USI COMMENCEMENT

USI's 22nd Commencement will be held at 7 p.m. Saturday, May 9, in Roberts Stadium, when some 860 students will be eligible to receive associate, bachelor and master degrees.

Dr. George B. Weathersby, former Indiana Commissioner for Higher Education and a member of the first USI Board, will bring the Commencement address. Honorary degrees will be conferred upon Dr. Weathersby; Mrs. Bettye B. McCutchan, life member and secretary of the USI Foundation Board of Directors; and Mr. William A. Koch, developer of Holiday World.

The 1992 Distinguished Professor Award will be presented to Dr. Aldo F. Cardarelli, professor of education and chair of the Teacher Education Department, and the President's Medal, highest honor for a graduating senior, will be presented to Mrs. Debbie L. Seib, an accounting and computer information systems major who will graduate magna cum laude.

Commencement weekend also will include:

* The USI Alumni Association will hold its Senior Reception/Dinner Friday, May 8, in the UC Dining Room. The reception will start at 6 p.m., with dinner at 7. The association will honor 1992 graduates and present the Distinguished Alumni award to Mrs. Ruth Zimmerman Baize, a 1974 graduate who teaches at Lodge Elementary in Evansville; Alumni Service Award to Mr. Chris Melton, a 1972 graduate who is senior vice president at National City Bank in Evansville; Special Recognition Award to Mrs. Cynderella McDowell Miller, a special friend to USI; and Faculty Recognition Award to Mrs. Deborah C. Henry, a 1976 graduate and program director and assistant professor of Dental Hygiene at USI, and Mrs. Phyllis A. Maddox, a 1975 graduate and assistant professor of Dental Hygiene.

* The USI Board of Trustees, gathered for Commencement, will hold its May meeting at 10:45 a.m. Saturday, May 9, at the University Center, following an executive session at 10 a.m.

* The Ivy Tech Commencement will be held at 10 a.m. at the Physical Activities Center.

* The Dental Assisting graduation will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday in Forum I.

* The Nurses' Completion Ceremony will be held at 2:30 p.m. in the Physical Activities Center; a reception will follow.

* There will be a reception for 1992 graduates and their families from 4 to 5 p.m. at the University Home.

FIRST PRESIDENTIAL SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS TO GRADUATE

It was just four years ago that University and USI Foundation officials devised the scholarship program that would bring many of Indiana's brightest and best to the University of Southern Indiana.

They established the Presidential Scholarship for Hoosier valedictorians and salutatorians. The award assures students the cost of tuition fees, books, and room and board at USI will be met, a potential of nearly $20,000 over four years.

Fourteen of that original group will receive degrees at the 1992 Commencement ceremony. A 15th member -- Ms. Bethany J. Nuss of Brownstown -- became the first to graduate in 1991, having completed her studies in just under three years. She was 1988 valedictorian at Brownstown Central and graduated magna cum laude from USI with a B.S. in mathematics.

Another Presidential Scholar, Ms. Laura L. Huber of Cannelton, will graduate summa cum laude this year. Ms. Huber is an elementary education major who has maintained a 3.987 grade point average (in a 4.0 system). She was valedictorian of the 1988 graduating class at Cannelton High School and is the daughter of Thomas T. and Jane R. Huber of Cannelton, Indiana. She also is a cousin of USI Trustee J. David Huber.

The 1992 honors graduates include 32 at the magna cum laude (3.8 and above) level and 61 at the cum laude (3.6 and above) level. Twelve of them are Presidential Scholars. Besides Ms. Huber, graduating scholarship recipients include:

Ms. Paula J. Baughn - B.A. communications, cum laude; Central High School, Evansville, valedictorian; she is the daughter of Robert and Laura Baughn of Evansville. She has worked at the campus newspaper, The Shield, serving as sports editor, staff writer, and photographer, and since October, has been a reporter at The Evansville Press. Ms. Baughn won the Courier Journalism Award in 1991 and the Academic Achievement Award in Journalism in 1992.

Mrs. Debra Seifrig Dauby - B.A. mathematics, cum laude; continued on page 2

Opening Ceremony for the 1992 Ohio River Festival for the Arts will be held from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Friday, May 8, at Sixth and Main streets in downtown Evansville. The opening will feature the Indiana State University steel drum quintet; Mr. Mark Davis, the world's third tallest magician; Mr. Jim Allison, winner of the first annual Harry Tenbarger Award; Hadi Funsters; and door prizes.

The "Tune Into the Arts" festival opens at noon Friday and will continue through Mother's Day, May 10. There will be 60 artist booths, 20 food vendors, two stages of continuous entertainment, children's activities, the Arts Fest River Run, barbecue cooking contest, and more. Call the Arts Council of Southwestern Indiana, 422-2111, for information.

DR. JOYCE BROTHERS TO SPEAK.

Dr. Joyce Brothers, psychologist, columnist, author, and business consultant, will speak at 7 p.m. Thursday, May 7, at the Jasper, Indiana, Civic Auditorium, sponsored by the Sisters of St. Benedict and other Jasper organizations as part of the Sisters' 125th anniversary celebration. Dr.

Brothers' topic will be "Success Is a State of Mind." A reception will be held from 6 to 7 p.m. at the Holiday Inn in Jasper. Tickets for both the reception ($10) and the lecture ($15) are limited and will be allotted first-come, first-served. Call 812/367-1411 for information.

CONFERENCE ON GIVING PLANNED.

A day-long conference of board governance and diversity for area nonprofit and public boards and professional staffs will be held Tuesday, May 12, at USI, sponsored by the Community Foundation Alliance with assistance from Indiana Gives. Dr. John Carver, president of Carver Governance Design, Inc., will lead the conference; he is author of Boards That Make a Difference: A New Design for Leadership in Nonprofit and Public Organizations. Also featured will be Ms. Maria Blake, national Girl Scout trainer, and Dr. Charles F. Petranek, USI professor of sociology. Call 429-1191 for registration information.

TEENPOWER. Youth Resources and Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD) have announced TEENPOWER, an anti-drug and alcohol camp to be held July 27-31 at the University of Evansville. The four-day camp is open to incoming high

NEW GRANT SERVICE. The Office of Grants and Sponsored Research, in conjunction with the USI Library, will provide a new service to USI faculty and staff interested in researching grant funding. A funding source database is being installed on two computers in the Library computer lab. The database -- OFP GrantSearch -- contains information on funding sources for faculty research, academic program development, and the acquisition of instructional and research equipment. Both private and federal government sources are included.

GrantSearch was compiled and formatted for use on an IBM personal computer by the American Association of State Colleges and Universities (AASCU) Office of Federal Programs (OFP). The database is very simple to operate but has user instructions, and a Keyword and Search Code System Manual.

Dr. Peggy F. Harrel, coordinator of Grants and Sponsored Research, will demonstrate the program at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday, May 19, in the Graduate Studies Office, AD104. No registration is necessary. Anyone unable to attend may arrange with Dr. Harrel for a later showing. She plans to hold another demonstration in the fall.
