The 1988 Christmas season will arrive December 1 on the University of Southern Indiana campus, when the splendor of song and the pomp of tradition -- the festive Christmas Madrigal Feastes -- open in the University Center Dining Room.

A yuletide celebration reminiscent of centuries past, the Christmas Madrigal Feastes include the traditional old English roast beef dinner brought to guests by serving wenches and liveried servants. There is continuous entertainment by the talented troupe of Mid-America Singers in an authentically staged dining hall bedecked with Renaissance-style garlands and banners.

The Madrigals are directed by Sue Schriber and produced by Jack Schriber. The feaste starts at 7:30 p.m. Thursday through Saturday, December 1-3, and at 6 p.m. on Sunday, December 4.

The Christmas Madrigal ticket price is $15 per person; a special $12 price is available for students and senior citizens for the Sunday performance only.

Contact the USI School of Liberal Arts, (812) 464-1735, for a flyer/reservation form, or send your check (made payable to the University of Southern Indiana) to Christmas Madrigal Feaste, 8600 University Boulevard, Evansville, IN 47712. Reservations will not be taken over the telephone.
