USI SCHEDULE

DECEMBER 1993

Wednesday, December 1

Foreign language caroling - Students of French, German, Japanese, and Spanish will present Christmas carols in their chosen languages in a program at 3 p.m. in Forum I. Refreshments will be served. Those who attend are asked to remember these are language students, not musicians.

(For information, contact Susan Smith Wolfe, associate professor of German and Yule program coordinator, 812/465-7026.)

World AIDS Day observance - The USI student AIDS peer facilitators group will co-sponsor a return visit by Heather Thompsons, Bloomington, Indiana, artist, who will discuss her experiences in living with AIDS. The program will be held from 1 to 3 p.m. in the University Center.

(For information, contact Mrs. Becky Coble, Health Services secretary and peer facilitator coordinator, 812/464-1807.)

Monday, December 6

Southern Hospitality Day - The final fall Southern Hospitality Day to allow Tri-State high school students and their families to become acquainted with USI will begin at 9 a.m. in the University Center, sponsored by Enrollment Services. The day's activities will include tours of the campus and adjacent student housing, meetings with the academic deans, and class visits. No reservations are required.

(For information call the USI Admissions Office, 812/464-1765 or 800/444-1965.)

Tuesday, December 7

Final fall film - Henry V (1989) This most recent film of Shakespeare's play -- directed by Kenneth Branagh and starring Branagh, Emma Thompson, and Derek Jacobi -- is a more earthy, rain-soaked version than that of Sir Laurence Olivier's, and is particularly good at making Elizabethan English come alive for modern audiences.

(The films are shown at 1:30 and 6 p.m. in Forum I and are free and open to public. For information, call the School of Liberal Arts office, 812/464-1735.)

Wednesday, December 8

"The Wonders of Work" exhibition - An exhibit prepared by Augustine "Jay" Fredrich, USI professor of civil engineering technology, will showcase images created by Joseph Pennell, Philadelphia-born illustrator and artist whose pen-and-ink drawings, etchings, and lithographs depicting what he called "The Wonders of Work" are included in museum collections around the world. The exhibit of Pennell drawings of famous engineering/construction projects, including the Panama Canal, will be open to the public during regular hours at Midstates Contemporary Gallery, 208 Main Street: 10:30 a.m.-5 p.m. Wednesday-Friday, December 8-9-10; 7-9 p.m. Friday, December 10; and 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, December 11.

(For information, call Jay Fredrich, chair of the USI Engineering Technology Department, 812/464-1877.)

Thursday, December 9

Public hearings - The Indiana Department of Transportation will conduct two public hearings, at 4 and 7 p.m. in Forum I, on the Eickhoff-Koressel corridor which will connect Indiana 62 from USI north to Interstate 64. Road alignment maps will be available for public inspection in the Administration Building corridor before and after the hearings.

(For information, call Don Shields at IDOT.)

Saturday, December 11

Historic New Harmony - The annual Holiday Ball will be held from 8:30 to 11 p.m. in Thrall's Opera House, with music provided by the Temple-Aires. Tickets are $10 per person.

(Call the Red Geranium Bookstore for tickets or information, 812/682-4423.)
