

USI SCHEDULE

ADD - WEEK OF OCTOBER 2

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT: Sherrianne Standley, University Relations
(812) 464-1902

Sunday, October 2 -- The USI Society for Arts and Humanities quarterly meeting will feature Kathryn Waters, chairman of the USI Art Department, who will show slides of her work and the work of artists who have influenced her development as a Neo-regionalist painter. The program will be at 3:30 p.m. in UC350. The public is invited.

(For information contact Dr. James R. Blevins, dean of the School of Liberal Arts, [812] 464-1640.)

---

Wednesday, October 5 -- Seminars on "Sexual Assaults on Campus: What Students Can Do" will be held at 3 and 5 p.m. in Forum I. Leaders will be Ada Meyer of the Evansville Police Department; Sandra Chase, director of emergency services at Deaconess Hospital; and Ursula Hurt, a psychiatric nurse at Deaconess. A question-answer period will follow. The program will be videotaped and shown at 5 p.m. on October 10, 11, and 13, also in Forum I. The public is invited.

(The seminars are sponsored by USI Student Government Association, Counseling Center, Health Services, and Student Activities. For information, contact Barry Schonberger, director of Student Activities, [812] 464-1862.)

---

Friday, October 7 -- The second annual Conference on Business Education for Tri-State high school teachers will begin at 8:30 a.m. in the University Conference Center, cosponsored by the USI School of Business and Southwestern Publishing Company. The theme will be "Focus '88: Computers in Business and Education Today."

(For information, contact the School of Business, [812] 464-1718.)

---

(MORE)

Friday, October 7 -- Philip Hosford of Bloomington, Indiana National Bank 1987 Beethoven Fellow, will be the featured guest for a piano recital at 8 p.m. in The Atheneum. The program is cosponsored by the New Harmony Festival of Music, Inc., and Historic New Harmony.

(For information, contact Mrs. Julie Rutherford, tour and promotion coordinator at Historic New Harmony, [812] 464-9595.)

---

WEEK OF OCTOBER 9

Sunday, October 9 -- The Stephen Lloyd Herron exhibition will open at the New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art with a reception from 1 to 4 p.m. for the artist. The exhibit will continue through November 15.

(For information, contact Connie Weinzapfel, Gallery director, [812] 682-3156.)

---

Tuesday, October 11 -- "Citizen Kane" (1941, 119 minutes) Director: Orson Welles; cast: Orson Welles, Dorothy Comingore, Joseph Cotton, Everett Sloane, Ray Collins, Agnes Morehead, George Coulouris, Ruth Warrick. Considered by many as America's film masterpiece, both because of its technical virtuosity and the significant theme, this film focuses on Charles Foster Kane, a wealthy, powerful, and flawed individual.

(The films are shown at 2 and 6 p.m. in Forum I; they are free and open to the public. For information, contact Dr. Thomas A. Wilhelmus, associate professor of English, [812] 464-1735.)

---

Wednesday, October 12 -- The second "Partners for Success" program sponsored by the Southern Indiana Labor-Management Education Forum will feature representatives of Midwest Division of National Steel at Portage, Indiana. The program will be held from 8 to 11:30 a.m. in the University Conference Center. The registration fee is $5.

(For information, contact Tim Mahoney, forum director, at [812] 464-1863.)

---

Thursday, October 13 -- Katharine T. Carter, an exhibiting artist in New York City, will be featured in a lecture-workshop at 2 p.m. in Forum III at USI and a lecture program at 7:30 p.m. at The Atheneum, New Harmony. She will discuss the 1987-88 New York City Art Season and competing professionally in the art exhibition and gallery market.

(MORE)

(The program is cosponsored by the USI Art Department and the New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art. For information, contact Kathryn Waters, chairman of the USI Art Department, [812] 464-1933 or 1734.)

---

Friday-Saturday, -- October 14-15 The fifth annual Mid-America Conference for Teachers of Psychology will be held on the theme, "Commitment to Excellence." Sessions will start at 9 a.m. Friday and 7:45 a.m. Saturday in the University Conference Center.

(For information, contact Dr. Joseph J. Palladino, chairman of the Psychology Department, [812] 464-1952 or 1719.)

---

Friday-Sunday, -- October 14-16 New Harmony Theatre's final production, "The Diviners," will complete a two-weekend run in Murphy Auditorium, then be moved for final performances October 27-30 in USI Theatre, Barker and Iglesias avenues. The setting and characters of James Leonard's tender drama should be familiar to the audience since it is set in 1930s southern Indiana.

(Tickets are available from the New Harmony Theatre ticket office, [812] 682-3115, or the USI School of Liberal Arts office, [812] 464-1735. General admission is $8, students and senior citizens, $7; there is a special rate of $6 per person for groups of 20 or more. For information, contact Dr. James R. Blevins, dean of the School of Liberal Arts, or Dr. Douglas Hubbell, USI director of theatre.)

---

CONTINUING EDUCATION COURSES

Monday, October 10 - Asbestos Abatement Training

Tuesday, October 11 - Beginning Calligraphy
Collecting American Indian Art

Effective Presentations

Effective Leadership

Training for the Trainer

Wednesday, October 12 - "Partners for Success" - Midwest Division, National Steel

Statistical Process Control

Beginning Bluegrass Banjo

Beginning French

Beginning German

Stepparenting

After School Program for Kids

(Some listings are one-day courses, but in many cases, dates listed are starting dates for multiple-class courses. For information, contact the Office of Continuing Education, [812] 464-1863.)

USI SCHEDULE

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT: Sherriane Standley, University Relations
(812) 464-1902

THIS WEEKEND -- NEW LISTINGS (nl) AND REMINDERS (r)

Friday-Saturday, -- October 14-15 (r) The fifth annual Mid-America Conference for Teachers of Psychology will be held in the University Center, starting at 9 a.m. Friday and 7:45 a.m. Saturday. The event, attracting a growing number of psychology teachers from colleges and universities around the country, will close about noon Saturday with the presentation of the popular "Psych Follies" by the USI Psy Chi Chapter.

(For information, contact Dr. Joseph J. Palladino, chairman of the USI Psychology Department, [812] 464-1719.)

Friday-Saturday, -- October 14-15 (nl) "Midnight Madness" from 11:45 p.m. Friday to 1:15 a.m. Saturday will tip off the season for Eagles men's and women's basketball teams. USI cheerleaders, Feathershakers, and pep band will open festivities. The teams will be introduced at 12:03 a.m.; at 12:30, the women's team will scrimmage at center court while the men's teams runs drills on the east court; the two teams will switch positions at 12:55 a.m. The event is free; refreshments will be available and prizes will be awarded for fan support.

(For information, call Mike Roeder, sports information director, [812] 464-1895.)

Saturday, October 15 -- (nl) The USI Age Group Invitational swim tournament will be held at the USI Pool, with warmups starting about 7 a.m.; competition continues through the afternoon. More than 270 swimmers, age 6 to 18, from the Southern Indiana Swim Conference will participate.

(For information, contact Paul Krack, USI aquatics director, [812] 464-1957 or 1863.)

Saturday-Sunday, -- October 15-16 (nl) The USI Secretaries and Associates Club will hold the annual Applebutter Stir and Sale, with proceeds to be used for USI scholarships. Club members will gather at 7 a.m. both days in (MORE)

University of Southern Indiana

8600 University Boulevard • Evansville, Indiana 47712

the Bent Twig area behind the Physical Activities Center; Saturday will be peeling day and cooking will be done Sunday morning, with sales starting about noon Sunday.

(For information, contact Mrs. Julia Yancey, club president, [812] 464-1840.)

---

Sunday, October 16 -- (r) The Greater Evansville College Fair for Tri-State high school students and their parents will start at 1:30 p.m. in the Physical Activities Center. More than 50 colleges and universities, special schools, and military organizations will have representatives available to explain their programs.

(For information, contact the USI Admissions Office, [812] 464-1765.)

---

Monday, October 17 -- (n1) Dr. Roy Hunt, professor of law at the University of Florida and a member of the Board of Advisors of the National Trust for Historic Preservation, will speak on "Our Historic Resources: How Not To Love Them to Death" at 7 p.m. Monday in the Old Post Office Courtroom in downtown Evansville. The program is a Liberal Arts Forum sponsored by the USI English and Foreign Language Department.

(For information, contact Dr. James R. Blevins, chairman of the School of Liberal Arts, [812] 464-1640.)

---

WEEK OF OCTOBER 23

Tuesday, October 25 -- "The Big Heat" (1953, 90 minutes) Director: Fritz Lang; cast: Glenn Ford, Lee Marvin, Gloria Grahame. This is a classic of Hollywood film noir directed by one of the great immigrant German filmmakers, who translated the German expressionist style into the morally ambiguous 1950s.

(The films are shown at 2 and 6 p.m. in Forum I; they are free and open to the public. For information, contact Dr. Thomas A. Wilhelmus, associate professor of English, [812] 464-1735.)

---

Wednesday, October 26 -- The first of two fall Southern Hospitality Days for Tri-State high school students and their parents will be held from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. A new feature this year is a "For Parents Only" session with James Browning, USI director of counseling, who will answer questions for parents whose children are about to "leave the nest" for the first time.

(For information, contact the USI Admissions Office, [812] 464-1765.)

---

(MORE)

Wednesday, October 26 -- Dr. Howard Manning, professor of Spanish and head of the Foreign Language and Literature Department, Purdue University, will be featured in a Liberal Arts Forum at 7 p.m. in UC352-353. His topic will be "The Essential Quixoticism of the Human Condition." The program is free and open to the public.

(For information, contact Matthew Graham, assistant professor of English and creative writing, [812] 464-1735.)

Wednesday, October 26 -- The USI Newman Club will sponsor a hayride for students from 8 to 10 p.m., leaving from the Mid-America Student Housing complex.

(For information, contact Campus Ministry, [812] 464-1871.)

Thursday-Sunday, -- New Harmony Theatre's final production, "The Diners," will open at USI Theatre, Igleheart and Barker avenues, for the season's final performances. The setting and characters of James Leonard's tender drama should be familiar to the audience since it is set in 1930s southern Indiana. Curtain time is 8 p.m. Thursday-Saturday, 2 p.m. Sunday.

(Advance tickets are available from the USI School of Liberal Arts office, [812] 464-1735. General admission is $8, students and senior citizens, $7; there is a special rate of $6 per person for groups of 20 or more. For information, contact Dr. James R. Blevins, dean of the School of Liberal Arts, or Dr. Douglas Hubbell, USI director of theatre.)

CONTINUING EDUCATION COURSES

(Some listings are one-day courses, but in many cases, dates listed are starting dates for multi-class courses. For information, contact the Continuing Education Department, [812] 464-1863.)

USI SCHEDULE

WEEK OF OCTOBER 16

CONTACT: Sherrianne Standley, University Relations
(812) 464-1902

Sunday, October 16 -- The Greater Evansville College Fair will open at 1:30 p.m. in the Physical Activities Center with a two-hour "Shopper's Fair." More than 50 Indiana and out-of-state colleges, universities, technical schools, and military organizations will participate in the program planned for southern Indiana high school students and their parents. Individual presentations will begin at 2:45 and will be repeated at 3:30 so that students can attend presentations from at least two organizations. A special program also will be available for freshman and sophomore students.

(For information, contact Timothy Buecher, USI Admissions director, [812] 464-1765.)

---

Tuesday, October 18 -- "Sabotage" (1936, 79 minutes) Director: Alfred Hitchcock; cast: Sylvia Sidney, Oscar Homolka. Many critics think that Hitchcock's 1930s films are his most compelling. This one is based on the novel, The Secret Agent, by Joseph Conrad.

(The films are shown at 2 and 6 p.m. in Forum I; they are free and open to the public. For information, contact Dr. Thomas A. Wilhelmus, associate professor of English, [812] 464-1735.)

---

Friday, October 21 -- The Lambda Chi Alpha Pumpkin Bust all-campus dance will be held from 8 p.m. to 12 midnight on the UC Mall. In case of rain, the dance will be moved to the UC Dining Room.

(For information, contact Student Activities, [812] 464-1862.)

---

(MORE)

Saturday, October 22 -- The Activities Programming Board will hold its annual Oktoberfest for students from 4 to 9:30 p.m. at the Eicher Barn. Events will include horseshoes, a tug of war, balloon rides, cotton candy and other refreshments, and music by the band, Flip Side.

(For information, contact Student Activities, [812] 464-1862.)

---

CONTINUING EDUCATION COURSES

Tuesday, October 18 - Management Diagnostic Center

Wednesday, October 19 - Small Business Taxes and Records

Thursday, October 20 - Basics for New Supervisors

Creativity in Business

Financial Analysis

Beginning Arabic

Living With 10- to 15-year-olds

Friday, October 21 - Chicago trip to see Gauguin's art, Thamlin on stage

Saturday, October 22 - Math Skills for SAT

Advanced DOS/DOS for the XT/AT

(Some listings are one-day courses, but in many cases, dates listed are starting dates for multi-class courses. For information, contact the Continuing Education Department, [812] 464-1863.)

USI SCHEDULE

ADD -- WEEK OF OCTOBER 23

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT: Sherrianne Standley, University Relations
(812) 464-1902

Friday, October 28 -- Social workers from Indiana, Illinois, and Kentucky will attend the first annual "Conference for Front Line Workers and Middle Managers" in the University Center, sponsored by the National Association of Social Workers. Sessions, starting at 8:30 a.m., will cover such topics as adult children of alcoholics, neglectful/abusive parents, eating disorders, family problems, the chronically mentally ill, adolescent depression, services for the elderly, and stress and other problems for the front line worker.

(For information, call Dr. David C. Cousert, chairman of the USI Social Work Department, [812] 464-1843.)

---

ADD -- WEEK OF OCTOBER 30

Thursday, November 3 -- A Financial Aid Workshop for Indiana counselors will be held from 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Solarbron Pointe Retirement Center, hosted by USI and sponsored by the Indiana State Financial Aid Association and the State Student Assistance Commission of Indiana.

(For information, contact James M. Patton, director of USI Financial Aid Office, [812] 464-1767.)

---

Thursday, November 3 -- The USI Foundation will sponsor a luncheon at 12 noon honoring donors and recipients in the new Presidential Scholarship program of endowed scholarships for students who are valedictorians and salutatorians of their high school graduating classes.

(For information, contact Mrs. Suzanne A. Nicholson, Development director, [812] 464-1918.)

---

(MORE)

University of Southern Indiana

8600 University Boulevard • Evansville, Indiana 47712

Saturday, November 5 -- USI's 11th annual Speech Invitational for southern Indiana high school debaters will get under way at 8 a.m. in the Administration Building.

(For information, contact Dr. Helen R. Sands, professor of communications, [812] 464-1741.)

---

WEEK OF NOVEMBER 6

Sunday, November 6 -- The Melody Bells of Evansville will perform at 3 p.m. in Murphy Auditorium, sponsored by the Friends of the Library (Workingmen's Institute) and Historic New Harmony. Admission is free but seating will be limited and reservations are requested. There will be no reserved seats. Call the Workingmen's Institute, [812] 682-4806.

(For information, call Mrs. Julie Rutherford, tour/promotion coordinator at Historic New Harmony, (812) 464-9595 or (812) 682-4488.)

---

Tuesday, November 8 -- "The Magic Flute" (1975, 134 minutes, sung in Swedish with English subtitles) Director: Ingmar Bergman; cast: Ulrik Cold, Josef Kostlinger, Erika Saeden. In addition to being an essay on the difficulty of creating great art, Bergman's adaptation of Mozart's opera is an enchanting and thoroughly enjoyable triumph. Mozart's score supplies the backbone of this tale of love, magic, and quest.

(The films are shown at 2 and 6 p.m. in Forum I; they are free and open to the public. For information, contact Dr. Thomas A. Wilhelmus, associate professor of English, [812] 464-1735.)

---

Friday, November 11 -- The final fall Southern Hospitality Day for prospective students and their parents will start at 8:30 a.m. in the University Center. In addition to campus and housing tours and the various academic and service information sessions, there will be a new feature, "For Parents Only," with James W. Browning, director of Counseling, answering questions from parents concerned about children "leaving the nest" for the first time.

(For information, contact Mrs. Sandy Danks, associate director of Admissions, [812] 464-1765.)

---

(MORE)

Saturday, November 12 -- PRIDE (People Responsible for Improving and Developing Education) will sponsor its annual Black Academic Olympics, with preliminary sessions to be held from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Administration Building. The finals will be held the following week, during PRIDE's annual College Fair at USI.

(For information, contact Ms. Kandace Hinton, USI Admissions counselor, [812] 464-1765.)

---

Saturday, November 12 -- The fall New Start Seminar will start at 9 a.m. in the University Center, offering information to adults interested in changing careers, new challenges, and going to college. Topics will include career inventory, personality assessment, program options, financial aid, and stress and anxiety.

(For information, contact Mrs. Ann Cooper, USI Admissions counselor, [812] 464-1765.)

---

Saturday, November 12 -- A Safety Clinic featuring martial arts instruction will be held from 12 noon to 3 p.m. in the Physical Activities Center, sponsored by the USI Newman Group and Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity. The instructor will be Charles Lavanchy of the Evansville School of Taekwondo. The public is invited.

(For information, contact Ms. Chris Hoehn, Campus Ministry, [812] 464-1871.)

---

CONTINUING EDUCATION COURSES

Sunday, November 6 ----- Scuba Diving
Wednesday, November 9 - Planning and Organizing
Thursday, November 10 - Introducing LOTUS 1-2-3
                            Problem Solving/Decision Making
Saturday, November 12 - Current Topics for Accountants
                            Advanced LOTUS 1-2-3
                            Concepts in Multi-User Systems

(Some listings are one-day courses, but in many cases, dates listed are starting dates for multi-class courses. For information, contact the Continuing Education Department, [812] 464-1863.)

WEEK OF OCTOBER 30

CONTACT: Sherrianne Standley, University Relations
(812) 464-1902

Sunday, October 30 -- New Harmony Theatre's final performance of James Leonard's "The Diviners" will be presented at 2 p.m. in USI Theatre, Igleheart and Barker avenues.

(Advance tickets are available from the USI School of Liberal Arts office, [812] 464-1735. General admission is $8, students and senior citizens, $7; there is a special rate of $6 per person for groups of 20 or more. For information, contact Dr. James R. Blevins, dean of the School of Liberal Arts, or Dr. Douglas Hubbell, USI director of theatre.)

---

Tuesday, November 1 -- "The Seventh Seal" (1956, 96 minutes, Swedish with English subtitles) Director: Ingmar Bergman; cast: Max von Sydow, Bibi Anderson, Gunnar Bjournstrand. In Mr. Bergman's allegory of man's search for meaning, a knight returns from the Crusades and plays a game of chess with Death, while the plague ravages medieval Europe.

(The films are shown at 2 and 6 p.m. in Forum I; they are free and open to the public. For information, contact Dr. Thomas A. Wilhelmus, associate professor of English, [812] 464-1735.)

---

Wednesday, November 2 -- GenCorp Polymer of Evansville will be featured in the final presentation of the "Partners for Success" series sponsored by the Southern Indiana Labor-Management Education Forum. The program will start at 8 a.m. in the University Center and will include a presentation by GenCorp labor-management personnel, a question-answer session, and an evaluation. Reservations are $5 per person and may be made by calling the USI Office of Continuing Education (812) 464-1863.

(For information, contact Timothy B. Mahoney, labor-management forum director, [812] 464-1863.)

---

(MORE)

Thursday, November 3 -- The USI Board of Trustees will meet at 10 a.m. in the University Center.

(For information, contact Mrs. Sherrianne M. Standley, vice president for University Relations, [812] 464-1755.)

---

CONTINUING EDUCATION COURSES

Monday, October 31 ---- Advanced Photography

Tuesday, November 1 --- Building and Leading Project Teams
Using Third-Party Collectors

Wednesday, November 2 - Synchronized Swimming

Thursday, November 3 -- Effective Writing

Saturday, November 5 -- IBM PC Disk Operating System (DOS)

(Some listings are one-day courses, but in many cases, dates listed are starting dates for multi-class courses. For information, contact the Continuing Education Department, [812] 464-1863.)