

USI SIGMA TAUS TO DISCUSS
LOVE AND SHAKESPEARE
IN LIBERAL ARTS FORUM

NEWS RELEASE

CONTACT: Kathy W. Funke
News and Information Services
812/465-7050

For Immediate Release
April 8, 1992

Members of Sigma Tau Delta English honorary at the University of Southern Indiana will present a Liberal Arts Forum on "Love in the Plays of Shakespeare" at 2:30 p.m. Thursday, April 23, in Forum I at the University.

The program celebrating the Bard's birthday is open to the public and will include the showing of Romeo and Juliet, which won the Cannes Film Festival award in 1955. The movie stars Laurence Harvey and was shot on location in Venice.

A six-member Sigma Tau panel will discuss various aspects of love and its effect on character development and dramatic conflict in several of Shakespeare's plays. The panel includes:

Leisa Below, 312 W. Main, Newburgh, Indiana
Eric Eades, 2706 Oakley, Evansville
Brent Endsley, 1680 Cass Court, Evansville
Laura Hedrick, RR 1, Oakland City, Indiana
Julie Sprinkle, 825 Monroe, Newburgh, Indiana
Elizabeth Wells, 1111 Farm Bureau Road, Mt. Vernon

- 30 -