STATE-WIDE SOCIAL SCIENTISTS AT USI. The University will be host for the state meeting of the Indiana Academy of the Social Sciences on Friday, October 3, when a series of panel presentations on "The Internationalization of Indiana" will be presented. Among topics to be discussed by 36 scholars representing 16 colleges and universities will be "Indiana Steel and the World," "Biracial Adoption," "The Geography Gap in Teacher Training," and "Internationalizing Indiana Business." Morning panels will meet at 9:30 a.m., focusing on business administration, geography, and political science. Afternoon panels will meet at 2:10 p.m., focusing on economics, sociology, history, and international studies.

The plenary speaker following the noon luncheon will be Dr. George J. Stolnitz, professor of economics at Indiana University, Bloomington. His topic will be "International Trade, International Development, and the Indiana Economy." Dr. Leslie P. Singer, economist at IU Northwest, will preside at the luncheon session.

The meeting will be held in the University Center, starting with registration at 8:30 a.m. There is a $3 registration fee. For details, contact Dr. Charles T. Barber, USI professor of political science, at extension 1719. Dr. Barber is current executive secretary of the Indiana Academy and is coordinating local arrangements.

HISTORIC COMMUNAL SOCIETIES CONFERENCE. The USI Center for Communal Studies will conduct the 13th annual Historic Communal Societies Conference October 9-11 at the Shaker Village in Canterbury, New Hampshire. The theme this year is "The Experience of Community: Gender, Religion, Ideology." There are 53 scheduled speakers and moderators, representing 42 universities in 19 states, England, and Israel; 30 historic and current communal groups are expected to be represented. Two Shaker eldresses, who are among only nine surviving Shaker sisters, are to bring greetings to the meeting. Many of the papers will be printed in Communal Societies, the official publication of the meeting's co-sponsor, the National Historic Communal Societies Association. Conference programs and back volumes of Communal Societies are available in the office of Dr. Donald E. Pitzer, USI professor of history and director of the Center for Communal Studies.

NAMES IN THE NEWS. Ms. Ruth Cutteridge, intermediate secretary in the Counseling Office, has been named 1985-86 Civitan of the Year in recognition of service to the club and community. Miss Cutteridge is the outgoing president of Evansville Singles Civitan. Ms. Barbara Brothers, USI services coordinator, is the new vice president of the club.

Dr. Thomas M. Rivers, professor of English, attended the Sixth Annual Conference of the Indiana Teachers of Writing, held September 25-27 in Indianapolis. Dr. Rivers represented the USI English Department and the 11th Mid-America Conference on Composition, which he co-chairs.

NEW FACES. Three new employees have joined the University family, including Ms. Jean Jenkins, administrative secretary in University Relations; Mrs. Donna Julian, account clerk in the USI Library; and Mrs. Amy R. Thuerbach, senior secretary in the Admissions Office.

Ms. Jenkins, a 1986 accounting graduate, succeeds Mrs. Sharon Flesher, who has moved to the USI Children's Center as a teacher. Ms. Jenkins formerly was a student worker in the President's Office, returning to the University after several months as accounts payable bookkeeper for Ice Products, Inc. She lives at 1120 Sheffield Drive, is a 1982 graduate of Mater Dei High School, and enjoys ceramics.

Mrs. Julian is a graduate of Tecumseh High School at Lynnville and is a licensed practical nurse graduate of the Evansville School of Health Occupations. She formerly worked for her husband, Dr. David Julian, a Mt. Vernon physician. They live at 335 West 8th, Mt. Vernon and have two sons, Don, 17, and Dan, 13. She enjoys flower gardening, reading, piano, and needlework.

Mrs. Thuerbach succeeds Mrs. Cheril Griswold, who has moved to the Division of Social Science as a secretary. Mrs. Thuerbach is a graduate of Columbus (Indiana) North High School and received an associate degree in secretarial science in 1985 from Vincennes University. She formerly was a temporary secretary at Mead Johnson. She and her husband, Danny, a field service engineer, live at 1925 Pueblo Pass, Evansville. She enjoys camping and fishing.

CONGRATULATIONS to Dr. Thomas H. Cervone, visiting assistant professor of biology, and his wife, Marie, on the birth Friday, September 26, of their first daughter, Nicole Marie. They also have a son.

Congratulations also to Mr. Stephen P. Helfrich, assistant superintendent of the Physical Plant and campus engineer, and his wife, Maria, on the birth Monday, September 29, of their third daughter, Claire Bailey, who is sharing the nursery at Welborn with the Cervones' baby.

And congratulations to Mrs. Kathy Fuchs, communications coordinator in Campus Ministry, on the birth of a granddaughter, Audrey Marie, born Friday, September 19, to Jeanine and Gary Witty of Evansville, both former USI students.

SENIOR RADIOLOGY STUDENTS WIN STATE HONORS. Two USI student groups' exhibitions won first- and third-place honors in a scientific exhibition for students at the state convention of the Indiana Society of Radiologic Technology September 24-27 in Indianapolis. Senior students enrolled in the Deaconess Hospital radiology program won first place with "Diagnosing Chest Lesions with CT Scanning;" senior students enrolled in the St. Mary's Hospital radiology program won third place with "Intraluminal Irradiation." In addition, Ms. Debbie Poelhuis, clinical instructor in the Deaconess radiology program, was named Indiana Technologist of the Year.

HUMANITIES FORUMS. Mr. Stewart Kershaw, music director of the Evansville Philharmonic Orchestra, will speak at 1 p.m. today (October 1) in Forum II on the topic, "What Is a Conductor?" and will discuss the economic and social impact a symphony orchestra has on its own city. A native of England, Mr. Kershaw studied in London, Paris, Venice, and Tanglewood in the United States. He has held permanent contracts with opera houses in London, Lyon, Munich, Paris, and Stuttgart. He has been a guest conductor in almost all European countries, Australia, Brazil, Canada, and South Africa. Mr. Kershaw was chief conductor of the Kyoto (Japan) Symphony from 1978 to 1980, when he joined the Evansville Philharmonic. He also is music director of the Seattle Ballet Company and the Palm Beach Symphony.

The next Humanities Forum speaker will be Mr. Roger McBain, cultural affairs reporter for The Evansville Press. His topic will be "The Hack and the Flaks," a lecture on the relationship between journalists and public relations practitioners, for the 1 p.m. program Monday, October 13 in Forum II.

"SINCE THE BEGINNING" SLATED AT GALLERY. The New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art will present the recent work of three artists -- Mr. John Begley, Mr. Darryl Halbrooks, and Mr. Rick Paul -- who were deeply involved with the Gallery's genesis as a viable art space in the Tri-State. "Since the Beginning" will open Sunday, October 5 with a reception from 1 to 5 p.m., and continue through October 30.

Mr. Begley was founding director of the New Harmony Gallery and currently is executive director of the Water Tower Art Association in Louisville. He will show drawings and paintings of area landscapes.

Mr. Halbrooks, an Evansville native and UE graduate who is associate professor of art at Eastern Kentucky University, Richmond, will show paintings relating to his travels in Europe.

Mr. Paul, whose installation sculptures have been exhibited across the United States, will show recent large-scale drawings (6 feet long) that trick the eye with three-dimensional depth. He is an associate professor of art at Purdue University and has juried USI student art shows.

ALCOHOL/DRUG SUPPORT GROUP PLANNED. Around 15 USI staff members and students have enrolled in a six-week training program, "Health and Hope for the Alcohol/Substance Abuser," sponsored by Parkside Lodge at Mulberry Center. The training sessions started Tuesday, September 30, with the USI group planning to develop a campus support team to be available in the event of need. Father Anthony Kissel, director of Campus Ministry, and Mr. Robert Harper, director of the Counseling Office, are leading the group which also includes members of AMIGOs and the resident student directors at MASH and Campus Apartments.

SMOKING CESSATION PROGRAM PLANNED. With the "Great American Smokeout" nearing its 10th anniversary on November 20th, USI Health Services plans to enhance the campus project this year by organizing a Freshstart Smoking Cessation Program around the Smokeout. Trained facilitators are needed to to organize and conduct the Freshstart program, with interested persons invited to attend a free facilitator training program from 6:30 to 8 p.m. on Wednesday, October 15 at the local office of the American Cancer Society. Mrs. Sandi Lawrence, director of Health Services and city chairman this year for the Great American Smokeout, said facilitators need not be experts -- just a former or non-smoker. She said Freshstart clinics use proven small group dynamics to teach the coping skills needed to master the physical and mental aspects of quitting. Interested persons may contact Mrs. Lawrence at extension 1807 or Ms. Rhoda Baum at the American Cancer Society, 424-8281.

FALL BLOOD DRIVE OCTOBER 14-15. The Fall Blood Drive, sponsored by Health Services and the Inter-Greek Council, will be held from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday, October 14-15, at the University Center. Mrs. Sandi Lawrence, director of Health Services, said they need the support of all faculty and staff, and asks you to urge students to participate also. She said participants should be sure to eat breakfast before donating blood. Anyone with questions about the program may contact Ms. Lawrence at extension 1807.

BLUE CROSS/BLUE SHIELD INFORMATION. Staff members enrolled in Blue Cross/Blue Shield are invited to attend a presentation on the Cost Guard Health Care Benefits Management System on Tuesday, October. 14. A representative from Blue Cross/Blue Shield will be on campus to explain the program and answer any questions you may have about the program. If you were unable to attend the informational meetings in September, please plan to attend one of the following Cost Guard presentations: 1 p.m., 2 p.m., or 3 p.m., all in UC 353.

MEDICAL EDUCATION SEMINAR. Dr. Thomas Croxton of the Department of Physiology and Biophysics at the Indiana University School of Medicine will be the guest speaker at 3 p.m. Friday, October 3 in the Evansville Center for Medical Education's Seminar Series. His topic will be "Study of Ion Channels in Anterior Pituitary Cells." The seminar will be held in room 328 of the Health Sciences Building, University of Evansville.

LONG RIFLE GROUP TO MEET AT NEW HARMONY. A Black Powder Long Rifle Meeting will be held at Historic New Harmony on Saturday and Sunday, October 4-5. The program will start at 10 a.m. daily, with a special feature of Indian dancing demonstrations slated at 2 and 6 p.m. each day.

TEMPORARY SCHEDULE SET UP FOR CLINICS. The temporary schedule has been announced for the Math Clinic and Writing Workshop, designed to assist students who need help with their studies. Most of the sessions will be held in L 103-A. See the last page of University Notes for the full schedules.

BOOKSTORE OFFERING TURKEY RAFFLE. Faculty members may enter the USI Bookstore's "Giant Turkey Raffle" in submitting textbook requirements for the spring semester. Friday, October 10 is the deadline for submitting course requirements to division secretaries. All complete submissions can be entered in the raffle, with 10 Uebelhack turkeys to be awarded in a drawing on October 20. Contact the Bookstore if you have questions.

LILLY FELLOWSHIPS AVAILABLE. USI has been invited to participate in the competition for the Lilly Endowment's Faculty Open Fellowships. The awards will be for use in the academic year 1987-88. December 1 is the deadline for filing nominations and applications with the Endowment. The applications and additional information can be obtained in the Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs, FWA 166.

MILEAGE RATES. The following mileage rates will be in effect for fiscal year 1986-87:

Charge-back rates for use of University vehicles:

Sedan	16 cents/mile	Maxivan ...	25 cents/mile

FACULTY/STAFF CHRISTIAN DISCUSSION GROUP. Dr. Michael Waitman, associate professor of English, will lead the next Faculty/Staff Christian Discussion Group meeting in considering the fourth chapter, "Love and Marriage," in Mr. Robert Bellah's fine recent study of individualism and commitment in American life, Habits of the Heart. All USI faculty and staff are warmly invited to attend the sessions, held at 12 noon Mondays in UC 308.

WRITERS SEMINAR. Ms. Jo Frohbeiter-Mueller, free-lance writer and technical writer-editor, will be the speaker Monday, September 29, for "The Writer at Work" seminar in the English 491 class taught by Dr. Walter Everett, associate professor of English. The public is invited to sit in on the discussion sections of the class, which meets at 6 p.m. in FWA 58.

HUMANITIES FILM SERIES. "Citizen Kane" (1941, 119 minutes) Director: Orson Welles; cast: Orson Welles, Dorothy Comingore, Joseph Cotton, Everett Sloane, Ray Collins, Agnes Moorehead, George Coulouris, Ruth Warrick. This film is considered by many critics to be America's greatest film masterpiece, both because of its technical virtuosity and the significance of its theme -- Kane, a wealthy and powerful American, fails to live up to his potential because he is personally flawed. The film will be shown at 2 and 6 p.m. Tuesday, October 7, in Forum I; it is free and open to the public.
