team-best 3.28 digs per game.

Perhaps the biggest key to USI's success of a year ago was GLVC Freshman of the Year and first team All-GLVC setter Kim Boehmer (Cincinnati, Ohio). Boehmer finished fourth in the conference with 11.88 assists per game and set a school record with 1,236.

USI also will call on the talents of senior middle blocker Leah Mercer (Evansville, Indiana). Mercer was named second-team All-GLVC after posting a career-high .294 hitting percentage (sixth in the GLVC) and 39 blocks. Mercer was second on the squad with 2.71 kills per game.

Rounding out the returnees are junior outside hitters Kristina Kavanaugh (Montgomery, Indiana) and Jami Turner (Muncie, Indiana). Kavanaugh was third on the squad with 2.82 digs per game while Turner was second on the squad with 3.22 digs per game.

New to the 2001 squad is junior right side/setter Greta Grinstead (Mt. Vernon, Indiana). Grinstead transferred from Northern Kentucky University where she had 113 kills, 64 assists, 213 digs, and 33 service aces. In her two seasons at NKU, Grinstead helped the Norse to the 1998 NCAA Division II Elite Eight and the 1999 NCAA Division II Final Four.

The Eagles have added freshmen Leeanne Gross (Decatur, Indiana) and Kristine Wheeler (Indianapolis, Indiana). Wheeler, a defensive specialist from Roncalli High School, was named honorable mention Academic All-State and All-County in 1999 and 2000, and ranked ninth in the state with 43 aces in 1999. She helped RHS to the state and city championship in 1998 and the county championship in 1999 and 2000.

Gross was named All-State twice and All-Conference four times at Adams Central High School in Monroe, Indiana. She set ACHS single-season records with 537 kills (14.9 per match), breaking USI Head Coach Chrissy Smith's record of 367, a .387 attack percentage, 82 blocks, and 290 digs. She tallied 1,496 kills and 758 digs in her career at ACHS and helped lead the ACHS volleyball team to the 1998, 1999, and 2000 sectional championships and the 1999 and 2000 conference championships.

USI also welcomes to the roster freshmen walk-ons Audrey Marshall (Mt. Vernon, Indiana), Randi Raff (Rensselaer, Indiana), and Rachel Byerley (New Albany, Indiana), all outside hitters.

Raff was an All-Hoosier Conference selection in 1999 and 2000 and the Rensselaer Republican All-Area Player of the Year at Rensselaer Central High School, while Byerley was Academic All-State at New Albany High School.

The Eagles need the same type of play this season that propelled them to a 27-4 record a year ago. The 2001 non-conference schedule has been strengthened for a possible run at a berth in the NCAA Division II Tournament.

USI will play in four tournaments, three of which feature inter-regional opponents, prior to the GLVC Tournament. Some of the opponents include NCAA Division II Regional participants Northwood University and Northern Michigan University as well as NCAA II Elite Eight participant Grand Valley State University.

USI's first action will take place in St. Louis, Missouri, August 24-25, as it competes in the University of Missouri-St. Louis Tournament. The Eagles will then travel to the campus of Grand Valley State University in Allendale, Michigan, September 1-2, before heading to Northern Kentucky University to compete in the GLIAC-GLVC Crossover.

Chrissy Smith, Head Volleyball Coach

Chrissy Smith enters her first season as head coach of the USI volleyball program after spending a year as an assistant coach for the Eagles. A native of Decatur, Indiana, Smith joined the Eagles last year and helped lead USI to its best record in school history (27-4).

After graduating from Adams Central High School in Monroe, Indiana, Smith was invited to walk on at the University of Cincinnati. She exceeded her coach's expectations as well as her own when she was named to what was formerly known as the Great Midwest Conference All-Newcomer Team as a freshman.

Smith graduated from Cincinnati, where she was a three-time All-Conference USA performer, with a bachelor's degree in biology. She finished her career at Cincinnati ranking third in kills, fourth in hitting percentage, fifth in kills per game, sixth in total blocks, and sixth in games played. In addition to leading the Bearcats in hitting percentage in 1995, 1996, and 1997, she led the team in kills in 1995.

Her hard work and dedication to the game have paid off for her as a player and as an assistant coach. While under former head coach Katie Loyer, Smith was in charge of the Eagles volleyball strength and conditioning program as well as assisting in game preparation, on the court coaching, recruiting, and fund raising.

Smith will have a firm ground to stand on as she enters 2001. The Eagles are returning all six starters from last year, including first team All-Great Lakes Valley Conference members Shannon Wells (Merrillville, Indiana) and Kim Boehmer (Cincinnati, Ohio). Boehmer was selected as the GLVC Freshman of the Year while Wells was second in the nation in service aces.

"We are not going to change our style of play," Smith explained. "We will work to develop and improve our skills in the off-season and get stronger in the weight room."

"We are eager to see coach Smith continue the excitement she helped generate as an assistant coach this past fall," USI Athletic Director Steve Newton said. "She has demonstrated the ability to lead the USI volleyball program and sustain the momentum she was a part of this past season."

Angela Welburn, Assistant Volleyball Coach

Assistant coach Angela Welburn will be entering her first season with the Screaming Eagles volleyball program.

Coach Welburn comes from Southwestern Michigan College where she earned All-Conference and All-Regional honors in 1995. She helped lead SMC to the conference championship that same season.

Welburn gained her first coaching experience as an assistant varsity coach at Marellus High School (Marcellus, Michigan) in 1995 and a year later made the complete transition from player to coach, becoming an assistant coach at SMC in 1996.

That same year, Welburn was the head coach for the MHS freshman team. A year later she took the helm of the junior varsity squad at MHS, leading it to a 13-4-2 record and two tournament championships. In 1998, Welburn led the junior varsity squad to a 15-2-1 record and another tournament championship.

Prior to her collegiate experience, Welburn played four seasons at Constantine High School in Constantine, Michigan where she earned MVP, All-League, All-Regional, and All-Area honors.
