SCHOLARSHIP FUND OFF TO GOOD START AT USI. Seventeen members of the USI faculty and staff have contributed or pledged to the new Presidential Scholarship Fund, helping to raise more than $650 in the first week of the special fund drive. Those who have given include: Dr. Larry W. Arp, director of Athletics; Mr. John E. Baburnich, systems applications specialist, Registrar's Office; Mr. Timothy K. Buecher, director of Admissions; Dr. Sherry B. Darrell, associate professor of English; Dr. Melvin W. Denner, professor of biology; Mrs. Jean M. Devine, administrative assistant to the vice president for University Relations; Dr. Emmet D. Edwards, associate professor of Business; Mrs. Rebecca J. Englert, supervisor/instructor in Radiologic Technology; Ms. Cindy L. Eskew, Admissions counselor; Mrs. Joan M. Jost, administrative assistant to the vice president for Student Affairs; Ms. Nancy J. Long, General Studies advisor and instructor in English; Ms. Rachel P. Muller, call-in tour guide, Historic New Harmony; Mrs. Suzanne A. Nicholson, director of Development and Alumni Affairs; Mr. Jack R. Oliver, staff accountant; Mrs. Mary Lue Russler, administrative assistant in Development and Alumni Affairs; Mr. James A. Sanders, director of Historic New Harmony; and Ms. Beatrice L. Schmitzer, call-in tour guide, Historic New Harmony.

The fund drive was launched last week by the USI Foundation, seeking support or endowment for the Presidential Scholarships that are being offered to current high school valedictorians or salutatorians who indicate interest in attending USI. A total of 30 Hoosier students were offered Presidential Scholarships -- renewable awards valued at $4,500 a year -- for the 1988-89 academic year. To date, 22 have accepted and are expected to complete freshmen pre-registration by June 10. Donations or payroll deductions from USI faculty and staff will be added to the restricted Presidential Scholarship fund to help underwrite these special merit awards that are expected to attract many of Indiana's brightest students to USI. Contributions or pledges to the USI Foundation may be made in the Development Office.

NEW WOMEN'S BASKETBALL COACH NAMED. Ms. M. Felicia Cavallini has been named the new women's basketball coach, coming to USI after four years as assistant women's coach at Providence College in Rhode Island. She joined the staff last week and, in addition to coaching duties, will teach some physical education courses and be coordinator of the Physical Activities Center. Ms. Cavallini is a native of San Antonio, Texas, and received her B.A. from Rice University and her master's from the University of Texas at San Antonio. She lettered in basketball all four years at Rice and won numerous awards. Prior to coaching at Providence, she was the assistant coach and aerobics coordinator for men's and women's intercollegiate sports programs at Siena College in Loudonville, New York, and at UTSA. Well-versed in coaching, nutrition, and conditioning, Ms. Cavallini has written articles on these topics, including "Basketball and Aerobic Conditioning" which was published in the Athletic Journal and a similar article published in the Scholastic Coach.

NAMES IN THE NEWS. Ms. Laura Hubbell, special part-time instructor in communications, recently presented a lecture on the "Joy of Stress" to the Evansville Board of Realtors. She will present a workshop on "Personality Types, An Interpersonal Approach" at the June 3-5 spring meeting of the Indiana Occupational Therapist Association. From July 25-29, Ms. Hubbell will conduct human relations workshops for Dunlap, Inc., a Chicago advertising agency.

CONGRATULATIONS. The University community extends congratulations to Mr. Richard Schmidt, assistant vice president for Business Affairs, and Ms. Marilyn Walters, Placement director, who were married Saturday, May 29.

Congratulations are extended also to Mr. Larry Feldhaus, mail and storeroom supervisor, and his wife, Ann Marie, on the birth, Friday, June 3, of their first child, daughter Alyssa Marie.

And congratulations to Mrs. Loretta Jane Suttles, maintenance custodian at Historic New Harmony, and her husband, Brian, on the birth Monday, June 6, of a daughter, Camilla Jean.

IAC GRANTS. The Indiana Arts Commission announced Tuesday, June 7, the award of a $11,500 grant to the New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art. The annual grant helps support the changing monthly exhibitions in the main gallery of the New Harmony Gallery. Other USI grants among the $1.5 million distributed this year by the commission included $1,000 for New Harmony Theatre operations and the $3,000 fellowship awarded to Mr. Matthew Graham, assistant professor of English/creative writing.

PAPER COSTS RAISED. Mrs. Ann Humphrey, director of Publications, has a new price list for printing services reflecting increases for paper as advised by vendors, effective July 1. You are advised that charge backs for printing and the Copy Center usually close on the 15th of each month, but in June will close on June 30. Copy Center and typesetting charges will remain the same at this time. If you have questions or need to know new paper costs, contact Mrs. Humphrey.
