For Immediate Release
April 6, 1989

An all-day workshop examining the problems of personal communication and management of people will be held Wednesday, April 12, sponsored by the University of Southern Indiana's Office of Continuing Education.

Dr. Sandra M. Singer, USI assistant vice president for Academic Affairs and associate professor of psychology, will be the instructor. The class will focus on understanding people and conflict, positive motivation techniques, increasing productivity, and contracting for performance improvement. A question-answer session will allow time for advice on specific problems.

The $85 registration fee, $75 each for two or more registering together, covers lunch and materials. Call the Office of Continuing Education, (812) 464-1863, for information or to register.
