Wednesday, August 30 - Multicultural Center Orientation, 4 p.m., UC Dining Room

New Start Seminar

The fall New Start Seminar will be held at 9 a.m. Saturday, August 5, in the Health Professions Center, a program to assist in decision-making for those age 25 and older who are considering college classes as the avenue for a new start in life. The three-hour program will cover career planning and placement opportunities, financial aid grants, USI support programs for adult students, how to enroll in one class, and how to work toward a degree as a part-time student. The Strong Campbell Interest Inventory will be available for those who want to learn where their aptitudes lie; a $10 fee is charged for the inventory. The seminar is free but reservations are requested. Call extension 1765 for information or to register.

Names in the news:

Dr. Charles T. Barber, chair of the Philosophy and Political Science Department, participated in the second annual International Congress on Challenges to Education, which met July 19-21 in Cancun, Mexico. Dr. Barber presented a 25-page paper, "Teaching About Ethnicity to Government Students." An abstract of the paper was published as page 16 in Proceedings of the International Congress on Challenges in Education: Balancing Unity and Diversity in a Changing World, 1995.

The New Harmony Theatre

The New Harmony Theatre production of the Pulitzer Prize-winning You Can't Take It With You will continue through Saturday, July 29, at Murphy Auditorium, a delightfully witty story about a "mad" family involved with eccentric hobbies and bizarre dealings.

I Do! I Do! is playing at Thrall's Opera House through July 30. Thornton Wilder's Our Town will open at Murphy Auditorium August 4. Curtain time at Thrall's is 7:30 p.m. Thursdays, 8 p.m. Fridays, 5 and 8:30 p.m. Saturdays, and 5 p.m. Sundays. Curtain time at Murphy is 7:30 p.m. Thursdays, 8 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays, and 2 p.m. Sundays.

A single general admission is $14, student/senior citizen, $13, and groups of 20 or more, $12 each. A $2 discount on the adult ticket price is available to the University community. For tickets or reservations, call Murphy Auditorium box office, 682-3115; VISA and MasterCard are accepted.

Dr. Joseph DiPietro, assistant professor of geology, will give a one-hour talk at 12 noon Tuesday, August 15, in SC253, an update on his work in the mountains of Northern Pakistan and the people who live there. Working under a $250,000 grant from the National Science Foundation, he is searching for clues to earth formations and movements the last 200 million years and their effect on climate, including the greenhouse effect. Dr. DiPietro first went to Pakistan nine years ago while studying for his Ph.D. at Oregon State University. Under the NSF grant, he returned there for three months in the fall of 1994, and will spend three months there this fall, and 45 days there in both 1996 and 1997.

Welcome:

The University community welcomes seven new employees -- Ms. Julie Dunn Crawford, Student Life program advisor; Mrs. Kelly Lynn Dillon, Enrollment Services counselor; Mr. Frank K. Hattula, Residence Life Program coordinator; Mr. John F. Hufnagel, maintenance worker; Mr. Douglas F. Martin, security officer; Mr. Donald F. Mays, grounds maintenance; and Mrs. Merritt Youngs, Enrollment Services counselor.

Ms. Crawford has a B.A. in political science and M.A. in education from the University of Louisville. She has been handling the program advisor duties on a parttime basis.

Mrs. Dillon is a USI business and management/marketing graduate and previously was a sales representative with Kraft Foods.

Mr. Hattula received a B.A. in accounting from Lewis University and a master's in college student personnel administration from Indiana University, where he has been the residence life assistant.

Mr. Hufnagel formerly was a driver for C. R. Schmitt Power Service and a maintenance employee for Wal-Mart.

Mr. Martin previously work as a lead man for Boetticher & Kellogg Company.

Mr. Mays owns Don's Dreamscaping and Lawnmowing.

Mrs. Youngs is a graduate of California State University at Fresno. She previously was director of sales with Communique Marketing and an account executive with First Cellular of Southern Illinois.

Congratulations...

to Ms. Jayne Kroeger Tang, Computer Center programmer/analyst, and her husband David on the birth July 18 of a daughter, Dana Gabrielle.

Congratulations also to head basketball Coach Bruce Pearl and his wife Kim on the birth July 26 of a son.

Best wishes:

The University community extends best wishes to Ms. Christine Hoehn, director of Campus Ministry, who is recuperating at the home of her sister after undergoing successful surgery in Houston, Texas. Cards or letters may be sent to Ms. Hoehn in care of the sister, Mrs. Mary Rhodes, 2924 Waterloo Circle, Pearland TX 77581.

Talent show:

The Children's Center talent show, featuring youngsters involved in summer programs sponsored by the center, will be held

— Young Abe Lincoln — — Big River —

The outdoor musicals, Young Abe Lincoln and Big River, are being presented on alternating nights through Saturday, August 19, at Lincoln Amphitheater, Lincoln City, Indiana. Curtain time is 8 p.m. daily; the amphitheater is closed Mondays.

The final community night on August 6 will feature a watermelon social. The USI Dubois County Alumni Chapter plans a family-and-friends excursion Saturday, August 12, with a Railsplitter Supper at 6:30 p.m. to be followed by the performance at 8 p.m.

Tickets are $10, adults; $9, senior citizens; $6, children; on community night, an adult ticket is $8 (a $2 discount), other prices are the same. A $25 season ticket is available, allowing the holder to return again and again to see the outdoor musicals, including community night. Call 800/246-4ABE for information.

Fabulous First Friday:

Some 15 cast members from Young Abe Lincoln and Big River, including Mr. Macon Ray portraying the 16th U.S. president, will entertain in the Downtown Evansville from 11:45 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Friday, August 4, as part of the "Fabulous First Friday" programs being featured this summer on the Main Street Walkway. The outdoor musical cast will perform at the gazebo near Old National Bank.

at 9 a.m. Friday, August 11, in Forum 1. The University community is invited.

Historic New Harmony:

The "Mourning in New Harmony" exhibitions will continue through August and can be seen on daily tours starting at 2 p.m. at The Atheneum.

Mr. Noel L. Smith of Mt. Vernon, Illinois, muralist and master demonstrator, will paint and answer questions about his work from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, August 5, at The Atheneum.

Founders Day will be observed Tuesday,

August 8, with free admission all day at the various Historic New Harmony exhibits and projects. Special hands-on programs will be available.

The annual Hagemann Awards for Music Concert will be held at 7 p.m. Thursday, August 10, in Thrall's Opera House. The public is invited.

USI Alumni Council elects:

Mr. Eric R. Williams '89, a sergeant and day-shift supervisor with the Vanderburgh County Sheriff's Department, was elected president of the USI Alumni Association/Council for 1995-96. Other officers are: Ms. Suzann M. Baehl '86, president-elect; Mrs. Teresa R. Grisham '87, secretary; and Mr. Jeffrey L. Wolf '78, treasurer. Elected to new three-year terms on the Alumni Council are: Mr. Charles A. Beck, Jr., '73, Ms. Jane E. Jackson '86, Mr. Kirk W. Knight '93, Mr. Keith J. Moore '74, Mr. Gregory A. Newman '88, Ms. Maureen E. O'Daniel '88, Mr. Will J. Smith '78, and Ms. April M. Whitehead '90.

Bid date changed:

The date has been changed to 2 p.m. Tuesday, August 1, for the receipt of bids on the $4.1-million University Center expansion project. The original bid date of July 25 was dropped because another large corporation (Azar) is receiving bids on that date. The University Center was opened in 1974. Ground is expected to be broken in September for the one-year project to double square footage, add a second entrance on the south, expand dining facilities and conference rooms, increase Student Life office space, and provide student recreation areas.

For phone orders, call 812/465-1630; VISA and MasterCard are accepted.

Human Resources reminder:

The Human Resources Department reminds employees to notify them immediately of any address change, change in marital status, or the birth of a child (if enrolled in a health insurance program). Your benefits coverage or taxes may be affected by the changes, so it is important to be timely with notifications. Thank you for your cooperation.

If you are a member of the Evansville Teachers Federal Credit Union and want to change your name or address, or to add someone as joint owner of your account, you must contact the credit union directly.

Indiana State Fair:

display in the Universities' Exhibit at the Indiana State Fair Wednesday, August 9 through Sunday, August 20 in Expo Hall on the State Fairgrounds. State fair brochures are available in the Office of Special Events, extension 1930.

Lecture series:

The final lecture in the USI Center for Communal Studies free public lecture series in New Harmony on Saturday, August 19, will feature Ms. Rachel Summerton discussing "Padanaram Settlement near Bedford, Indiana: A Current Community." The lecture will be at 10 a.m. in the Beal House, across from Thrall's Opera House. Inquiries may be sent to the Communal Studies Center in the School of Liberal Arts, or call extension 1727.

An optimist is someone who tells you to cheer up when things are going his way.

Worry is like a treadmill: it will wear you out and still not get you anywhere.
